

Chapter 1039 A Gem

Before leaving, Trevor strode over to Wilbert and patted his shoulder with a smile.

"You know, you actually helped me a bit in recruiting people in my company. You kind of sponsored some of the money I used for the audition. Don't you think the video you spent a lot of money on is amazing?"

Wilbert's face turned completely red with rage.

He glared at Trevor like a mad ghost and roared, "Fuck off!"

But because Trevor was much taller, Wilbert couldn't dare to hit him despite his anger.

He felt awful that Trevor fooled him into spending so much money on a prank video.

Watching Trevor leave with the students, Wilbert kicked the ground with bared teeth.

"I swear I'll get you one day, bastard!"

Standing next to Wilbert, Cristina felt regretful.

But she couldn't change anything now. She could only try her best to curry favor with Wilbert and get another chance. She spoke sweetly to him. "Don't get so worked up. Are you free to shoot a short video tonight? I'm down if you also want to take private photos of me."

Instead of making Wilbert feel better, Cristina's words only infuriated him more.

"Shut up!" he yelled and stormed out with a scowl.

Wilbert was naturally reminded of the prank video he got when Cristina mentioned shooting another one. He was still very much upset and mad about it.

The said prank video was of a girl taking her clothes off with her back to the camera, showing off her hot and sexy body. But when she turned around, a horrible ghost popped on the screen, scaring Wilbert out of his mind.

Hearing Cristina's suggestion while still consumed with such negative emotions made him feel a lot worse.

Trevor, on the other hand, felt great.

He rented a bus to pick up the students and take them to the offices of Sky Film and Television Company.

The students were from different departments in the university, such as the Department of Directing, the Department of Performing, and the Department of Scriptwriting.

Among them was Ivanna from the Department of Music, who caught Trevor's attention during the audition.

When it was her turn, Ivanna walked into the recording studio timidly because it was the first time she had been in such a place. She was evidently nervous because she kept rubbing her palms on her sides.

But when Ivanna started to sing, her nervousness slowly faded.

When Ivanna's singing voice filled the studio, Trevor raised his eyebrows in surprise. Her voice was beautiful.

Trevor was no music expert, but he was sure Ivanna's distinctive voice would surprise even the average people.

Her voice was clear and vibrant, like an angel's.

Hearing her sing, Trevor felt like he was on a beautiful island secluded from the rest of the world.

And it was as if the waves surged into the sky as she put more emotions into the song.

Even the rest of the students auditioning with Ivanna were in awe. Once the song ended, they all gave her a big round of applause.

Trevor couldn't help his smile as he watched Ivanna, for he knew he had found a gem in her.

As far as he was concerned, Ivanna's voice was already perfect. What she needed to work on more was her stage presence.

Ivanna wasn't confident enough to stand on stage.

A singer like her should be able to show her charm while performing.

The moment Ivanna conquered her stage fright, she would shine more brightly on stage. Her potential might bring in incalculable opportunities and profits in the future.

Trevor immediately made his decision. "That was wonderful, Ivanna! Congratulations! You're in! I'll give you an offer. You can now sign a contract with our company."

Ivanna's beautiful eyes flickered with surprise. She couldn't believe Trevor would like her performance and sign her up for a contract on the spot.

She was more than happy to accept the offer.

Trevor proceeded to give offers to the other passionate and brilliant students.

After signing up a good number of talented individuals, Sky Film and Television Company was off to a great start.
