

Chapter 1045 Utter Despair

As soon as Adamson said this, a terrifying suction force suddenly appeared in his palm.

It directly sucked Liam, causing him to be lifted in the air.

As he held Liam, Adamson's golden energy burst forth again, enveloping Liam's body.

The next moment, Adamson's devastating devouring power returned and consumed everything Liam possessed now.

When Liam felt that his body was continuously losing its power, bitterness filled his heart. He quickly weakened.

But at this moment, shock was written all over Adamson's face.

He discovered that Liam's foundations were extremely solid. And Liam still had the potential to grow.

More importantly, while he was absorbing Liam's power, life force constantly flowed into him. However, Liam was still alive.

Liam was still alive.

"No!" Shayla and Julie screamed in unison. While watching Liam's ordeal, they burst into tears. They no longer cared about their own safety. Without a second thought, they rushed forward to stop Adamson.

But before they could approach Adamson, Rohan suddenly appeared in front of them and knocked them to the floor effortlessly.

He looked at them condescendingly and sneered, "Just enjoy the show for now. Don't worry. It will be your turn soon."

Since Julie and Shayla were thrown to the floor, they could no longer stop Adamson. They could only helplessly watch Adamson take away everything that Liam had.

At this moment, Rohan walked up the stage and appeared in front of Liam with a playful look. "Although you are miserable now, I don't pity you at all. I think I should add fuel to the fire. Let me tell you another cruel fact. The person I blew up just now was not your son. It was only one of his clones. Liam, you will never see your son again!"

When Liam heard this, his eyes widened in fury. He was overwhelmed with rage. But since he was already weak, his body could no longer handle the anger that filled his heart. In the end, he completely passed out.

Rohan watched Liam pass out. A triumphant smile crept across his face.

Adamson, on the other hand, was full of expectations. He couldn't wait to see if he could break through again after absorbing Liam's power.

But while Liam's condition worsened and he fell into a desperate situation, a beam of white light suddenly appeared above the stage.

Before anyone could react, the light exploded, engulfing the entire Duncan family's estate.

Everyone was temporarily blinded. They couldn't see what was happening around them.

The members of the Duncan family panicked. But since they couldn't see anything, they could only run around in panic.

This time, a white figure swiftly entered the stage and then disappeared.

Moments later, Adamson's vision became clear again.

It was only then that he found that Liam was no longer in his grip.

He frowned, not expecting someone to come to save Liam.

Then, Adamson recalled the appearance of the white light just now. He was lost in thought.

Suddenly, he realized that aura was familiar.

The corners of his lips curled up. He murmured to himself, "So, it was you. It seems that Liam has gained such power as a Primogem Warrior because he has joined the Salvation Society."

Adamson raised his head, looked at the distant horizon with a cold face, and said, "This is interesting. I'm curious. How far have you come? I hope you won't disappoint me when we see each other again."
