

Chapter 1109 Pressure From The Top Band

Ten million dollars was not a small amount. But what could Xzavier do?

He couldn't deal with Trevor by himself, so he could only agree to the man with a broken finger's request.

If this was in the past, ten million dollars was not hard for Star Film and Television Company. The company could even afford one hundred million or one billion dollars.

But now, it was quite a pressure on the company.

Star Film and Television Company had recently invested a large amount of money in filming. And with the continuous scandals, Xzavier had to spend a lot of money on public relations. Besides, the company's profitability was not as good as before.

Many artists of the company saw this unfavorable situation, and they had already started to find another way out. They even took advantage of some of the company's scandals to demand sky-high liquidated damages.

"Damn you, Levi! This is all your fault! As long as you're dead, I will still be the ruler of Barlowtown." Xzavier gritted his teeth. He withdrew funds and decided to cooperate with the man with a broken finger to continue targeting Trevor.

Since they couldn't possibly proceed with the filming investment anymore, it was hard to threaten Sky Film and Television Company. Xzavier decided to open up a new battlefield in the music field.

"Don't you think highly of the female singer? Humph! I'll deal with her!" Xzavier fiercely stubbed out the cigarette in his hand.

He immediately called his assistant. "Send me the profile of that famous female singer from Sky Film and Television Company. What's her name? Ivanna Perry, right? Send me her profile. Also, contact Purple Band. Invite them to Barlowtown. They can have a concert or something. Tell them that the Sanderson family will shoulder all the expenses. Listen carefully. You must tell them that the Sanderson family will pay for all the costs, not Star Film and Television Company. Do you understand?"

With Nelly's help, Ivanna's career was flourishing, and she was getting more and more famous, rising rapidly in the music industry. She would have her special concert soon.

Ivanna received full support from Sky Film and Television Company. Xzavier thought that if her career could be hindered, Sky Film and Television Company would suffer for a long time. He wanted Levi to know how it felt.

To frustrate and upstage Ivanna, Xzavier invited Purple Band to Barlowtown. Of course, he offered them a price they couldn't refuse. He even mentioned the Sanderson family.

The truth was that the expenses would be paid by Star Film and Television Company. He only asked his assistant to claim that the Sanderson family would pay for it to use the influence of the family.

Xzavier thought that through the grace of the Sanderson family to Purple Band, this matter must be settled. What was more, the cooperation between Purple Band and Star Film and Television Company might reverse the reputation of his company.

Sure enough, Purple Band agreed.

And this matter caused an uproar in Barlowtown.

As a result, everyone learned that the famous Purple Band would hold an event in Barlowtown.

Many people thought this was worth looking forward to. Even the reputation of Star Film and Television Company improved a bit.

Almost everyone paid close attention to the follow-up progress.

Only Ivanna and Nelly were not happy with the situation.

"The situation is not good. Purple Band is much more famous than Ivanna. And the schedule of their event in Barlowtown happens to coincide with Ivanna's concert." Nelly approached Trevor and explained the situation worriedly. "This will be Ivanna's first concert. If she only has a few fans, it will have a great impact on her future career development. We have already announced the schedule of her concert publicly, so it's too late to change the time and date now. This must be the means of Star Film and Television Company. How indecent!"

The corners of Trevor's mouth curled up when he heard the news. Contrary to Nelly's anxious look, he was rather calm.

If Xzavier had invited someone else, Trevor might not have had a good solution. But it was Purple Band.

"Don't worry. I can handle this," Trevor said confidently.

Of course, he had a way. He could even let Xzavier know how it felt to shoot himself in the foot.
