

After Prison 741

Chapter 741

Edward gasped and felt so scared that he started to sweat. Miya sounded extremely serious when she said that. He believed she was not joking and she meant what she said if he did not keep his promise.

Yet, the temptation of having Diane after he killed Severin and to live a better life with help from the Zavalas was just too strong. He smiled with his gritted teeth, "Don't worry. I'm a man of my word. Once Severin is dead, we can go watch a movie. But it's better to do that thing you want on our wedding day!"

At this point, he paused for a while before continuing. I mean it's your first time and I think it's better to wait until our wedding day..."

"Okay. I'll listen to you!"

Miya smiled, wined down the window, and ordered six men, "Let's go!"

Soon, the cars parked outside of the villa.

When Edward got out of the car, he looked at the gated villas and frowned. "I thought they were here for a holiday. Why did he buy so many villas? It looks like they are gated from the others. Are they going to live here permanently?"

"Your enemy. Is he very rich? Why can he afford to buy so many villas?" Miya giggled.

Edward gave Miya a hug and said, "He did pretty good when he was in Brookbourn. But this is South Link City. He's nothing compared to your family."

"Come on. It's time to let him know how stupid it was to mess with my man!"

It felt so nice to be hugged by Edward. The group of people walked inside the compound. At that moment, Severin and the others had just finished their lunch. Diane and the others were walking in the garden. They were chatting happily before they saw a group of people walking in.

"Edward Horsefield!"

Felicia and Diane exchanged looks with each other and widened their eyes when they saw Edward walking among the group of people.

"No way! Mister Edward? Why is he here?" Megan frowned.

Edward walked over and sneered. "Diane, I bet you never figured we will be meeting so soon!"

"Mister Edward, why are you here?" Diane looked shocked.

It has been just two days since they arrived in this city. Even if Edward was in South Link City all the while, he should have not located them so soon. Most importantly, Edward had placed his arm on a fat woman that weighed nearly two hundred pounds. Seemed like his taste for women had changed.

"Edward, should I ask them to beat these women? I hate it when they are better looking than me!"

Miya was jealous when she knew those women were Edward's old acquaintances and they were so much better looking than her.

"No. I just need you to kill Severin and his bodyguards. These women are just normal people. There's nothing between us so you don't need to kill them," Edward said evilly.

"Mister Edward, you better not mess with my son-in-law. Leave now and live your life!" Felicia warned kindly after thinking about it.

Chapter 742

Felicia knew just how strong Severin was because even the War Gods had to call Severin their master.

However, Edward did not appreciate Felicia's kind gesture. He sneered. "Ha! Thank you for the advice. But I'm not the old me and you should think twice before messing with me too!"

"Mister Edward, since you refuse to listen to my mother, I'm going to go get Severin now!"

It was easy to tell Edward must have found himself a strong support for him to show up here today. Otherwise, he would not be together with that fat woman.

"Severin! Severin! Edward Horsefield brought some men here!"

Megan ran into the villa and shouted at Severin who was enjoying his tea downstairs. "Edward Horsefield?"

Severin frowned and stood up. "That guy! Didn't he run away because he was scared of me? Who gives him the audacity to show up here now? Haha. He's quite brave. I guess I have no choice but to kill him to avoid leaving trouble to come to haunt me in the future.

"Severin, I think he got himself a strong support because he walked over here with his arm on a fat woman's waist!" Megan warned.

"Okay!" Severin answered back as he strode outside. Lillie and the others saw what was happening and came over too.

"Mister Edward, what a pleasure seeing you here!" Severin smiled as he arrived.

"Haha. Indeed. It had been a long time. I dreamt of you and wished I could tear you into pieces at night!" Edward chuckled as he had trouble concealing his viciousness.

As for the others, he did not want to go into details. He was afraid to let Miya know this feud started with Severin started because he liked Diane.

Thus, he waved his hand and said, "Gentlemen. Please kill this guy and those bodyguards!"

"Xavier, do it!" Miya said.

"Edward, think carefully. This is your last chance. I'm going to let you leave in one piece now. If not, going to kill you."

I'm

Severin smiled faintly and said to Miya. "Miss. This guy is a bad guy. Don't let his appearance trick you. There's nothing between us so I can forgive you this time and not kill you guys."

"Hey, you're so arrogant. Are you saying you can defeat these six men? Their power is stronger than you. can imagine!" Miya sneered coldly, looked proud, and did not give a sh*t about Severin.

She did not believe Brookbourn actually had a strong person living there.

"Severin, do you think I would come if I don't think I have a chance?"

Edward too looked very pleased. "This is not my last chance but yours! Die!"

"I'll go on first!" A level one warrior king grasped his fist tightly with spiritual energy moving around.

With a flash, he appeared in front of Severin and threw his fist at Severin.

Chapter 743

"You're going to regret it for underestimating me!" Severin chuckled and tilted to the left to avoid the punch. He easily avoided the attack.

"What?" The level one warrior king was surprised that Severin could easily avoid his speedy attack.

Normally speaking, not even a level two warrior king could have that kind of speed. Followingly, he felt pressure hitting him. Before he knew it, he was sent flying in the air. While that happened, he spurted a mouthful of blood too.

"What?" The rest of the warrior kings were shocked as they witnessed that. Based on that, they could assume Severin was at least a level two warrior king.

I think that kid has high attainment. We have to fight him together!"

A level three warrior king frowned the moment he realized it was not going to be an easy fight.

"Haha. You guys should have fought me all at once. It's wasting time to fight you guys one by one." Severin chuckled.

The thing he said made the others look bad. The rest of the warrior kings exchanged looks with each other and immediately charged at Severin. Too bad, they were no match for Severin. After a while, all of them ended up on the ground groaning in pain.

"No way! Not even Xavier could defeat him?"

Miya was dumbstruck. It felt like a dream that this guy from a small city could actually be so strong.

"Mister Edward, I'm sorry. As I said, I'm going to kill you this time because I already gave you a chance just now but you didn't take it." Severin smiled like a villain as he talked to Edward.

Edward's face looked terrible. He was so scared that he took many steps backward.

Unexpectedly, Miya actually chose to stand in front of him and said, "You darn thing! Do you know who? am? I'm the young miss of the Zavalas! If you dare to kill Edward, I'm never going to let you go!"

Despite that, Severin did not give a sh*t. He smiled faintly. “Miss Miya, I already told you I’m just going to teach you a small lesson because you have never offended me before. If you continue to act this way, I’m afraid the one who is going to regret it is you. What do you think if I destroy your family if you mess with me?”

“How dare you!”

Miya had no idea why Severin could be so arrogant after she told him about her family. Yet, she laughed out loud once she thought about her family. “Haha! You’re so arrogant. But do you think you can easily mess with my family? After all, we had been through so much to become a second-tier upper-class family in this city. You’re going to regret it if you dare to offend my family!”

“Hey, Severin. Her family has many strong and powerful people with high attainment. They didn’t come along today. Do you really think you are invincible? You don’t have many days left to live once you kill me!”

Edward gathered his courage when he saw how protective Miya was. He stood at the front and looked *very pleased. “I have the Zavalas supporting me. Let’s see if you really dare to kill me!”

“Haha!” Severin laughed out loud.

‘I guess I was too kind to them the last time by making them broke! If I don’t kill him now, he’s going to bring more trouble to me in the future!’ he thought.

Chapter 744

With that thought in Severin’s mind, he decided he was not going to let Edward go this time. Suddenly, he moved and became a flash. It was so fast that before Edward knew it, Severin appeared in front of him.

“What?” It gave Edward a big shock.

Before he could finish his sentence, Severin gave Edward a light smack on Edward’s head. Edward felt like a thunder stroke on him and he got blasted into the air. As he smashed to the ground, he spurted some blood. His body moved as if he was having a seizure before he lost his breath.

“You, you, you killed him!”

Miya was filled with rage. As the only child, she was showered with endless love. She never experienced this sort of situation. Despite having her men all defeated, she was not scared. As a brat who had everything her way, she raised her hand and was about to slap Severin.

However, Severin slapped her hand away and slapped her face. “Do you think I’m scared to hit a woman? I’m being kind to ask you to leave now! If you dare to cause more trouble for me, you will truly understand the meaning of regret!”

“You, you hit me!” Miya was dumbstruck and could not believe what just happened.

“Isn’t it obvious?”

Severin shrugged. He did not give a sh*t.

“Miss Miya, let’s go.”

Xavier got up on his feet in a hurry and quickly pulled Miya to the side. He whispered, “Miss Miya, we should leave. This guy is not afraid of anything and he doesn’t care about the consequences. We’re not his match. We can’t have him kill you!”

Although Miya was reluctant to accept the defeat, she was also scared of how bold Severin was. She gritted her teeth and looked at Edward’s dead body. “Go and carry him!”

Without delay, they left the villa angrily. Miya instructed her men to send Edward’s dead body back to his family and promised that she would avenge him. The leader of the Horsefields was angry but he also knew no one in the family could defeat Severin. Thus, he could only place all his hopes on Miya. Quickly enough, Miya returned home with the others with an angry face.

“Miya. What happened? Did anyone make you angry?”

The name of the head of the Zavalas family was called Maros. He was also a fat man with a thick waist, wide arse, and a face full of mustache. When he saw Miya was in a bad mood, he quickly went up and asked.

“Dad!” Miya felt extremely sad as she ran into Maros’ arms. “Dad, you have to help me. Someone killed my husband and slapped me! Sob, sob. No one has ever hit me before. He’s a jerk! Look, is my face swollen?”

“What?”

Maros was extremely angry after hearing that. He stomped his feet. “F*ck! Who is he? The one who slapped you!”

Immediately after that, he sensed something was wrong. He said with a frown, “Hold up. Miya, you said he killed your husband? Did I hear it right? When did you have a husband?”

Chapter 745

Miya looked up. “Edward Horsefield, the handsome guy I told you last time. He agreed to come live with us. But before he could do that, he was killed!”

“Gosh!” Maros was relieved after hearing that. “You scared me. I thought you were really married. Didn’t you just meet him a few days ago? I thought he had been ignoring you. Why did he suddenly agree to marry you and come live with us?”

“He got a bone to pick with a guy called Severin. Severin was the one who made him and his family into bankruptcy. So he asked me to help him kill Severin and he will marry me. But... but... we were just together for less than an hour and now he’s dead!”

The more Miya thought about it, the sadder she felt. Before anyone knew it, she started crying again like her husband really had died.

“Miya. Can’t you tell Edward is just using you? He doesn’t like you. Why are you crying because of him?”

Other than consoling Miya, Maros did not know what to do.

"I don't care! I don't care if he was using me. I like him! And he finally agreed to come to be our live-in-in-law! To me, he's my husband. I already gave him my first kiss. Dad, you need to help me. Putting Edward aside, Severin slapped me! Isn't that a reason for you to go after him?"

Miya said while stomping her feet and wiping her tears.

"Alright, alright, alright. I'll go after him for you. Anyone who dares to lay a finger on my daughter deserves to die!" Maros comforted.

"Dad, I know you love me the most!" Finally, a smile appeared on Miya's face.

"Didn't Xavier and the others go out with you? How could they let that guy slap you? Weren't they with you when it happened?"

Maros frowned after thinking about it.

Miya answered, "Xavier and the others could not beat that guy! He's from that small city, Brookbourn. I have no idea why he is so powerful. Argh! I'm so angry. Before I left, he even threatened me not to cause him any trouble or he will destroy our family!"

"What? He's too arrogant!"

Maros was so angry that he held his fist tightly. "F*ck him! Does he think we are that weak?"

"That's right! Dad, let's bring more people with us. Ask the Great Elder and the other elders to come along together too!" Miya suggested.

"That's right. I'll inform them now!"

Maros nodded and left angrily. At the same time, there was another group of people outside of Severin's villa. There were over twenty people in the group and one of them was Lance who got beaten by Severin yesterday.

"Mister Lance, I received a source saying that guy had bought a villa here and is now living here!" A "blonde dude came right up and informed him with a smile.

Lance nodded and said to an older man and an elderly woman at the side. "Great Elder, Second Elder. As long as you kill that guy, I will give you the spiritual herb that I promised you!"

After Lance got beaten yesterday, he thought deeply when he went back and thought it was necessary to kill Severin. If Rachel could give her precious sports car to Severin, he believed Rachel had a thing for Severin. Not forgetting to mention, Severin was a good-looking man. He could not afford to mess with Horus when Horus stole Rachel away from him but he believed Severin was not a huge threat to him. If he could kill Severin, his chances of being together with Rachel would be higher.

Chapter 746

That was the main reason he agreed to give the difficult to obtain sprigs of third-grade spiritual herbs to the grand-elder and second-elder, so they could help him kill Severin.

“Don’t worry. We’re both level four warrior kings, and plenty of our members will be with us too. Killing that kid shouldn’t be a problem!” the grand-elder asserted with a smile.

“I didn’t expect more guests to come!” Severin smiled bitterly when he saw the arrival of yet another group of people while he was enjoying some tea in his villa courtyard. He did not expect to face so many troublemakers when it had only been a couple of days since he arrived at South Link City, and it was even more appalling that Rachel’s simple act of giving him a car was enough to draw the ire of her suitor.

He stood up and walked out after asking that question.

“Lance? The Hillguard Gang’s elder?” Severin asked with a smile as he went up to the group.

On the other end, Lillie and the girls stopped chatting with each other and immediately ran over to check on the situation.

“You didn’t think we’d meet again, did you? I’m surprised you didn’t leave town after beating me up the other day. Let’s see where else can you run to, now that I’ve found you at your home today!”

Lance chuckled with an air of superiority and thoroughly underestimated Severin.

“Shall we deal with them?” Wendy asked Severin when she saw the sheer number of people that had been brought along.

Severin pointed to the old man and old woman in front of him. “These two are pretty strong in terms of cultivation. I’ll take them on, while you girls can handle the rest!”

“Sure thing! Can we kill them?” Abigail asked with a slight smile.

Severin nodded. “But of course! This Hillguard Gang will keep having the impression that I’m a pushover if we don’t make them suffer some casualties!”

“You’ve got guts, little kid!” The old woman said with a laugh as she thrust the crutch that she was holding at lightning speed.

“Hmph.” Severin tilted his head slightly, grabbed the crutch, and exerted some force. His strong energy was channeled into the crutch, causing it to split in half. The force continued to course through the crutch, and the old woman immediately released her grip on it when she noticed that something was amiss. She then manifested some spiritual energy into her feet and kicked Severin..

The old man did not stand idly either. He whipped out a dagger in a flash and stabbed Severin from the other side. An attack involving two level four warrior kings was difficult for even a level five warrior king to deal with.

However, Severin had a little smirk as he manifested his thoughts into condensing his spiritual energy around his body into a glowing shield.

“What!” The old man failed to pierce through that glow with his dagger, and there was nothing he could do to move any further. “This can’t be possible!” The fear he felt caused his forehead to drip in a cold sweat, knowing full well that the only individuals who could execute such a technique were almost certainly a level nine warrior king. He could not believe that the young man in front of him was such an individual.

Chapter 747

As a warrior king himself, the old man was aware that condensing a protective shield of spiritual energy over one's body was possible only for those who have reached an attainment of level nine warrior king. After all, doing so required one to have dense spiritual energy and strong mental force.

The young man before him had achieved just that—using the spiritual energy shield to resist his attack and prevent his dagger from going any further. Under such circumstances, his attacks were plainly useless.

Severin smirked and thrust his palm onto the man's chest.

A dull sound resonated through the air, and the old man was sent flying before falling heavily to the ground. There was a touch of resentment in his eyes as he breathed his last breath.

"No! This can't be happening!" The old woman was frightened when she saw the old man die an instant death right next to her. She immediately turned around and prepared to make a run for it.

Alas, Severin was never going to give her a chance to do so. He unleashed his palm firmly on the opponent's back, ending her life at that moment.

After killing them both, Severin's spiritual energy shield instantly dissipated with a quick thought.

Everything happened within a second or two, and the rest of their men were nearly all killed by Lillie and the girls.

"No! How could this be possible?! He couldn't have been so strong! Am I seeing things?" Lance originally thought that Severin's death was a given, but his legs went limp from fright after seeing the grand-elder and second elder die so easily.

Severin grinned and came up to him in a flash.

Knowing that Severin was far too strong for him, Lance knelt on the ground and begged: "I'm sorry! I realize my mistake now, Severin! Please forgive me! I promise I won't do it again!"

"It's too late to know your mistake now." Severin was not going to give him another chance and kicked him swiftly, ending his life.

The group of people from the Hillguard Gang was beheaded by Severin with almost no effort. Severin glanced at the spatial rings on their fingers and walked over to take them.

"Hey. It's such a hassle to have to deal with these dead bodies!" Severin shook his head helplessly when he looked at the corpses on the ground.

It was one thing after another, and he was surprised when a fleet of cars drove up to his gate and parked outside. Miya and Maros had arrived with their men.

"Sev="

Miya was about to demand Severin come out when she was left startled by the scene in front of her. There were a lot of corpses lying on the ground, and all of them died a miserable death.

“Sir, these corpses are the Hillguard Gang’s members. It included their grand-elder and second Elder!” one of the older men among their group walked up to Maros and explained with a gloomy face.

Maros’s mouth twitched violently a few times. After all, the Hillguard Gang might not be as powerful as the Zavalas, but they were not to be provoked all the same. If many of their strongest men died in Severin’s hands, then it was clear that Severin’s strength was far from simple.

Chapter 748

However, Maros’s confidence grew a little when he thought about the level six warrior king that he had with him.

“Hey, fat lady! I didn’t think you’d bring your family here so soon. Hehe, I knew you weren’t going to give up, but I must say I’m still a little surprised when you brought them here so quickly!” Severin spoke nonchalantly as he looked at Miya and her family.

“How dare you call my daughter a fat lady? Do you want to get yourself killed?” Maros gritted his teeth in anger when he heard how Severin addressed Miya.

“But I’m stating a fact!” Severin stretched his waist before saying to Miya, “Even though you came here to cause trouble, I’ll be kind enough not to kill you because you’re a woman. However, you will have to apologize to me and help me dispose of the bodies in this yard. Then you, your father, and your people will be allowed to scam. Sound like a good deal?”

“You killed my man, you b*stard! I came here to end your life, so you’re dreaming if you think you can ask me to help you dispose of these corpses?”

Miya stomped her feet in anger. “Kill him, Dad! Kill him!”

Maros immediately comforted her. “Don’t get too worked up, Miya. Our grand-elder and second elder have the attainment of level six warrior king, so they’re strong enough to be treated as the top fighters in South Link City. They’ll have no problem killing this kid!”

After finishing his words, he immediately said to a man and a woman, “I’ll leave him to you two then, Grand-Elder and Second Elder!”

After the man heard that, he could not help but smile and say, “Killing this boy won’t be a problem, sir, but I’ve taken a liking to two of these six beauties here. I wonder if you’ll allow me to bring two of them with me later?”

Maros knew what the man’s intention was and could not help but laugh and say, “You sure are straightforward. It’s not a problem as long as you kill this kid!”

“Haha, happy to oblige!” When the other party received approval from the head of the family, he could not help but gulp his saliva with a grin as he looked at Abigail’s and Lillie’s sexy legs. In truth, he was attracted by all four of those beauties, but he preferred those with sexy long legs. Moreover, he could not enjoy too many women at once, hence why he only said that he would take two of them with him.

“Hehe, if that’s the case, then the first people I’ll kill will be this perverted old man and that female elder. People like you aren’t going to learn your lesson unless you pay a price!”

Severin laughed and took out a sword. Naturally, this sword is not the Blood-Fiend Sword, but another sword obtained from the spatial ring of a Hillguard Gang elder who was killed earlier. Severin had decided to use it because it looked quite decent, but the main reason was that he could not wait to try out the Rose Petal Rain technique. After all, he had not used the skill even though he already practiced it for quite some time, and he felt that it was the perfect opportunity to do so against the two level six warrior kings.

After ending his sentence, he channeled spiritual energy into the sword with his mind. The sword then uttered a cry, and the energy fluctuations coming from it were very strong too.

“Did you expect to have it easy against two level six warrior kings?” The Zavalas’ second elder finally spoke up as she smiled coldly and produced a sword with a wave of her palm.

*Please step back, sir. We’ll be executing a very powerful skill, and we wouldn’t want the shockwave to

“We will.” Maros and Miya exchanged a glance at each other and felt incredibly delighted, for they both knew that Severin would be as good as dead once the two elders used their techniques and unleashed their strength. However, it was also a sign that the two elders did not underestimate Severin, the corpses lying on the ground were reason enough not to take him lightly.

“Flaming Slash!” The woman slashed her sword, and the burst of sword energy flew forth like a flame, spanning several meters in length. The aura that came out of it was strong, and everyone could sense that the temperature around the sword energy had risen considerably—a clear demonstration of the technique’s sheer prowess.

“Roaring Tiger Punch!” The grand-elder unleashed his punch, producing a humongous tiger-like image that looked just like a living tiger. It even let out a roar!

“Did I just hear something roar?” Judith, Felicia, and the others who were drinking tea at home immediately walked out of the villa. As soon as they saw what was happening in the distance, they were so afraid that they opened their mouths wide and began to wonder if they were seeing things. After all, it was their first time seeing a truly strong individual performing such a formidable technique, and it all felt so unreal to them.

Severin became excited when he saw the two elders’ attacks and immediately slashed his sword, “Rose-Petal Rain!” he exclaimed, and ten or so palm-sized rose petals appeared suddenly before him.

Since those petals were formed by the condensation of spiritual energy, their color was a faint sky blue. Yet it was precisely because of such condensed spiritual energy that it had an ethereal and beautiful look.

“Whoa! That’s such a beautiful technique!” Miya was stunned when she saw these rose petals from a distance.

“Do flower petals even have any attacking ability? The fluctuation doesn’t look very good either, and I think it’s just one of those flamboyant but useless techniques!” A middle-aged man who was also a second-rank warrior king sneered as he stood there with his hands behind his back.

The next second, all ten rose petals darted forth one after another. When the rose petals landed on the flames and the tiger that was formed from spiritual energy, an explosion occurred following a large blast.

“Huh?!” Both the grand-elder and the second elder were completely stunned. Their attacks had been resoundingly destroyed after they each came into contact with one rose petal, and those ethereal-looking petals contained a thoroughly frightening spiritual energy.

“This is bad!” The two of them noticed the rose petals coming at them at full speed and were about to land on them soon.

The two of them immediately make haste to escape, but it was too little too late as three rose petals directly attached to their bodies.

“Spare me!” The middle-aged man yelled as he turned pale with fright.

Unfortunately for him, Severin would never give such perverts a chance to live. The petals of that third-grade technique exploded, blasting him into small bits of flesh.

Chapter 750

“How can this be? Both Grand-Elder and Second Elder are level six warrior kings... how did they just...” An old man was stunned silly by what happened, and cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

He was a strong individual whose attainment had reached level five warrior king, and he could only thank his lucky stars that he did not go forth and attack earlier or else he would end up dead like the other two.

“Dad, isn’t Grand-Elder and Second Elder nearly invincible here in South Link City? How could people of their attainment be killed so easily?” Miya was shocked and her face was full of disbelief.

Maros froze in stupefaction and answered after a few seconds, “Didn’t you say that this kid is from Brookbourn, Miya? When did Brookbourn produce someone with such terrifying strength?” He wiped off cold sweat immediately after speaking.

“What should we do, Dad? Maybe we should just...”

Miya gulped. At that moment, all she wanted to do was get out of there as soon as possible, since even a single rose petal from Severin’s attack would kill her if it landed on her body.

“Did I say you could leave?” Severin’s indifferent words scared them silly..

A few scaredy-cats knelt on the ground, and their legs were so weak that they could no longer stand up.

Severin took a step forward, scaring Miya into kneeling too. She muttered incoherently, “D-D-Don’t kill me! Don’t kill me, please! I know I was wrong! Just please don’t kill me!”

As the head of the Zavalas, Maros did not kneel despite his nervousness and stood rooted to the ground without daring to move.

Severin walked over and took off the spatial rings of the two dead individuals, knowing that there was a high likelihood that those level six warrior kings stored spiritual herbs in there. He was not about to let go of the chance to seize such treasures.

“Don’t worry. As I said earlier, I’ll only kill these two people to show you not to mess with me. I’m a man of my word, and since I’ve already said that I won’t kill you, then you will be able to secure the chance to live.

Severin then smiled slightly. “The main reason I’m sparing your lives is that I’m new here, and I don’t want to destroy a family like yours because I don’t intend to cause too big of a commotion. I much prefer living a quiet life!”

Lillie, Abigail, and others behind them all looked at each other and could not help but smile to themselves.

Severin made that decision because he was a very kind-hearted person. After all, he could easily destroy the Zavalas if he so wished.

After hearing Severin’s words, Maros breathed a sigh of relief and nodded slightly as he said, “Thank you for sparing us, Mister Severin. I swear not to bother you again!”

“Thank you for your kindness!” Everyone else also expressed their gratitude in a gesture of thanks.

“Come on, Miya. Let’s leave.” Maros helped Miya up with a disappointed look. It was his first time encountering such a huge failure, and it turned out to be a severe blow to him.

“Wait! Didn’t I just say that I’ll only let you leave if you help me deal with all these dead bodies?” Severin reminded them when he saw that they were preparing to leave.

Truth be told, he only allowed the Zavalas to leave because they did not offend him too severely, and also because he was hoping for their help in getting rid of the corpses. After all, he and Diane had yet to recruit some extra bodyguards, so it was evidently very troublesome and not too ideal for the beautiful bodyguards to deal with all those corpses.

“Yes! We’ll help you dispose of them and make sure the place is spotless!” Maros immediately gave his vow, since he was more than willing to help with the mess as long as he was allowed to live.
