

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3267-After saying goodbye tonight, Evan didn't know when he would see her again. If he knew where she lived, he could go to her more often.

Not knowing where she lived or even her name, he was passive and could only wait for her to be free one day and come to him to ask for her things.

When he was not free, he could not see her once a month. He didn't know what her real occupation was. She was so busy, even busier than him, the fourth young master of the York family.

He did not work at York's headquarters, but he was also responsible for some business, managed two branches, and had several small companies to take care of.

Jake, who had escaped just now, appeared again. He stood not far away, watching Evan return in disappointment.

"Fourth Young Master, didn't you catch up with the girl in red?" Jake asked.

Evan stopped, looked at Jake for a moment, and said, "I can't run fast enough."

Jake said, Oh, turned around, and left.

Evan: "Jake, the door of the villa is not closed yet."

Jake: "Four young masters, please just lock her up. You can't even catch up with a girl, tsk."

Evan: "..."

He was despised by his own butler.

Jake dared to dislike him!

Believe it or not, he asked Jake to go home and eat his own.

Evan just stared at Jake and walked away with a dark face, and he did not really fire Jake. Jake came from the villa and was a young butler trained by Sam.

Jake was very capable. He was in charge of the house, and Evan felt relieved.

Evan didn't have to worry about anything; everything was arranged according to his liking.

Such a caring and capable butler; if he were fired, where would he find a butler that suited him?

If he dares to go back to the villa and ask for another one, if Sam doesn't scold him, grandma will chase him with a cane.

With no choice, Evan turned around and walked back, closed the door of the villa, and locked it before going back into the house.

The porridge in the kitchen was almost ready. But the person who ate it had already run away.

Evan was still in the kitchen, preparing side dishes to go with the porridge.

After preparing the side dishes to go with the porridge, he called Elian.

Elian quickly answered his call.

"Fourth brother, what's the benefit of calling me at this time? Are you treating me to a late-night snack?"

Evan responded to him, "You guessed it right; I want to treat you to a midnight snack. Come here quickly. You can eat when you arrive. I will cook it myself."

Elian thought that Evan had really prepared a sumptuous midnight snack and said with a smile, "Okay, I will go there with River now. River encountered some problems, so I came to help him solve them. I just came out of the company now, so we two are busy. After a long night, I was very hungry."

Evan: "Then bring River over. What problem did River encounter? Have you helped him solve it? If not, I will go over and help him solve it tomorrow."

“It’s solved. River (the seventh brother) is young. He has just entered society and has not had enough experience, so he finds it difficult. As soon as I take action, I can solve it easily.”

Elian didn’t say what problems River encountered. Anyway, he said it was solved.

Now that it has been resolved, Evan has stopped asking.

Anyway, when the younger brothers encountered problems that they couldn’t solve on their own, they would look for them one by one and finally find their eldest brother, Zachary. There would always be one brother who could help solve the problem.
