Chapter 2781

Chapter 2781 "What? Mister Wolf, are you serious? Are you willing to increase the portion twenty-five percent?" Hugo was overjoyed.

Though it was just an increase of five percent, it was a great fortune when it came from a highly profitable firm like Cynthion Group.

This would at least guarantee the Morrisons hundreds of millions each year or even more.

Caleb and the elders were reluctant to work with Cynthion Group because they wanted to benefit more. After all the tricks they played, they failed and almost cost them the opportunity to partner with Cynthion Group. Yet, Leon was now willing to increase their portion to twenty-five percent and this caught Hugo by surprise. Instantly, he was both shocked and pleasantly surprised.

"Of course, I'm serious!" Leon nodded.

Profit was a great motivator for anyone.

He knew that the profit division he offered was quite low and the Morrisons were aiming to gain more.

This was normal and he could empathize.

However, a line had to be drawn.

At the very beginning of the negotiation, he intended to raise the portion for the Morrisons to thirty percent. Unfortunately, the Morrisons were far too arrogant and Jayden even demanded an even division.

This enraged Leon and in a fit of frustration, he set the portion for the Morrisons to twenty percent.

However, they all reached an agreement. On top of that, Hugo acquired a pharmaceutical firm and arranged for two capable men to help manage the branch.

So long as the Morrisons were willing to acquire another cosmetic firm and resolve his issue with setting a branch for Elegante Group, he was willing to increase the portion to twenty-five percent.

"Sure! Mister Wolf, I'll thank you on behalf of the Morrisons!" Hugo said with a smile.

Though there was a condition to Leon's proposal, it was a simple demand.

Considering the Morrisons' power, they could easily acquire a cosmetic company for Leon. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

It was no exaggeration to say that Leon was practically giving them an extra five percent for free and Hugo was overjoyed. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Mister Morrison, it's settled then. I look forward to hearing from you," Leon smiled.

Just as he was about to continue, his phone rang and he took it out to find that it was a call from Jensen. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

Jensen was calling to invite him over to the Daglehs' mansion.

After a moment of thought, he answered the call.

Chapter 2782

Chapter 2782 After the call was connected, Leon had a brief conversation with Jensen. He already promised to visit the Daglehs' mansion and set the time for his visit at noon.

However, Renee was dragging him around throughout the morning and the time he spent with Hugo took quite a lot of time, so he was not able to head to the Daglehs' mansion.

Jensen waited for a long time and Leon was nowhere to be seen, so he decided to call and check on Leon. Leon merely agreed to visit because he preferred to work with the Daglehs at the time and wanted to discuss with Elder Daglehs in private.

The situation changed and since he already reached an agreement with the Morrisons, there was no reason for him to visit the Daglehs' mansion.

Still, the Daglehs were quite sincere and Leon already made a promise, so it would be rude of him to change his mind and not visit them.

With that in mind, he decided to visit the Daglehs and inform them about his agreement with the Morrisons.

At the very least, this would be better than him breaking his promise.

Once Leon hung up, Renee asked, "Leon, is that a call from Mister Dagleh?"

She knew that Leon was invited to the Daglehs' mansion, so she could conclude that it was a call from Jensen. Thankfully, Hugo was able to reach an agreement with Leon before the Daglehs and they were one step too late. Even if Leon headed to the Daglehs' mansion, it would not affect the Morrisons.

Both Renee and Hugo were relieved.

"Yeah! Mister Morrison, please handle the rest of the matters. | need to leave now," Leon said.

Though he already signed the contract, the paperwork that followed was quite complicated as he needed to file documents to the respective departments.

Leon was in a hurry to head to the Daglehs' mansion, so he did not have time for that. Hence, he could only leave it all to Hugo. "Sure, no problem! Mister Wolf, go ahead and leave the rest to me," Hugo said.

With that, Leon bid farewell to Hugo and Renee, before leaving for the Daglehs' mansion.

Meanwhile, in the Daglehs' mansion where the first bloodline resided, the Daglehs were all gathered in the hall. Apart from Elder Dagleh and Jensen, Jensen's parents were present as well, along with a young, beautiful woman. It was none other than Jensen's younger sister, Candice Dagleh.

Candice was a beautiful woman in her early twenties. She had a wonderful figure and a refreshing aura.

In terms of beauty, Renee was slightly prettier than she was. Candice was yet another rare beauty that could compare with Aurelia. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

Elder Daglesh gathered every member of the first bloodline to receive Leon.

This was the highest form of hospitality they could arrange, which indicated just how much Elder Daglesh valued Leon. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

On top of that, he also prepared a luxurious spread for Leon, and all the dishes were laid in the middle of the hall. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

However, since Leon was yet to arrive, they all waited by the side and no one was seated by the table at the moment.

Chapter 2783

"Grandpa, this Leon guy is so rude. He promised to come at noon and it's way past noon now, yet he's nowhere to be seen." Candice was growing impatient.

As the eldest daughter of the Daglehs, she had a high status and breathtaking beauty, which meant that she had many pursuers.

It was always others who waited for her and fawned over her, so she never waited for someone else.

Yet, she was now waiting for a strange man alongside Elder Daglesh and the others. Because of that, she was quite upset with Leon.

"Candice, be patient. I've already called Mister Wolf and he is coming our way now. He should be here in no time," Jensen said. "He's only departing now? What was he doing just now?" Candice grew even angrier. She hated men who could not keep their promises and since Leon was not punctual, her first impression of him was horrible.

If Elder Daglesh and Jensen did not value Leon that much, she would have left a long time ago instead of waiting for such a rude man.

"Maybe Mister Wolf is caught up by something," Jensen said.

He called Leon earlier and Leon merely mentioned that he was on his way. Not a word was mentioned about him reaching an agreement with the Morrisons.

He did not know why Leon was late, but based on what he knew about Leon, Leon was not a proud or rude person. Hence, he assumed that Leon was likely caught up in something.

"Who knows? He's probably playing hard to get because he knows that we want something from him. He is trying to exercise his authority here," Candice said angrily.

She already heard from Elder Daglesh and Jensen that the Dagleshs wished to work with Leon and that Leon was the chairman of Cynthion Group.

Leon was late to his meeting with the Dagleshs and she assumed he was trying to emotionally manipulate the Dagleshs so that he could profit more from the deal.

There were plenty of cunning, despicable people in the business world and she assumed that Leon was one of them.

She could not think of any other reason for him to be late.

"Candice, enough with your nonsense! Mister Wolf is a reasonable man. Given his age, he's incredibly talented and couldn't possibly be the type of person you imagine him to be!" Elder Daglesh reprimanded. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

"H-" Candice wanted to argue but dared not to defy Elder Daglesh. She could only swallow her words but remained annoyed, clearly upset that Elder Daglesh praised Leon.

She did not know much about Leon and merely heard from Jensen that Leon was the chairman of a pharmaceutical firm. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

She had no clue as to how powerful Leon's alchemical pills were, nor was she aware that Leon was already in the Almighty State despite his age, making him much more powerful than the likes of Hugo and Felton. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

If she knew all these, she would have understood why Elder Daglesh praised Leon so much.

Chapter 2784

Chapter 2784 "Grandpa, Mister Wolf should be here soon. I'll go welcome him outside!" Jensen changed the subject. "Um, forget it. I'll welcome Mister Wolf myself!" Elder Daglesh said thoughtfully.

He valued this opportunity to work with Cynthion Group. On top of that, Leon was a young martial artist who managed to reach the Almighty State.

With that being said, the sky was the limit for Leon and his strength granted him a status that rivaled Elder Daglesh. To show how much they valued the opportunity, Elder Daglesh decided to receive Leon in person.

Given his status in the family, the others would have to follow.

Candice was reluctant to do so, but could only follow Elder Daglesh outside to welcome Leon.

With that, the group left the hall and stepped outside the mansion.

At the gate of the Dagleshs' mansion, Leon arrived at the address Jensen provided to find the Dagleshs waiting. After getting out of the car, Leon strode toward the Dagleshs.

"Welcome, Mister Wolf," Elder Daglesh smiled as he welcomed Leon.

"Elder Daglesh, sorry for arriving late. You must've been waiting for a while," Leon smiled apologetically.

"It's fine," Elder Daglesh smiled.

Before he could say anything else, Candice's melodious voice rose. "At least you are aware that you're late! Good of you to notice!" She scoffed.

"Well," Leon felt slightly awkward but could not argue with her.

"Candice, don't be rude!" Elder Daglesh shot her a displeased glance and turned his attention back to Leon. "Mister Wolf, allow me to introduce my granddaughter, Candice. These two are her parents." "Hello, Mister Daglesh," Leon nodded and greeted each of them politely.

"Mister Wolf, we've heard so much about you. It's a pleasure," Candice's parents responded politely as well. Initially, Candice assumed that Leon was a cunning, despicable man and had a bad impression on him.

However, Leon seemed polite and not at all arrogant, which was not what she expected. Hence, she changed her mind slightly about him.

Still, she remained displeased that Leon did not show up on time.

"Mister Wolf, let's go. I've prepared a feast so let's talk inside," Elder Daglesh cut to the chase and invited Leon inside. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

The group walked into the house and entered the hall. Under Elder Daglesh's permission, the others took their seats. Scanning the luxurious spread before him, Leon opened his mouth hesitantly. "Elder Daglesh!"

He already decided to work with the Morrisons and was supposed to inform Elder Daglesh about this before leaving. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

However, not only did Elder Daglesh welcome him outside the house in person, but he also prepared a great feast to serve him. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

Seeing how sincere the Dagleshs were, Leon could not find his words.

Chapter 2785

Chapter 2785 "Mister Wolf, what is it? Is there something you'd like to say?" Elder Daglesh asked in confusion. "Well," With a troubled expression, Leon fell into silence.

He knew that the Daglehs wanted to work with Cynthion group and he accepted the Daglehs' invitation because he intended to work with them.

However, he changed his mind at the last moment and this must have been cruel to the Daglehs. Still, he had to inform Elder Daglesh of the truth at one point because he had no other option.

With that thought in mind, he stopped hesitating. "Elder Daglesh, about the partnership with Cynthion Group, I'm sorry to inform you that I've reached an agreement with Mister Hugo. Hence, I won't be able to work with the Daglehs. Please forgive me," he sighed.

He only needed to work with one family to establish Cynthion Group's branch in the western region and since he decided to work with the Morrisons, he could not partner with the Daglehs.

Apart from Cynthion Group, Elegante Group was also under his name. However, the Elegante Group was different compared to the Cynthion Group.

The alchemical pills sold by Cynthion Group held great potential as they affected the world of martial artists. This meant that many martial artists and thugs may target Cynthion Group.

Leon could not stay in the western region forever and to ensure the safety of the branch, he needed to work with a powerful family for safety measures.

Meanwhile, Elegante Group was different. Though it was highly profitable as well, it was just a cosmetic firm that did not influence the martial arts community. Under normal circumstances, martial artists would not target it.

Hence, Leon did not need a partner in the western region, otherwise, he would have considered forming a partnership between the Elegante Group and the Daglehs.

Unfortunately, that was not necessary for Elegante Group and he could only apologize to them.

"What? Mister Wolf, you've already established a partnership with the Morrisons? How can that be?" Elder Daglesh was shaken and froze. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

He initially thought that Leon preferred to work with the Dagleshs since Leon agreed to visit, and he was fully prepared for the negotiation to come. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

To his bewilderment, Leon changed his mind out of the blue and decided to work with the Morrisons instead. The content is on NovelDrama.Org! Read the latest chapter there!

This completely caught him off guard and his heart instantly sank. Naturally, the others felt the same as well. Since Leon agreed to visit, they all thought that it was almost certain that they secured the deal.

Unfortunately, the Morrisons managed to snatch the deal right off their hands and they were all shocked.
