

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3397

Married At First Sight Chapter 3397-Ezequiel had nothing to do with his apprentice, Bianca.

There were many people gathering together to eat, which was lively.

The atmosphere was very good, everyone had a good appetite, and the food was delicious.

Old Mr. Jimenez ate half a bowl of rice, a bowl of soup, and a lot of vegetables. He could still eat some food after the meal.

Several of his old friends said to Audrey, “Audrey, we usually eat very little. Every meal is just a spoonful of rice, half a bowl of soup, and just a few dishes. There will be no consequences after eating. The majority of the dishes we eat are vegetarian.”

Audrey looked at Old Mr. Jimenez and said, “Uncle Jimenez, you should eat more in the future. If your nutrition keeps up, your health will be better.”

At this age, he can eat whatever he wants and shouldn't be jealous.

People come to this world just to taste all the delicacies in the world. This is what foodies say.

Old Mr. Jimenez smiled and said, “I have eaten too much, so hold on and go out for a walk to eat. I am getting older and have no physical strength. I don't like walking anymore. But it's not good if I don't walk. It's even worse if my physical fitness deteriorates. I still have to walk. I usually just keep wandering around the yard, and it only takes half an hour.”

Sonny immediately raised his face and said to Old Mr. Jimenez, “Great Grandpa, I will go for a walk with you. When you come back from the walk, you can have a midnight snack again.”

Everyone laughed.

Old Mr. Jimenez touched Sonny's head and said dotingly, “Okay, let me sit down for a while, and then we, grandpa and grandson, will go for a walk.”

The cute baby asked Serenity, “Sonny usually eats midnight snacks?”

“Let’s just eat. I need to drink some milk powder before going to bed. It’s a midnight snack.”

Bianca instinctively said, “Do you still need to drink milk powder if you are over three years old?”

Sonny’s little face turned a little red. He said, “The children in my class also drink milk powder.”

Serenity also said, “Let him eat if he likes it. It’s not that he can’t afford it. He’s not too old, even if he’s over three years old, and he’s still addicted to milk. If he’s a few years older, we can switch him to student milk powder.”

Bianca thought for a while and felt that what Serenity said was reasonable, so she hummed, “I have never taken care of a baby, so I don’t understand. Let’s understand it in advance and learn it, so as not to have a baby at home in the future without any experience.”

Ezequiel took over and said, “Bianca, when you have a baby at home, you don’t need to take care of the baby. Just give us a few babies to take care of them. I promise to take care of them well.”

Titus had made great progress and was the most striking example.

Of course, Titus was also talented.

Serenity smiled and said, “When Bianca has a baby, she will be reluctant to give it away unless a few seniors are willing to live with her.”

Ezequiel suddenly stopped talking.

They all thought of Fabian Johnson (son of Tim and Dr. Caden).

Didn’t the old miracle doctor feel sorry for Fabian? It hurt. The person who loved Fabian the most was him.

He also wanted to help his apprentice take care of the baby every day, but he couldn’t stay at FC Manor every day. He had other things to do, including helping his apprentice train Titus, and the Johnson family was reluctant to leave Fabian to him. Let alone the Johnson family; even Dr. Lilian Carden couldn’t bear it.

Therefore, the old miracle doctor only occasionally went to FC Manor to see his grandson, Fabian.

“When I have a baby in the future, I will raise it to three years old and give it to the master to help me train him.”

Bianca was very aware of the skills of several seniors. They were still in good health. Their children were sent to the master when they were older. They were taught by the master and were better than her. They could also let the children fulfill their filial piety in front of the master on her behalf, killing two birds with one stone.

“You should find a man to marry quickly. You must marry first before you can have children.”

Ezequiel really rushed into marriage every chance he got. He then said to the old lady, “Old Mrs. York, if you have a suitable young man, introduce one to Bianca and marry her off as soon as possible, lest I get angry when I see her and see her getting older and older; I’m anxious.”

Bianca: “Master, how am I old? I am only in my twenties.”

Ezequiel: “That’s thirty years old, rounded off.”

Bianca: “...”

That’s okay, too.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3398-Evan looked at her several times. But he didn’t talk.

He thought to himself, She is laughing like a fool.

Why would Grandpa Ezequiel accept her as his apprentice? She didn’t look outstanding, except for her good looks.

Evan had never seen the abilities of the old seniors; he had only heard of their legends.

Grandma said they were amazing.

Their disciples were also very powerful.

Evan met Dr. Carden, who was very good. He admitted that it was Dr. Carden who cured his second sister-in-law’s eyes.

What was Bianca good at?

“Fourth Young Master York, you can just take me outside. I can take a taxi back by myself. I won’t stay at the Wiltspoon Hotel either. Your Wiltspoon Hotel is quite expensive—over a thousand a night. I have nothing to do recently, and I don’t have money, so I can’t afford to stay in such an expensive hotel.”

Bianca was talking to Evan while watching the video.

Evan was happy to do it, but he had to do what his grandmother told him to do, so he said, "Grandma asked me to take you to the Wiltspoon Hotel and help you check in. You don't have to pay; I will pay for it. You are our honored guest; how can we let honored guests pay?"

Bianca said, "Grandma York doesn't have clairvoyance or super hearing. She can't see or hear our conversation. I know you don't want to send me off. I don't like to force people. I took your car because of the arrangement of the elders. The main reason is that it is not easy to get a taxi here. It is difficult for cars from outside to come in."

This villa area was very high-end and had a high security level.

Otherwise, businesses wouldn't settle here.

Taxis were probably not allowed in. So, it was difficult for her to get a taxi.

Only then would she take Evan's car out.

She could tell Evan was not happy to send her off.

"No, it's nothing. Miss Bianca, my grandma arranged for me to send you off. I promised, so I have to do it."

Evan tried his best to deny his displeasure.

Miss Bianca, what kind of business are you in? Where are you employed?"

Evan changed the subject.

Bianca replied, "I said I don't have a proper job, and I only do some sneaky things. Do you believe me?"

Evan: "I don't believe it. The old seniors are all respected people. You are the disciple of Grandpa Ezequiel (Silver Fox). How could you do something sneaky?"

Bianca smiled and said, "My master can't teach an apprentice to be a thief, but a master thief can."

Evan: "..."

Bianca continued, "I have lived with my master since I was four years old. I returned to my family only after I became a master. My master has a good relationship with the thief and the doctor. You can see that these old guys are so close that they can wear the same pants as each other.

They have a close relationship. Although they each have their own apprentices, they would also teach us a thing or two. We all learned a lot. Oh, except for the skills of the miracle doctor, we didn't learn much. We learned most of the skills of others. If I don't tell others that my master is the Silver Fox, no one will think of it."

The main reason was that she learned too many complicated things.

She was not interested in the skills of a miracle doctor. Medicine and poison were too difficult to learn. After more than ten or twenty years, she only had a superficial understanding of medical theory.

There was no comparison with Sister Lilian Carden at all.

Bianca added, "I like the thief the most. Master is very good at stealing things. As long as he likes something and wants it, he can take it away without anyone noticing. I don't have that kind of ability."

If she wants to get something, she can get it. However, the upbringing of her original family did not allow her to do anything sneaky.

The parents can't afford to lose face.

With her master and the others, she can do whatever she wants freely. Oh, it's best not to do anything that is against the will of heaven and earth. The old fortune teller said there would be retribution.

But in her original family, she needs to consider a lot. First of all, she must not ruin the family's reputation or bring shame to her parents.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3399-The old lady smiled and said, "Of course, of course."

"Master, I'm going to ignore you. I'm going to go out for a walk. Serenity, Camryn, Elisa, do you want to come with me?"

Bianca stood up and asked Serenity and the other two.

The three of them stood up. Bianca was the guest, and Elisa was the host. Bianca wanted to go out for a walk, so of course she had to accompany her.

So the four slipped away first.

Sonny wanted to follow Serenity, but he also remembered that he had to accompany his great-grandfather, so he could only watch Serenity leave.

Fortunately, Uncle Zachary was here.

As long as Uncle Zachary was here, Aunt Serenity would come back.

The other young masters of the York family sat for a while and then left, as they had other things to deal with.

The main reason was that they were still single and were afraid that the elderly would talk about them.

Leland, the second young master of the Stone Family, also found an excuse to slip away.

Leland was the only one who was still single. Not only his parents were keeping an eye on him, but even his brothers and sisters had begun to worry about his major life events.

“Evan, don’t leave.”

The old lady was called Evan.

Evan, who had already stood up and was about to leave, asked in confusion, “Grandma, is there anything else?”

There shouldn’t be any need for him to send Grandma back, right?

He had Zachary and Serenity.

Grandma wanted to invite the elders to be guests, so she had to go back to Wildridge Manor. The following day, the brothers would go back to Wildridge Manor to help entertain the elders.

Grandma May said, “Bianca just arrived in Wiltspoon a few days ago. She is not familiar with Wiltspoon and doesn’t have a car. You can take her to our hotel later, help her check in, and pay for her room for a few days.”

Evan suddenly became alert, thinking that his grandma wouldn’t be trying to match people up again.

With so many people present, why should he be allowed to send Miss Bianca off?

Couldn’t others do this?

“Grandma, I have something urgent to deal with now, and I can’t wait.” Evan found an excuse.

“You can ask River or Alex to give it a try.”

River and Alex had already slipped away, stepping on a watermelon rind.

“River and Alex, as well as Leland, have all left. I can only ask you to see them off. Is there anything urgent you need to deal with? Ask River or Alex to help you. You can wait here. When Bianca comes back from her walk, you can take her to the hotel first.”

Evan looked at Clive and said, “Mr. Stone, Miss Bianca is your honored guest.”

What this meant was that arranging accommodation for Bianca was the business’s responsibility, and his grandmother shouldn’t interfere.

Everyone here was a smart person.

Clive said, “We have no more room at home now; Miss Bianca can only stay in a hotel. In Wiltspoon, the best hotel is your York family’s Wiltspoon Hotel, so let Bianca stay at the Wiltspoon Hotel.”

“Grandma York.” Clive looked at the old lady and said, “I will pay for Miss Bianca’s room. You don’t have to pay. I just want to trouble you into taking Bianca there later. I can pay for the car fare. I won’t let you work for nothing.”

Evan: “...I don’t need that little money.”

He could see what Grandma was thinking.

Now that Abby is gone, is she planning to find him, Bianca?

He didn’t know Bianca’s surname, nor did he know where she came from, let alone her family situation.

He guessed grandma just took a fancy to Bianca because she was the apprentice of Senior Ezequiel (Silver Fox).

Married At First Sight Chapter 3400-The old lady glared at Evan and said, “Why, grandma can’t do anything to you anymore?”

Evan looked at several seniors, but none of them said a word.

It’s not his grandmother’s fault at all for being nosy and making random arrangements.

Being stared at by his grandmother, Evan could only sit down again helplessly and say, "It's okay, it's okay. I'll wait here for Miss Bianca to come back, and then I'll take her to the hotel."

Really, when his grandma sees a young woman, she will try to match her up with him.

Bianca is dressed simply, but she has a good temperament, and her family should not be poor—at least a well-off family.

When grandma met her for the first time, she didn't even know her family situation, so she wanted to match her up with him.

Grandma knew that Evan liked Fox, and he didn't even like Abby, so how could he like Bianca?

Bianca and Abby had completely different personalities. Bianca was more lively, but still couldn't compare to his fox.

Alas, fox, oh fox, am I so bad?

She wouldn't even let him know her name.

Or maybe he was overthinking it.

Grandma said she didn't care about Evan's love affairs and let him make his own choice.

Evan could only comfort himself in this way.

He went up to Zachary.

He nudged Zachary and complained quietly, "My eldest brother didn't help me out, and now grandma doesn't like me."

Zachary said in a low voice, "You don't want me to send you off?"

Evan: "The Stone family has a driver; you can ask the driver to take her there, or you can call a car for her."

Zachary said, "Miss Bianca is staying at the Wiltspoon Hotel. You are going back. You can send her off on the way and help her with the hotel check-in procedures. It's just a piece of cake. Grandma wants to invite the elders to our house as guests, so she is also considered an honored guest of our family. You are entertaining a distinguished guest; what are you thinking about?"

Evan choked.

No one explicitly said that Grandma wanted to bring him and Bianca together.

They just wanted him to send Bianca off.

Was he too sensitive?

Evan was muttering something in a low voice, but Zachary couldn't hear clearly what he was muttering.

Zachary looked at Evan's unconvinced look and felt sympathy for this fool in his heart.

Grandma intended to arrange for Evan to send Bianca to the hotel, but he did not even think of Abby.

In fact, Zachary was not sure that Bianca and Abby were the same person, but his grandmother's sudden arrangement made him think too much and suspect that Bianca was Abby.

Abby had already left Wiltspoon. Perhaps this was why Evan did not associate Bianca with Abby.

Bianca and Abby didn't look alike either.

Zachary guessed that Abby might be in disguise or wearing an exquisite human skin mask, so she always changed her face and appeared in different identities.

What Evan really fell in love with was Abby's other identity.

Judging from the nickname of Fox, Zachary could tell that this person is very changeable.

Evan was still a little naive. Grandma's arrangements contained hidden hints, and he didn't understand them.

He deserved to be played around with by Abby.

Grandma was arranging for Evan to take Bianca to stay in a hotel. In fact, this was also to give him another chance. Unfortunately, this fool was just a blockhead.

Oh, it was so depressing.

Two hours later,

Evan drove the car and took Bianca out of the Stone Villa.

Bianca was leaning on the chair, holding a mobile phone in her hand, watching videos, and laughing from time to time because of the content of the videos.
