

Chapter 38 The Lawyer's Letter

"To Loraine Torres: As per the law, our company has accepted the commission from Laura Bryant. As requested by the client, we would like you to return the documents you have stolen from the Bryant family and withdraw your application for the smart city project. Otherwise, we might have to press charges on you."

The Internet users exploded with questions as soon as the lawyer's letter was released for the public to see.

"It turns out this is the truth! I knew it. Loraine is young. It's impossible for her to win such a big project on her own, regardless of her talent. It looks like she has used despicable means to seize the project from Marco. God, what a cunning woman!"

"Maybe this isn't the truth either and Loraine can turn the tables. I won't support anyone yet."

young. It's impossible for her to win such a big project on her own, regardless of her talent. It looks like she has used despicable means to seize the project from Marco. God, what a cunning woman!"

"Maybe this isn't the truth either and Loraine can turn the tables. I won't support anyone yet."

"How can Loraine turn the tables? She is Marco's ex-wife. His mother has released the lawyer's letter for everyone to read, which proves she has evidence."

"Loraine is such a drama queen. I don't trust her."

"I agree. I request the government cancel the cooperation with Universe Group right away. We can't hand over such an important project to thieves!"

The news spread on the internet like wildfire, becoming one of the hottest-discussed topics.

Knowing they had to address the issue right away, Loraine hurried back home with Cayson.

Aldo was seething with rage right now.

"They've gone too far this time!" Aldo threw his walking stick. "What the hell is she saying? Those damn documents have nothing to do with Lorrie. Why the hell would she steal them? She has sued Lorrie for stealing. This is ridiculous! I should sue her for slandering my granddaughter."

He was fuming and wanted to call his lawyer right away.

"Wait, Grandpa!"

Lorraine scurried into the room to stop him.

"Lorrie, you've come home just in time. How dare they hurt you time and again? I'm going to make them pay!" Aldo bellowed.

Lorraine hurriedly grabbed her grandfather's arm and comforted him, "Please calm down, Grandpa. I know how to make them suffer!"

After a lot of coaxing, Aldo finally agreed to let Lorraine solve the problem by herself.

However, soon, her uncles called one after the other, wanting to teach the Bryant family a lesson.

Lorraine finally told the plan to her family.

"Cayson, things have got worse. Please explain everything to Klein for me. He is in charge of the government project. We have to explain the situation to him. Uncle Rowan, can you check what documents were stolen? Uncle Wesley, I want you to help me track public opinion on this matter. We might have to thwart negative comments if necessary."

They were very happy to see that Loraine was calm and well-organized even during a crisis. They were proud their little girl had grown up to become a strong, confident woman.

"Don't worry, Lorrie. We're always happy to help you. We'll complete the designated tasks."

Loraine's heart swelled with warmth, for her entire family was protecting her.

She had nothing to be afraid of when her family was by her side.

Meanwhile, the atmosphere of the Bryant family was in stark contrast with that of the Torres family.

"Mom, didn't I warn you not to get involved? Why did you release the lawyer's letter without my permission?"

Marco's face darkened as soon as he came home, rage brewing in his eyes.

Laura didn't notice Marco's anger. She waited to hear his compliment.

"I just wanted to help you! How is it going? Is Loraine scared now? Did she beg for your mercy?"

"Delete the post right away!" Marco bellowed.

Laura flinched back in fear. "What? Why? That bitch played dirty tricks and stole our project. I'm not going to delete the post unless she quits."

Marco ran a hand through his hair in annoyance.

"As I said earlier, we don't know the truth yet. It's not her."

A lot had happened in the past. He had always suspected Loraine without having any evidence.

He had never helped her when she needed him.

He didn't want to repeat the same mistake.
