

After Prison 681

Chapter 681

“Brother? I’m not your brother. We have the same father but our mothers are totally different people. Do you think I don’t know what’s in your mind? You’re expecting to see me fail and you’re just pretending to be nice to me!”

Horus sneered and what he said broke Yoel’s heart. As he finished talking, he swung his hand and left.

“Sigh.” Yoel sighed disappointingly as he watched Horus walk away. After a while, Horus arrived at Rachel’s place with his bodyguards.

“Honey, I’m here to visit you again!” Horus’ eyes lit up and took a gulp when he saw a beautiful woman sitting on the couch dressed in a sexy dress.

Rachel had a plump figure but that does not stop her from being an attractive and sexy woman. It took just one look and men would be all over her. The moment Rachel saw Horus, her face looked terrible.

As she saw her finger, she pretended to ask. Though, she already knew what happened. “Mister Horus, what happened to your hand?”

Immediately, Horus put away the smile on his face. “Urgh, don’t remind me about it. I’m so angry! F*ck! I had my eye on the necklace and ring from And Only Jewelry Corporation. I was going to buy them for you so you could wear them on our wedding day. But someone actually beat me to them.”

He went over and sat down beside Rachel to continue talking, “A guy called Severin from Brookbourn bought them before me. He has six beautiful bodyguards protecting him. My men were not their match and he actually cut my finger. So I...”

Soon, he told Rachel everything.

After listening to that, Rachel sounded sorry for him which did not happen very often. “Oh no. Mister Horus, you are a prestige man. How could you let someone from a small town bully you? It’s going to be very embarrassing for you if this gets out!”

She bit her sexy red lip and talked in a baby voice. “I saw the necklace and ring that you talked about. Gosh, they are so pretty. I actually dreamt about wearing them on my wedding day.”

“Really? You like them too?” Horus’ eyes lit up after hearing that. Clearly, Rachel seemed to be more friendly with him now too. “Will you marry me now?”

With a bitter smile, Rachel said, “I can feel how much you love me. How could I not feel it after you lose a finger because of me? What about this? I will marry you if you can get the ring and necklace for me?”

Her plan was to stir up the hatred Horus had for Severin. She knew it was not a good choice to mess with Severin when Mason also avoided crossing Severin. If her plan worked, Severin and Horus could both end up badly. She might have a chance to escape this hell hole.

Chapter 682

Although it was quite unethical and it would have Severin involved, she did not have another choice. Horus was thrilled to hear that. Naturally, he hoped Rachel would fall in love with him and marry him happily without him forcing her..

However, after thinking about it, his face looked troubled. "But my useless brother is too cautious and careful. He was afraid of Severin and his bodyguards. So he persuaded my father and the elders not to go after Severin. After the meeting, they all agreed with him."

"Yoel is going to be your competitor in the future when it is the time to inherit the family's wealth. Does your father prefer him since your father believes in him? You should be careful."

With a purpose, Rachel tried to instigate after giving it a thought. "Look at your finger. Are you sure your father did not have the intention to seek revenge for you? Guess your father does not love you as much as you think."

"No way!" Horus balled up his hand and said, "That's impossible. My father loves me the most. Yoel's mother cheated on my father and was kicked out of the house. He was going to kick Yoel out too if he did not care about his reputation."

After a pause, he continued, "Why do you think Yoel's mother die after a few days she was kicked out? It was not an accident. I was the one behind it. Haha. Yoel that idiot doesn't have an idea about it at all!"

Rachel was delighted to hear that. If she told Yoel about this information, it could cause a rift between them and that could probably be a way out for her too.

Horus looked at how beautiful and sexy Rachel was. He could not help it and went over to embrace her in his arms. "Rachel, can I kiss you? Just once, Please. We're getting married in five days anyway. It doesn't hurt to let me kiss you now."

The request gave Rachel a big shock that she quickly struggled away and said, "Mister Horus, why are you in a hurry? It's just a few days away. Besides, why should I marry you if you can't get me the ring and necklace I like? I think you don't love me at all. If you love me, you will get me the things I want, by crook or by hook."

Horus felt speechless and stood up. "Rachel, it's not that I don't want to get them for you. It's my father and the elders. They are a bunch of cowards. Why don't I bring you out to other jewelry shops and you can buy anything that you want!"

"But I only want that design!"

This was the first time Rachel acted so capricious. "The necklace is too beautiful. The wedding day is the most important event for us women. It might be the one and only wedding we have in our entire life. So of course, I want the best. Otherwise, I'm going to regret it for the rest of my life!"

Seeing how persistent Rachel was, Horus gritted his teeth. "Fine. I'll go back and try to persuade my father and see if he will change his mind for me."

Immediately after that, he left with his bodyguards.

After that, Rachel sighed. "Let's hope either Severin or Yoel could help me kill that damn fat guy. Sigh. Severin is not a cruel guy. Why does he chop off his finger only? I won't be forced to marry him if Severin kills him!"

"Miss Rachel, there are a few people outside asking to see you!"

Just then, a bodyguard ran in and said, "A lady said she's the Hall Master of Equus Hall. And she's here to help you!"

"Equus-Hall!"

After being stunned for a short moment, Rachel sprung up to her feet and looked surprised. Before her father passed away and had her taken over Serpent Hall, he had told her about the Dracodeus Temple. However, she did not know if the old wacko meant it when he said he was going to add more hall elsewhere. Neither did she know where the other halls were. When the old wacko left them, he disappeared, and never had them seen him again.

Thus, the moment she heard Equus Hall it reminded and had her wondered if they were a part of the Dracodeus Temple.

"I'll go welcome them myself!"

Rachel felt delighted. Immediately, she went outside. On her way out, she saw Great Elder and Second Elder, so she invited them to join her to welcome the guests.

"Gracie Swiften, the Hall Master of Equus Hall?"

She was stunned the moment she saw Gracie. It was very rare to see such a feminine and attractive woman that even she found Gracie very attractive.

Gracie nodded. "Let's talk inside. We saw a couple of people sneaking around when we were outside. I think they are monitoring and spying on you."

Rachel nodded and brought Severin, Gracie, and the others in. When they were in the hall, Gracie said, "Miss Rachel, have you ever heard about the Dracodeus Temple?"

Rachel nodded vehemently. "I did. I know Serpent Hall and Equus Hall are under the Dracodeus Temple.) The Supreme Leader said he was going to create twelve halls but we didn't receive any news about it. This is the first time I meet someone from another hall.

Gracie smiled faintly and introduced Severin to her. "This man here is the Supreme Leader, Severin Feuillet."

"Supreme Leader? He's our Supreme Leader?"

Rachel was shocked as she checked out Severin carefully. "Our Supreme Leader is so young? My father told me he was an old man!"

Severin laughed. "That's my master. He has now passed the Dracodeus Temple to me. This is the Dracodeus Ring, also known as the Dracodeus Token.

While he was talking, he lifted his hand to display the Dracodeus Ring. Rachel took a good look at the ring and immediately saluted respectfully. "Supreme Leader!"

"Supreme Leader!"

The Great Elder, Second Elder, and the others of Serpent Hall also followed Rachel to salute respectfully. "Supreme Leader. We are facing big trouble now. Could you please help us out?" The Great Elder asked.

Before Severin said anything, Gracie voiced out, "Don't worry, Miss Rachel. We're here because Supreme Leader heard about what happened. He said he has the confidence to solve it."

"Wait. What did you say the Supreme Leader's name is? Severin Feuillet? That guy from Brookbourn. His name is also Severin Feuillet too. Are they the same person?"

Finally, Rachel realized something and covered her mouth while looking shocked.

Just a couple of minutes ago, she was going to use Severin from Brookbourn – who was not on good terms with Horus – to kill Horus.

And the person who came here now was also called Severin Feuillet too.

Severin nodded. "Yes. We came all the way from Brookbourn. I was the one who chopped off your fiance's finger because he tried to take away the ring and necklace from me."

He continued with a bitter smile. "But I didn't expect to find out the woman he forced to marry him is actually the Hall Master of Serpent Hall."

The Great Elder and Second Elder exchanged looks with each other after hearing that. During these few days, Rachel lost her appetite because of her bad mood and she had lost some weight. They knew what was bothering her but did not know how to help her.

Chapter 684

Now that the Supreme Leader was here, they were relieved knowing the Supreme Leader was willing to help them.

"I don't want to marry him. He threatens to destroy Serpent Hall and kill my mother and my brother. So I didn't have a choice but to agree with his proposal."

The moment Rachel talked about Horus, she looked angry.

Severin smiled. "I'm getting married in a few days' time too. Once I found out what is happening here, I knew time is of the essence. That's why we rush over here immediately to help you solve the problem."

"Supreme Leader. Their Great Elder is a level six warrior king. I don't know if you are..." Rachel looked at Severin and informed him.

Severin's age was a reason she doubted if he had the ability to help her. If Severin was not a level seven or level eight warrior king, there was no way he could help her solve her problem.

Severin smiled. "Don't worry. I came here with full confidence to help you. There's nothing you need to worry about. Bring me over after lunch. I will make sure Horus would not marry you."

"Thank you, Supreme Leader!" Rachel felt extremely thrilled that her eyes were turning a little red. "Yes. It's already afternoon. I'll arrange a place to have lunch now!" The Great Elder said happily. "Rachel. Who are they?"

Suddenly, a young man and a woman came into the hall together. Rachel walked toward them full of excitement. "Mother, this is the Supreme Leader of the Dracodeus Temple. Our boss. And this beautiful lady over here is the Hall Master of Equus Hall. They are here to help me. I don't need to marry Horus anymore!"

"Really?" The woman looked at Rachel excitedly after hearing that.

With a pair of reddened eyes, Rachel answered, "It's real! It's really real!"

"That's fantastic! You don't have to marry that b*stard anymore!" As Rachel's brother, Glenn was extremely excited to hear that.

"Thank you, Supreme Leader. Thank you very much!" Rachel's mother came over and wanted to kneel down to express her gratitude.

Severin walked right up and stopped her. "Ma'am, you don't have to thank me. Serpent Hall is one of the halls of the Dracodeaus Temple. As their Supreme Leader, I could not just stand by the side and do nothing."

"Mother, his name is Severin Feuillet," Rachel introduced with a smile on her face.

"Ma'am, just call me Severin." Severin returned a smile.

"No. That's impolite of me. You're the Supreme Leader!" Ruby replied.

"Morn. We're going out for lunch later. The Supreme Leader said we're going to look for Horus after lunch. and told him that I'm not going to be his wife," Rachel said with a smile.

However, Ruby frowned after hearing that. "But are you sure they are going to agree? i mean Horus is not a guy who gives up easily."

Chapter 685

"Ma'am, don't worry. He's going to agree with it!" Severin said with a smile.

"Let's go. It's getting later. Supreme Leader and the others must be tired now. Let's go have lunch now," Rachel said after thinking.

Immediately, she informed the other elders to head out together to have lunch. Shortly after they went out, a car followed behind them. One of them gave Horus a call.

"What's up?"

Horus had just reached home when he received the call.

“Sir. A couple of people went to Serpent Hall to look for Rachel. They headed out now and I have the others following them. I don’t know why are they going out so I called to inform you,” Horus’ men said. Horus thought about it and said, “Alright. Don’t lose them. Report back to me immediately once you where they are heading!”

“Yes, sir!” The man on the other side of the phone answered and ended the call.

When Horus entered the house, he saw Mason was training in the yard. Although Mason’s attainment level was average, he was stronger than a lot of people for being a level eight profound master now,

Horus approached and said, “Father, you don’t love me anymore, don’t you?”

know

Mason had no idea why his son would ask him that question. He stopped his training and frowned.

“What are you talking about? You’re my son. How could I not love you?”

Horus replied, “Then why are you listening to Yoel? My man fought with Severin once and he said Severin. was at most a level one or two warrior king. Why are you so afraid of him? The elders could easily kill him’ to take revenge for me!”

Mason frowned. “Horus, the Sanchez had warned us about him. I believe they won’t do it unless they think it’s necessary. Besides, someone strong must be supporting Severin for him to have the audacity to act so boldly. It’s better for us to be cautious. But don’t worry. I will launch an investigation. If no one is supporting him, it’s not too late for us to go after him!”

He paused and continued. “You have to be patient. Endure it for now before taking any action!”

“But Rachel told me she like the necklace and ring too. She also said she hopes to wear them during the wedding. I really want her to marry me without forcing her!”

Horus lowered his head as he thought about Rachel. It was rare to meet someone as beautiful as Rachel. One of the reasons Mason agreed to let Horus marry Rachel was because of the power Equus Hall had. Once his son married Rachel and Rachel bear a child, he believed Rachel would slowly accept her fate.

By then, Equus Hall could be theirs, Glenn was a person with attainment but his power was nothing when compared with Rachel.

Chapter 686

After a moment of silence, Mason laughed. “Rachel is not a woman who would easily succumb to you. You should be careful if she suddenly changes her attitude toward you and don’t let her use you. She’s going to be your wife whether she likes it or not. You don’t have to do anything.”

“But I really hope she would love me like I do!”

Horus thought about it and felt his father got a point. In the past, Rachel had always given him the cold treatment but the way she treated him today was clearly different. Surely he had to be cautious about the difference. However, before Horus did anything, Rachel brought Severin, Gracie, and the others to his place during the evening.

“Miss Rachel, what’s going on? Why did you bring these people here? Did something happen?” Mason frowned when he saw Rachel bring a bunch of people over.

Horus balled up his hand angrily and pointed at Severin with another hand. “Father, that guy over there! That’s Severin! Why is he here?”

“Surround them!” Mason waved his hand when he heard that and had the bodyguards surround Severin and the others.

“Why is he here?” Yoel looked surprised after hearing that. His family wished to kill Severin badly so it did not make sense for Severin to show up at their door by himself.

Most importantly, Severin was here with Rachel. It certainly made people feel very suspicious. “Kid, you’re so brave coming here today. I take it you don’t think this place is a threat to you.”

The Great Elder walked out with an angry-looking face. It was a great humiliation for them for Severin to show up right at their doorstep. After what happened earlier, they suppressed their anger and avoided creating more conflicts with Severin. Yet, Severin thought otherwise and showed up directly to add insult to them.

Severin smiled and took a step forward. “I’m getting married in a few days. I won’t come here if it’s not urgent. But I need to come here to settle this problem today.”

“What do you mean?” Horus glared at Severin angrily. “Explain yourself or I won’t let you leave!”

Severin looked at him. “Horus, if you don’t want to die, you better keep your mouth shut. Otherwise, you won’t live to see the sun tomorrow.”

“You!” Horus gritted his teeth angrily and wished he could kill Severin immediately.

Mason had the same thought. He said, “Kid, you’re a bully! I didn’t ask for an explanation when you chopped off my son’s finger. Yet, you dare to come to my place and be a bully. What kind of place do you think this is? Do you think you can come and go as you please?”

Severin smiled faintly. “Enough with the bullshit. I’m here to inform you guys of one thing. Rachel Ledford is with me. She’s not going to marry Horus and you guys need to cancel the wedding.”

“What? She’s with you?”

Horus was engulfed when he heard that. He pointed at Rachel. “Damn you, Rachel! How could you sleep with a stranger just because you didn’t want to marry me? Can’t you seriously feel my love for you? You are a liar! Just a while ago, you said you were touched by me. But you slept with him immediately after I leave!”

Chapter 687

A weird expression appeared on Severin’s face. It just did not occur to him that Horus would misunderstand what he said. Rachel who was standing by the side – blushed and did not know how to react. On the other hand, Gracie giggled because of the misunderstanding.

“Look at you! You’re blushing! God! I didn’t expect you would sleep with him in exchange for his help! I didn’t know you are this type of woman!”

The more Horus thought of it, the angrier he was. If this got out, it would be an embarrassing thing for him. even if he had Rachel becoming his wife as he wanted. People would be laughing at him for marrying a sl*

Especially when their wedding day was near.

Severin felt helpless and explained, “Hey, you! F*tass! What did you say? Don’t tarnish her reputation. When I say she’s with me, I don’t mean she’s my woman! I mean she’s under me now and you’re not allowed to bully her anymore!”

“She’s under you?”

Horus was stunned. Did he really misunderstand what Severin said?

However, he shook his head quickly. “But I never know she had a boss! How could she be under you? She’s a Hall Master!”

Severin could not be bothered to explain it to him. From the looks of it, not many people had heard of the Dracodeus Temple. Even if he did explain, he did not think Horus would believe him.

“I know it! You guys are lying to me. Tell me. How much did Rachel pay you to help her? Did she promise to sleep with you or give you a scrumptious amount of money after you help her get rid of me? Gosh, what a good excuse this is. How could I not think of an excuse like this before?”

Horus smacked his head and had a new perspective. Severin was speechless. He could not believe how wild Horus’ imagination was.

“Anyway, I’m here to inform you Rachel Ledford is with me now! You’re not allowed to marry her!”

Severin could not be bothered to explain much and went on to reiterate his purpose for being here. Rachel did not know how to react after hearing that. It was surely a lot of room for imagination when Severin said she was with him.

“You’re being a bully! Do you think you can call off the wedding as you like? We have already sent out all the invitations. It’s going to make us look bad canceling the wedding now!”

Mason could not endure it anymore and said with his gritted teeth, “Do you know you are forcing us?”

After some thinking, Severin smiled bitterly. “Mister Mason, I don’t have a choice. Aren’t you forcing Miss Rachel too? Or are you saying you are allowed to force someone but no one can force you? Do you know how it feels to be forced to do something you don’t want to?”

“Kid, I’m challenging you!”

Just then, the Great Elder could not endure it anymore. He took a step forward and said, "I'm challenging you to a fight until either of us dies. If you can kill me, we will cancel the wedding. If you fail to do so and are dead instead, then you're not going to save her."

Severin looked at Horus and Mason. "I don't mind. But do you two agree with the terms?"

Mason answered, "Of course, I agree. We will cancel the wedding if you can kill the Great Elder. Other than that, it's not up for discussion!"

As expected, Horus agreed too. After all, the Great Elder was a level six warrior king. He was the strongest in the family. If Severin could kill him, there was no one else that could stop Severin. However, Horus believed Severin did not have what it takes to kill the Great Elder. Maybe Severin was just posturing. It would be terrific if the Great Elder could kill Severin in the fight. He could have his sweet revenge.

Most importantly, if Severin died in the match, he could have the chance to bully Severin's wife and his six bodyguards.

Chapter 688

Having thought of that, brought much excitement to Horus. There were so many choices for Severin but he refused them and picked one that led him straight to hell.

"Kid. Come here! I will not go easy on you for the sake of the family's honor!"

The Great Elder leaped into the air and waved his hand at Severin.

At this point, Severin knew it was impossible for the Great Elder to surrender easily if he did not show his true power. Thus, the only choice he had was to kill the Great Elder. The Neely could probably think they could bully him as much as they want if he did not kill the Great Elder. Therefore, he leaped into mid-air and stood in front of the Great Elder.

"Roaring Tiger Punch!"

The Great Elder looked at Severin with the intention to kill him. Immediately, he gathered his spiritual energy to his fist and threw it at Severin. Then, a phantom image of a tiger actually appeared in front of Severin. Although it looked dull, it was very surreal and powerful than it seemed.

Rachel clenched her fist tightly. What Severin faced was a powerful attack from a level six warrior king. Although Severin said he was fine, she had never seen Severin fight before. It was normal for her to feel worried. Severin smiled faintly and gathered his spiritual energy to throw it at the Great Elder. A spiritual energy beam shot toward the Great Elder.

"What? He's not using any technique?"

The Great Elder frowned and thought Severin was underestimating him by using a normal attack against him.

"Attack!"

However, he did not care. All he wanted to do was kill Severin to protect the family's honor. As he pointed to the front, the tiger dashed up front.

A second later, a loud sound resembling the thunder appeared. Unbelievably, the tiger only managed to withstand a few seconds before it perished into thin air. Whereas the spiritual energy beam became shorter and less shining. However, it continued to head to the front with its remaining power.

"No! That's impossible! Could he really be a level seven warrior king?"

Shockness appeared in the Great Elder's eyes. It was not easy reaching the next level when they became a warrior king. In his mind, he thought Severin must be weaker than him because of Severin's age.

Yet, from this battle, it looked like Severin was at least a level seven warrior king. A second later, the spiritual energy beam hit the Great Elder and he fell from the sky.

Chapter 689

The Great Elder fell down like a broken kite and smashed heavily on the ground.

"Great Elder!"

The other elders looked terribly scared. When they ran over, they realized the Great Elder was out of breath.

"This guy did not even use a technique in the fight. He attacked with purely his spiritual energy and he killed the Great Elder. He must be a level seven warrior king!" The second elder said shockingly.

To them, Severin was a rare talented guy if he was a level seven warrior king now. However, it was unlikely for Severin to be a level eight warrior king. Mainly because some of the strongest war chiefs of the Dracodom were just level eight warrior kings.

'Father! The Great Elder is dead!' Horus' voice trembled. The Great Elder was the strongest person in their family. With him around, the others had no fear. It brought great losses to their family now that the Great Elder was dead.

The corner of Mason's mouth twitched a few times. In the end, he finally found his voice. "I know!" Severin flew down and stood in front of Mason. "Mister Mason, I think you're an honorable man who keeps his promise. Now can we cancel Mister Horus and Miss Rachel's wedding?"

Mason was filled with anger but he knew he had to keep his promise.

"Cancel! Cancel the wedding!" he said with gritted teeth with reluctance.

"Father..."

Horus hurried over to his father when he heard his father saying the wedding is off. As he looked at the Great Elder's dead body, he did not know what else to say.

"Mister Mason, I hope you are a man of your word. Let's go!"

Severin looked at the others and finally left the place with the rest. "Yes! I don't need to marry that fat guy anymore!"

When they left the place, Rachel felt relieved.

“Supreme Leader, you’re so powerful. Killing the strongest in the Neely without any difficulty. Haha. I bet they never expect this outcome!”

The Great Elder of Serpent Hall felt great too.

“Exactly. Didn’t you see how bad their faces look?” The second elder added happily.

“Miss Rachel. Since I have settled the problem for you, I’ll be heading home tomorrow. If there’s anything else you need from me, feel free to call me.”

Severin looked at Rachel and told her that. They had exchanged phone numbers during lunch.

Chapter 690

Rachel was shocked. “Why are you in such a hurry to go back?”

All of a sudden, it hit her. “Oh, I forgot. You’re getting married soon. I shall go with you tomorrow. There’s no reason for me to be absent on your wedding day!”

“Haha. No problem.” Severin laughed out loud after hearing that.

At that time, Mason looked at the Great Elder’s body and shouted angrily and sorrowfully. “Severin, you d*mn b*stard! This is not over! I will make you regret it soon!”

Horus frowned. Suddenly, he thought of something. “Father, are you saying there’s a chance for us to take revenge?”

Mason gritted his teeth. “Of course. Who do you think I am? I’m friends with those war chiefs. But I refuse to ask for their help because I don’t want them to think I’m incapable. After this humiliation, I have no choice but to seek for their help.”

Horus was thrilled and he felt there was hope once again. “Yes! That kid can only be a level seven warrior king. I bet has just reached level seven not too long ago. It’s an easy job to kill Severin if the war chief is willing to help us. After all, only a war god is powerful enough to kill a war chief.”

Mason smiled. “Let’s bury the Great Elder today. We can inform the others that the wedding is temporarily canceled tomorrow.”

Even so, Horus was not about to give up easily. “Father, can I still marry Rachel to be my wife after we kill Severin?”

Mason sneered coldly. “Of course. We’re taking back whatever we lost. Since Severin had the nerve to come to destroy your wedding, I’m going to ask the war chief to go to his wedding together with us and destroy his wedding! I can’t wait to see the look on his face!”

“Yes! Let’s go spoil his fun! Hahaha. That’s a good idea! Humiliate him in front of everyone!” Horus got very excited.

Yoel who was standing beside them frowned vehemently. The Great Elder was dead and he knew his father was never humiliated so badly. Thus he knew better than to say anything.

The second morning, Severin and the rest went back to Brookbourn because his wedding was only four days away.

On the same day, people in South Link City were shocked because they received a piece of news. When they found out Horus was going to marry Rachel, it created a scene. Many people talked about how unmatching they were. Then today, they found out that the Neely was actually canceling the wedding. The almighty and domineering Neely family.

Moreover, there was a rumor circulating that the Great Elder of the Neely was killed by a powerful person. Although the Neely did not disclose the reason they canceled the wedding, many others were speculating it had something to do with the death of the Great Elder. Some even wondered if Rachel had the support of someone influential and powerful to help her escape the unfortunate.

Speculations and assumptions were everywhere but no one really knew what was the exact reason.

“Mason, my brother, what’s going on? I was looking forward to attending your son’s wedding. Why did you cancel it?”

A war chief Stanley Napier, who had a close relationship with Mason, asked on the phone when he found out about the news.

“Stanley, I have no idea where to start. I met this damn guy. He killed my Great Elder and forced us to cancel the wedding. I didn’t have a choice. I think Rachel must have offered great rewards to him to help her.”

Mason said with great sorrow as he complained to Stanley. “He had no respect to me or my family and killed my elders as he wished. Stanley, I wonder if you think you can lend me a helping hand?”
