

Married At First Sight Chapter 3297

Married At First Sight Chapter 3297-Camryn smiled and said, "Whatever you want to eat, I'll ask your brother-in-law to cook it for you."

Trenton said, "As long as it's the food cooked by my brother-in-law, I like to eat it."

Camryn said, "That's okay. As long as your brother-in-law is at home, he will be the one cooking. Our chef is worried every day that his job will be taken away by your brother-in-law."

Trenton laughed. "Sister, you are so happy."

If Camryn hadn't married Callum, Trenton wouldn't have known that Callum was so good at cooking.

Camryn: "I also think I am too happy."

It would be better if she could have a baby sooner.

Camryn didn't say this.

Anyway, Dr. Carden said that she would be able to get pregnant normally in two years.

As long as she still has a chance to be a mother, there's nothing to worry about. She has to wait. As long as there is fate, the baby will definitely come to her and Callum.

"Honey, wake up, wash your hands, and eat." Callum shouted in the kitchen.

"coming." Trenton went to help serve the dishes.

After dinner, Trenton said to Camryn, "Sister, I want to go find my second sister to see how she is doing."

Camryn asked, "Did she answer your call?"

No matter how bad Carrie was, she was still Trenton's second sister.

Camryn never thought of separating the siblings.

Trenton hummed and replied, "I called the second sister just now. The second sister said that she has no money to rent a house now and has no fixed place to live. She asked me to meet at a Starbucks near the Wiltspoon Plaza."

Carrie had already quit the rental house and did not rent another one. She lied to her brother, saying that she had no fixed place to live.

She said this to make Trenton soften his heart, sympathize with her, hate Camryn with her, and help her deal with Camryn.

Camryn still trusted Trenton. If Carrie can instigate him to rebel and make him have the same mind as her and cooperate inside and outside, she can definitely bring down Camryn. After taking back everything that belongs to her parents, she will be the head of the Newman family.

Mr. Labbe promised that, as long as she did what he asked her to do.

Even if she wanted to fight Callum, she could. She also wanted to get everything Camryn had.

Camryn should continue to live in darkness; Carrie would gouge out Camryn's eyes and make Camryn blind again! No matter how skilled Dr. Carden was, she couldn't cure it.

"Eldest sister, I want to rent a room for my second sister so that she can live in a fixed place. I will help her pay the rent for a year, so that if the money is not handed over to her, she will not spend all the money used to rent the house."

Camryn said calmly, "You can make your own decision. You don't need to ask me what I mean."

Knowing that the two sisters were like enemies, Trenton stopped talking.

After sitting for a while, Trenton was about to go out.

“I’ll ask the driver to take you there.” Camryn said.

“Okay. Thank you, eldest sister.” Trenton did not refuse.
