Chapter 2383

“Kassidy, go get my Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill.” Noemi winked.

“Sister, you gave the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill to Dr. Rhys; what will you do in the future?” Kassidy couldn’t help but ask.

Outsiders didn’t know, but she knew very well how precious the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill was.

It was a top-grade treasure used to break through the Grandmaster.

Ordinary warriors couldn’t even dream of getting it, but she didn’t expect Noemi to be willing to give it away.

“It’s useless for me to keep the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill. Giving it to Dr. Rhys can make the best use of it.” Noemi smiled slightly.

The higher the talent in martial arts, the better the effect of taking the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill.

With Dustin’s talent and cultivation, he could better exert the medicinal effect of the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill.

“Don’t stand there; go!” Noemi began to urge.

Kassidy was a little reluctant, but it was Noemi’s thing after all, and she couldn’t make the decision, so she could only nod. After a while, she came out of the villa holding an exquisite sandalwood box.

Kassidy asked again, “Sister, are you really going to give it away?”

She added, “Okay, don’t dawdle. No matter how good the treasure is, it can’t compare to the grace of saving your life.”

Noemi was very free and easy. After taking the sandalwood box from Kassidy, she quickly handed it to Dustin and said with a smile, “Dr. Rhys, this is a little gift from me. I hope you don’t dislike it.”

As she spoke, she opened the sandalwood box and showed the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill inside.

The Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill was emerald green and crystal clear. It looked like a jewel and jade under the sun, and it was particularly beautiful.

Opening the box immediately brought a strange fragrance to the nose.

Several people around unconsciously took a deep breath, and they felt refreshed.

“It is worthy of being a top-grade elixir. The fragrance of this medicine alone is very extraordinary.” Grace couldn’t help but praise it.

Top-grade elixirs were already very rare and could attract countless warriors to fight for them. And the top-grade elixir was even more rare. It was a treasure that countless people dreamed of but couldn’t get.

Even for Grace, a princess of the Dragonmarsh, it was extremely difficult to get a top-grade pill.

“Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill is probably the only one in the entire world, and its value is self-evident.” Cassidy looked sore.

She’d rather use ten other treasures to exchange for the Nine Flowers Jade Dew Pill.

Chapter 2384

“Dr. Rhys, why are you still standing there? Such a treasure; why don’t you accept it quickly?” Grace raised her beautiful eyebrows.

“Miss Marshall, you’re so kind, so I won’t be polite.”

Dustin rarely smiled when he looked at the Nine Flower Jade Dew Pill in the box. At that moment, he lacked politeness and took the pill directly.

He was not very interested in other things. The Nine Flower Jade Dew Pill, however, was different. As a top-grade pill, it could not only greatly improve the cultivation level after taking it but also strengthen the muscles and bones and stimulate potential. It was really a rare treasure.

He was not only a warrior but also an alchemist. He naturally liked this top-grade pill very much.

After all, top-grade pills were hard to come by. Even he required a significant quantity of valuable medicinal materials to refine them, and the likelihood of success was uncertain.

“Okay, thank you; we have done what we should do. Today is competition day for the players in Group B. Why don’t we visit the scene to observe the competition?” Cassidy made a sudden suggestion.

Kassidy had signed up with Noemi before and was selected for Group B. However, due to Noemi’s current situation, she is unable to participate, but she can still enjoy the fun.

“Dr. Rhys, Grace, what do you two think?” Noemi asked.

“That’s what I meant.” Grace nodded with a smile.

“No problem for me.” Dustin agreed without hesitation, his gaze fixed on the Nine Flower Jade Dew Pill in the box.

“Let’s go!” Cassidy shouted. She immediately commanded the law enforcement team to escort several people to the Sacred Wyrms Summit Arena.

At this moment, the Sacred Wyrms Summit Arena was still crowded.

Compared with the eight arenas in Group C, the matches of Group B were much fewer, with only two matches going on at the same time.

Despite the decrease in quantity, the quality of the matches significantly improved.

At least late-stage innate warriors, including many half-step masters, made up the players who could join Group B.

There were even some people with extraordinary talents who could frequently defeat the strong against the weak.

If the competition of Group C was just a screening, then the duel of Group B was the real entry.

Warriors who reached this level were quite famous in the martial arts world. They were either elite disciples of major sects or some rangers with rich combat experience.

All of those who advanced from Group C to Group B were experienced warriors, and none of them were weak.

Today’s competition was particularly grand.

Some senior leaders from major sects also attended and watched the game in person.

Their goal was simple: to select some elites from the players in Group B and then win over as many as possible to recruit talents for their own sects.

For the major sects, today's competition was an interview meeting. For each player, it was an opportunity to become famous.

Chapter 2385

It was worth mentioning that, in addition to the ring competition in recent days, Abigail Robinson's gambling business had also been extremely hot.

Abigail opened two temporary open-air casinos in order to attract more people. One was an ordinary casino, and the other was a VIP casino.

In ordinary casinos, gold, silver, and money were the main things, while VIP casinos only accepted various treasures.

Two different casinos could meet the needs of different people.

All the spectators who were watching the game became the targets of Abigail's harvest.

The routine remained unchanged. Let the g*blers taste the sweetness first, and then kill them together after they are fattened. This trick has been tried and tested.

After a few days, Abigail made a lot of money and became the biggest winner in the entire arena.

Although some smart people knew Abigail's harvest routine, they dared not expose it because of their identity and could only pretend not to see it.

Indeed, even if it were truly made public, those who should g*mble would still do so.

Gamblers always have a lucky heart. Once they see someone around them getting rich, they can't help but try their luck. Even though they know that only a very small number of people will get rich, they will still choose to give it a try. In their opinion, they may also become one of the lucky few.

When Dustin and his group arrived at the scene, the competition had officially begun.

The top leaders of the Celestial Alliance had special seats, which not only had a wide view but also had snacks and fruits. This was the epitome of status.

"Meet the young master, Fenley! The eldest lady, Noemi! The second lady, Cassidy!"

The appearance of Fenley and others caused quite a stir. All members of the Celestial Alliance, whether they were high-level or grassroots, stood up and saluted to show respect.

Dustin also saw an acquaintance among them who was the protector of the Celestial Alliance, Keegan.

When Keegan saw Dustin, he was slightly stunned and quite surprised.

However, seeing that Dustin was talking and laughing with Fenley and others, Keegan did not dare to ask more.

“It’s so lively here! All the major sects are here, but I don’t know who will be the final champion?” Noemi said.

Noemi looked around and seemed a little excited. As the daughter of the leader of the Celestial Alliance, she had been well protected and rarely went out. This time, she signed up for the martial arts competition on the sly.

Unfortunately, someone poisoned her before the competition even began, leaving her in a coma and preventing her from participating in the fun.

Now that she had witnessed this grand event with her own eyes, she was naturally very excited.
