

Married At First Sight Chapter 3337

Married At First Sight Chapter 3337-Fox sat up straight, picked up the cup of warm water, drank a few sips, and then made a gesture to splash it at Evan.

Evan looked at her with a smile.

Finally, she put the cup down.

Fox asked, "Stop flattering me; I'm just asking you, when will you give me back my things?"

Evan sat down opposite her and said the same thing: "I really don't remember where I put it. I can't find it now. When I find it one day, I promise to deliver it to you personally. Please give me your address, and just give me your contact information. Otherwise, I'll give you a new one and tell you where you got it."

Fox said, "The new one, it's not mine; I don't want it. Evan, I've informed you that your approach to requesting contact information is unacceptable; it resembles the actions of a thief. No, it's robbery."

Evan smiled half-heartedly. "Miss Fox, you seem to have forgotten how I took that thing from you. If you hadn't been disrespectful to me first, I wouldn't have retaliated in kind."

Fox: "....."

Two people looked at each other's faces.

After a few minutes, Fox softened her attitude and said, "Evan, it was my fault at that time. I apologize to you. Is that okay? You return my things to me. That item holds significant value to me, even though it may not be worth much to you. However, that thing is very valuable and is considered an antique. Even if you can buy it now, it won't be as good or as old as yours. Since you know my things are valuable, give them back to me."

Evan said, "Miss Fox, I'm not going to lie to you. I can't remember where I put those things. You know, I don't have a girlfriend, so I don't know where to keep those things. We men are often carelessly thrown away, and they really can't remember where they were thrown."

Fox said angrily, "Evan, if you don't return the things to me, I will go to your grandma and file a lawsuit against you. Then I'll go to your elder brother, file a lawsuit against you, and let him teach you a lesson."

The young men of the Yorks were firstly afraid of Old Mrs. York, and secondly, they were afraid of Zachary.

Everyone knew this. On the contrary, they were not afraid of their parents.

If Fox wants to file a complaint against Evan, it's best to go to Zachary.

Sometimes going to the Old Mrs. York didn't work because she doted on her grandsons.

Moreover, Old Mrs. York was often not at home and couldn't be found. Furthermore, due to her advanced age, those who wanted to complain were still concerned about taking care of Old Mrs. York, a responsibility they couldn't shoulder.

Therefore, it was most appropriate to file a complaint with Zachary. As long as they take care of themselves, Zachary would definitely help his parents and teach his younger brothers a lesson.

Evan said, "Don't just talk about suing me all the time. That makes you look useless. It's quite simple to demonstrate your incompetence by constantly filing lawsuits. Miss Fox, you're not a useless person."

Fox said, "I heard that Miss Serenity is approachable and hospitable. I think we can become friends. When I become friends with her, I will ask her for help and ask her to help me get it back."

Evan: "..."

If Serenity asks for something from him and he doesn't give it, Zachary will come forward. Evan thought about it in front of his serious elder brother, and as a result, he trembled slightly.

Evan said, "I'll go back and look for it tonight to see if I can find it. If I find it, I'll notify you to come and get it, or you can come and ask every day. My residence is so big that I have to search every corner several times. It takes a while. I can't stay up all night to help you find things. When I go back every night, it only takes half an hour or an hour at most."

Fox felt that Evan just didn't want to give it back to her.

Why did she mess with this scoundrel?
