

LIFE AFTER PRISON

Chapter 1093

Despite being surrounded by many people, Severin did not panic. He looked at Owen and Sami who were walking toward them and smiled helplessly. "I knew you two are not going to give up so easily but I didn't expect you two to come back so fast."

"You are so brave to wander around here. I'm going to let you know that you have messed with the wrong people today!"

As usual, Sami folded her arms and put on an arrogant look. She was not scared of Severin at all. Severin shrugged his shoulder nonchalantly. "Well, we need to eat. There's no reason that we starve ourselves. because of you two, right? However, I didn't expect to see you two right after we finished our dinner."

"Hey, kid, I'm going to give you a chance in case you say I bully you. Hand over the bracelet. Then you two have to kneel down in front of me and ask for my forgiveness. In addition, you two have to slap yourself one hundred times. Only then I will forgive you and decide not to kill you two."

Sami sneered. "Otherwise, these people are going to kill her, destroy your attainment, and break your legs so you have to live with regrets for the rest of your life."

Severin's mouth twitched. He looked at Sami shockingly. "How dare you call me kid when you are a stupid kid yourself? I have no idea where you got your confidence from."

He paused and said, “You guys are being unreasonable. I won’t be forced into making an apology. I simply won’t! Why should I apologize when I did nothing wrong?”

At that moment, Terrence stood out and sneered. “Hey, kid. Don’t force me to give instructions to my man to take action. You better think twice about making enemies with us. Sami is giving you a chance and you should take it while you can.”.

In fact, Severin did not want to fight them nor did he want to make a big scene out of it. He could Sheila in danger if they ended up fighting because Sheila did not have attainment. Thus, he gave it a deep thought and flipped his hand over to take out a token. Then he showed the token to Terrence.

“You’re the governor of Orto County, Terrence Lott, right? I heard about you before. My name is Severin Feuillet, the governor of South County. If you are certain that you want to make me your enemy, I’ll see it to the end.”

“Mister Terrence! I can’t believe that guy is a governor too!” The Great Elder looked at the token and frowned.

Terrence frowned too. As a governor himself, he knew how hard it was to meet the requirement to be appointed as a governor. The person required to have high attainment and hired many elders with high attainment; the more the better. Most importantly, the person would need to be in a good relationship with the Province Governor.

The only reason Terrence could be appointed as the governor of Orto County was because he and the Province Governor of Skydra Province were good friends.

As he looked at Sami, he made up his mind. With a faint smile, he approached Severin. “Mister Severin. Although you are a governor too, you’re here in my territory. This is Orto County. You have no authority and power here.”

After that, he said, “Sami, he’s still a governor after all. It won’t be right to ask him to kneel down and slap him in the face when so many people are watching so how about this instead? We’ll let the matter slide if he makes an apology and give you back the bracelet
