

Chapter 131

The unexpected voice jolted Elora out of her complacency. When she turned her head, she noticed that Ethan had stepped next to her and was standing beside her.

His gaze was glued on the painting in front of him. Elora looked at his profile from the side. He was a very attractive young man.

It was not like she could compare his appearance to Ryan.

Because they were both appealing to the eye.

When he turned his head and looked into her eyes, her eyes glowed green. Almost instantly, he turned his gaze away from her.

Elora laughed derisively at his response. She refocused her attention on the painting.

"What brings you to stare at this painting like that? You are not a Lunar witch. Hybrid's painting is there." He made the statement as he regarded a painting that was located a few blocks away from where they were standing.

"How can I forget my first identity?" She mumbled in a lower tone.

Ethan was an Alpha. He was able to pick up on her every word.

"First identity?"

Elora did not reply to him and instead continued to mend her gaze on the woman portrayed in the painting.

In addition to that, Ethan also turned his attention to the painting. He remembered a lunar witch he was familiar with.

"Have you ever come across one in person?" Elora's question came out of the blue.

"What?"

"Have you ever met a Lunar witch?"

"Of course. I know a very powerful witch. Her power and ability are unimaginable. Lunar witches got their power directly from the moonlight. That is why they are called Lunar witches."

"Who is she?"

"Georgiana James."

Elora's brows immediately furrowed at hearing the name. Her eyes shone with anguish and despair.

"She is my pack's member. Not only that, she is my father's very close friend. On every important occasion, she comes here to greet me."

"Nice. So she has met you already."

"What do you mean?" He inquired while glancing at her.

Elora let out a sigh and shook her head in response. "Nothing."

She started walking toward the painting that Ethan was referring to.

Unintentionally, Ethan followed after her. She stopped in front of a painting of a gray wolf with green eyes.

She gulped when she saw the wolf. Her eyes gleamed with the reflection of tears.

"Supreme Hybrid"

Ethan said it as he glanced at the title.

"Not bad. No doubt you have an amazing rank. But you can't deny that you are different from us."

"Do you despise it?"

Her sudden question stunned him, but he replied while scrutinizing the painting.

"No. But..."

He paused without finishing the sentence. She had an understanding of what he was going to say. But she was completely blameless in the matter. She was not born like that.

Ethan glanced at her but was taken aback when he noticed tears running down her cheeks.

"Why are you crying?"

She shook her head and wiped her tears. She turned to look around and saw Ryan staring at her.

Even though he already had a scowl on his face, when he noticed Elora's tears, his expression worsened.

He approached her and enquired,

"Why are you crying?"

His eyes shifted to Ethan. He glared at him and asked, "What did you say to her?"

At that time, they attract others' attention.

Allison was looking around the hall all alone. She was examining all the paintings with titles she had passed.

Suddenly, her eyes fell on Ethan and Ryan. They did not look in a good mood. Ryan looked angry.

She rushed to them and stood next to Ethan.

"What happened?" She asked Ethan, but when her eyes fell on Elora, she was astounded.

Elora was crying while staring at Ryan without saying anything.

"I didn't say anything." Ethan replied to Ryan. He was also glaring at Ryan since Ryan was the first one to approach him furiously.

"He did not say anything. Don't fight." Elora whispered to Ryan and lowered her head.

Ryan did not shift his eyes from Ethan. He stepped towards him, which made Allison afraid that he would start the fight.

But Ryan stood in front of Ethan and warned him,

"Keep your distance from her. Just focus on the woman who you have chosen as your Luna."

Allison was stunned by his remarks. Why did he bring her into their conversation?

Why did he bother to threaten Ethan in the first place? When did Ethan show interest in Elora or get close to her?

In fact, Ethan talked about Elora's rank, and she stopped him from saying anything about it.

Then why?

She turned to Ethan and asked,

"What did you do?"

He looked at her and was silent for a few seconds. He sighed and replied,

"I didn't say anything. We were just looking at her rank. She got emotional about it. Believe me, I can't look at anyone when you are in front of me."

Allison averted her gaze from him. She looked at Ryan and said,

"You are misunderstanding him. He had done nothing. If you still have problems, then don't leave the woman you have chosen as your Luna alone, and only focus on her."

Allison gave him his own answer back on his face and grabbed Ethan's hand. Ethan gazed at her hand. She pulled him along with her. He cast a brief look over at Elora, who was still staring at Ryan, and then his gaze shifted to Ryan, who was giving Allison a furious look. Then he turned his attention back to Allison and walked with her.

Ryan turned around to look at Elora. She immediately lowered her head. His eyes fell on the painting.

"Did I make you a hybrid to see the tears in your eyes?"

He questioned her as he focused his attention on the painting.

She gave a little shake of the head and glanced at the painting once again.

"It brought back memories of the very first time I shifted. I-I was trembling with fear that time. I could not believe that I had turned into a wolf." She exclaimed. When she thought about her past experiences, her lips quivered.

Meanwhile, Ethan stopped Allison from walking any further.

"Do you really think I did anything?"

Allison glared angrily in his direction. "You must have mentioned something about her rank, right? If that's not the case, then why does a confident lady like her shedding tears?"

"I just want to tell you that I only love you. No matter who will try to stand in our way, I will always love you."

Allison was surprised by his sudden confession.

"What are you saying?"

"I told you to remember that. It's my promise to you."

Allison could not understand what had happened to him so suddenly.

"Listen, I don't give a damn what you-"

Allison paused when her eyes fell behind Ethan. She could see Elora and Ryan a little far from them.

She felt her heart shudder while looking at them.

Elora was trying to say something while lowering her head, but Ryan interrupted her by pulling her into his embrace and hugging her.
