

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3184-Serenity said, "Miss Du is here for Evan."

Elisa: "Evan? The fourth young master of the York family?"

Elisa knew all nine young masters of the York family, but the first three were the ones who impressed her the most. From the fourth onward, she was not impressed at all.

When she didn't see people, she couldn't quite remember what they looked like. When she saw people, she remembered who they were.

Serenity responded as she walked into the office, "Yes. Evan went to flirt with Miss Du, but he didn't give her a real answer. She appeared to be away, and Miss Du chased after him, just wanting an answer."

The same goes for that kid. If you like her, then pursue her. If you don't like her, don't flirt with her."

Serenity complained about her brother-in-law, Evan.

The York family's men were all excellent. A few girls could resist if they took the initiative.

Elisa gossiped, "Maybe Evan is just trying to catch her."

Serenity: "In that case, he succeeded. It seems that Miss Du likes him."

Elisa curled her lips and said, "How many women can resist the men of their York family?"

Her thoughts were the same as Serenity's.

"Is Miss Du the person Grandma chose for Evan?" Elisa asked in a low voice.

She and Serenity were cousins and best friends. Grandma May chose the granddaughter-in-law of the York family, so Elisa naturally knew about it.

She was a little bit shocked, saying that Grandma May seemed to like her very much, but Grandma May did not want to choose Elisa as her granddaughter-in-law.

However, Elisa was also very happy. The husband's family tradition she was marrying was the same as that of the York family.

"My guess is, but Evan said that she always had the same dream, dreaming that he was entangled with a girl. Evan's grandmother did not choose that girl to be her wife. So, Evan is very torn. He wants to be a filial grandson and follow the path grandma has arranged for him, but he keeps dreaming about that girl and worries that he will not fall in love with the person grandma has chosen for him.

He's afraid that if he marries the person Grandma chooses for him, he will not be happy. He will cheat on her in the future or become the first man in the York family to get divorced."

Elisa listened with great interest.

She didn't know about it.

Elisa analyzed and said, "Is there such a thing? No wonder Evan is so confused. The candidate chosen by Grandma for him must be Miss Du. She seems to be a good match for him. Then if he takes the initiative to recruit Miss Du, and if he stays away from her, it's not because he is trying to get her, but because he is extremely entangled and doesn't know who to choose."

Serenity said, "Evan hasn't chosen anyone yet; otherwise, Miss Du wouldn't have chased him and wanted an explanation. Miss Du said she hadn't seen him for a while. When Miss Du wanted to forget him, he suddenly appeared again. He was very kind to Miss Du. When Miss Du encountered difficulties, he always helped her immediately. When Miss Du felt that she was going to fall in love with him, he suddenly disappeared for a long time, which made Miss Du very crazy."

Serenity picked up the phone and said, "I'll call Zachary and ask him to contact Evan and ask him where he is now."

"Whether Evan loves someone or not, he has to give them an answer. Hang on both ends like this; it's like stepping on a double boat. Both ends will be hurt by him."

Elisa echoed, "That's right, there must be a decision and a trade-off. If I were Miss Du, if he dared to hang me like this, I wouldn't even want to dump him."
