

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3350-“Don’t Callum and Camryn have a bad relationship? Are Kevin and Hayden not doing well together? Let’s not forget about Tatum. I went to great lengths to select Elora for him, and he doesn’t seem to mind her proximity. He doesn’t care that she is far away; even though the New Year is about to come and he is thousands of miles away, he still wants to run over to chase his wife.

It’s just that Evan is disobedient. He likes to take detours, so let him take eighteen detours until he begins to doubt his life, haha.”

What the old lady said later was obviously gloating about someone else’s misfortune.

If Evan doesn’t listen to the old lady’s words, he will suffer a lot.

So many grandchildren were obedient, and occasionally one was disobedient. Haha, it was quite interesting.

Zachary and Serenity looked at each other.

Zachary quietly held his wife’s hand. In his heart, he was glad that he finally compromised and followed his grandma’s arrangement to marry Serenity. Otherwise, he was unaware of the punishment his grandmother had inflicted upon him, forcing him to pursue his wife through the crematorium.

“grandma.”

Taking advantage of the fact that except for the driver, there were only three people in the car, grandma and grandson, Serenity asked as if seeking confirmation, “Is the girl that Evan likes the same as the Abby that grandma chose?”

The old lady smiled and said, “You two have guessed what you are asking, but don’t tell anyone. Even Evan is a bit stupid. I repeatedly told him not to regret it in the future and not to ask us for help when chasing his wife at the crematorium, but he didn’t even hear it. He deserves to take a detour.”

Serenity smiled and said, “That’s right, I didn’t even think of it. Zachary was the one who thought about it. Once he analyzed it with me, I thought it made sense.”

“Zack is still smart and understands me best.” The old lady praised Zachary.

Serenity said, “However, how could Abby be the girl that Evan likes? According to Evan’s description, they have distinct personalities. The girl that Evan likes appears to have a flamboyant temper and is very skilled. Abby is a complete woman. Even her temperament is straightforward, devoid of any hint of arrogance.”

The old lady smiled and said, “Seren, do you think I went to all these places to find wives for them, and I just found them randomly? Not only is it a suitable match for their character, but it also has the potential to elevate our York family’s connections, status, and power to new heights. Of course, being a blacksmith requires strength, and we must first train our children well.

Having numerous powerful relatives can be detrimental if you lack the necessary skills. They can take everything you have with them. Only when you have the ability can you protect everything in your family.”

There are pros and cons to marriages between wealthy families. The good side is that it can bring benefits to both parties. If they form an alliance to do business, they will be more powerful.

The bad side is that if one party is weak and unable to hold on to ancestral property, it is often the people around you who are the quickest to take action and divide it.

Businessmen attach great importance to profits; this is unchanging.

“Your grandparents, fortunately, trained all of your brothers. Even Rowan is still young, but with eight of you outstanding brothers, Rowan can’t be any worse, no matter how bad you are. If he really has no ability in the future, if you eight brothers can each help him.

I may not have the energy to educate the next generation. I can probably educate the one in Seren’s belly for a few more years. But for the next ones, I won’t have the energy or the longevity to educate them.

Zack, Seren, you are the eldest brother and sister-in-law. The next generation and the next generation after that, you and your wife should be well trained. Also, men in our York family mainly marry virtuous wives. Don’t destroy this point. A virtuous wife is prosperous for three generations.”

Zachary and Serenity both had serious expressions. Zachary said seriously, “Grandma, we know.”
