

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2946-“It’s- It’s Mister Wolf! Great!

“The Thompsons are saved!”

Angus and the others were overjoyed and revealed excited expressions.

As the elders and Arthur were defeated by the Southern Boss, they all fell into despair.

Thankfully, Leon arrived just in time and this gave them hope.

Once Leon got out of the car, he saw that the Southern Boss was ready to finish Arthur off.

Without much time to think, he immediately sent three daggers flying at the Southern Boss.

“Leon!” The Southern Boss turned around and was instantly terrified.

He did not know why Leon appeared before him out of the blue, but he fought Leon enough times to know that Leon possessed daggers that were covered in deadly poison.

When he saw three daggers being sent his way, he immediately recognized them.

Not daring to take this lightly, he gave up on finishing Arthur off and waved his arm to strike the daggers down.

“Oh, no! This is bad!” The Southern Boss struck the daggers down and soon realized Felton failed in eliminating Leon with the help of the Grimstons and the Underwoods.

If he succeeded, Leon would not have appeared here in the southern region all of a sudden.

Without hesitation, the Southern Boss grabbed Arthur’s shoulder and pulled him up from the ground.

He then sealed Arthur's power to prevent him from struggling or resisting.

When Leon saw that the Southern Boss captured Arthur, he strode forward, intending to rescue Arthur with the Phantom Steps.

However, the Southern Boss was on guard before he could act.

"Leon, take one step and I will kill this old man!" the Southern Boss roared.

He then placed his palm against Arthur's head while backing away to distance himself from Leon.

He knew what Leon was capable of and was terrified of the Potential Energy Forces he possessed.

Since he did not know if Leon still possessed more Potential Energy Forces, he could not let Leon get any closer.

"Damn it! How can this happen?"

"Where are the Dragon Guards in the southern region?" Leon's expression darkened and his steps halted.

He glanced around, his gaze darting from Arthur to the five elders who lay on the ground, his expression darkening further.

With the Dragon Guards and the Thompsons' combined strength, he assumed they were more than capable of stalling the Southern Boss and the Western Boss until he arrived.

He arranged for coming to the southern region and requested Alfred to send Dragon Guards to assist the Thompsons.

Without the Dragon Guards' help, the Thompsons suffered great losses, and had Leon not arrived in time, all of them would have been dead by now. 1

To his bewilderment, the Dragon Guards from the southern region were nowhere to be found.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2947-"That's strange. Leon should be in the western region, right? Why is he here? "

The Western Boss was baffled.

He came to the southern region with the Southern Boss and left his Five Apostles with his son. Along with the Grimstons and the Underwoods, they were supposed to confront Leon at the sales drive.

The Western Boss was well aware of this. Given the combined strength of the three families, he thought they could eliminate Leon with ease.

To his bewilderment, Leon was unscathed and even managed to hurry to the southern region.

This was so surreal and an ominous feeling rose within him.

“Did Felton fail to take Leon down? If that’s the case, doesn’t that mean Felton is in danger?” Realization dawned on the Western Boss. Paling, he glared ruthlessly at Leon. “Leon, where’s my son, Felton?”

“Dad, I’m right here. Leon is far more powerful than we thought. The Apostles and the Farmers all lost to him and he broke one of my legs. Help me!” Felton, who was being restrained by Chandler, called out for help through the pain in his leg.

“What? How is this possible?” The Western Boss was shocked.

He had already guessed that Felton and the others had failed in confronting Leon.

However, hearing it from Felton still shook him.

Given the joint strength of the Farmers, the Grimstons, and the Underwoods, it baffled him as to how Leon could win when he had no support in the western region.

This was practically a miracle.

He turned his head and soon spotted the Dragon Guards standing behind Chandler and Felton.

As the ruler of the underground society in the western region, he was no stranger to these Dragon Guards.

Soon, he concluded that perhaps the Dragon Corps had interfered and led to the failure of Felton's mission.

This seemed to be the only reasonable explanation.

Meanwhile, as Leon and the Dragon Guards arrived, the tide had changed.

The Thompsons and the Farmers stopped fighting and all retreated to their respective sides.

A dozen of Farmers returned to the Western Boss and the Southernm Boss, while the thompsons helped the injured elders up, before retreating to Leon's side.

"Mister Wolf, the Southern Boss, and the Western Boss have reached the Peak Almighty State. Be careful."

Ahgus reminded in concern.

On top of that, all the Thompson elders were severely, injyred. Even!

Arthur, Who was the strongest of them all, was captured.

With that, the two sides stood in confrontation.

Though he knew that Leon was powerful, both the Southern Boss and the Western Boss were in the Peak Almighty state.

They were at a disadvantage and it was unknown if Leon had what it took to turn the tables

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2948-"What? The Western Boss got to the Peak Almighty state as well? I see!" Leon was shocked.

He already guessed that the Southern Boss used the Rainbow Flower to get to the Peak Almighty State. He merely did not expect the Western Boss to do the same.

It was no wonder that the Thompsons were in such a sorry state and came close to facing utter destruction.

“Leon, now that you know how powerful I am, release my son or I will make sure you suffer a terrible death!” the Western Boss roared as he stared at Leon maliciously.

According to Felton, the Apostles, and the Farmers all lost to Leon and Leon even broke one of Felton’s legs.

This enraged the Western Boss and he desperately wished he could kill Leon on the spot to rescue Felton.

However, because Felton was being held hostage, he could only suppress his anger and dared not move recklessly.

“Western Boss, I can let Felton go but tell the Southern Boss to let Elder Thompson go. We can also exchange hostages,” Leon said calmly.

He brought Felton with him to the southern region to hinder the Western Boss.

Unfortunately, Arthur was captured by the Southern Boss and Leon could only give up. He was prepared to exchange hostages.

“Exchange hostages? Sure!” The Western Boss nodded.

If Leon told them to release Arthur first, there was no way that he would agree to it.

However, Leon suggested an exchange of hostages and he had no reason to reject such a fair offer.

“Southern Boss, hand Arthur to me. I’m going to exchange hostages with Leon!”

The Western Boss stared at the Southern Boss intently.

Since Leon was too young, he always looked down on him.

Though Leon managed to counter the confrontation planned by the Farmers, the Grimstons, and the Underwoods, the Western Boss mistakenly thought that this happened because the Dragon Guards interfered.

Hence, he continued to underestimate Leon.

So long as he returned Arthur to Leon and rescued Felton, he would have no concern. Given his strength in the Peak Almighty State, Leon would be an easy target.

“Well,” The Southern Boss hesitated.

Unlike the Western Boss, who underestimated Leon, the Southern Boss knew that they could not rival the powerful Potential Energy Forces Leon possessed.

He merely captured Arthur because he wanted to stop Leon from using it.

Unfortunately, Felton was captured by Leon and the Western Boss wanted to return Arthur in exchange for Felton’s safety.

Without Arthur as his hostage, this mission would fail and both the Southern Boss and the Western Boss may perish if Leon still had more Potential Energy Forces.

This was hardly what the Southern Boss wanted.

Still, Felton was the son of the Western Boss and if he refused to hand Arthur over, the Western Boss would turn on him and this would not benefit him in any way.

Instantly, he was troubled and did not know what to do.
