

After Prison 991

Chapter 991

“Severin! Did you stay up all night making alchemical medicine?”

When Diane woke up, she discovered Severin was wiping his cauldron. She rubbed her eyes and asked while being in a sleepy and blurred moment.

Severin smiled and put the cauldron away. “Yes. They failed but I make good improvements. I feel like I’m not too far away from being a second-grade high-rank alchemist.”

Diane chuckled. “That’s good. Do you need me to go to Fonzo’s place with you later?”

Severin shook his head. “No. I’m just going to head there to give a simple and basic treatment. It won’t take too long. Go shopping together with Megan and the other girls. Or you can get some rest now and we can go shopping together when I come back.”

“I’ll wait for you then,” Diane smiled.

“Alright. I’m leaving now. You can go back to sleep.” Severin went over to Diane’s side and kissed her forehead.

After that, Severin left the room, took the lift down, and headed to Fonzo’s place.

Meanwhile, Meldrick and Draven were just about to leave the house. On the way out, they met Satchell, Sofia, and the elders.

“Mister Meldrick, I have some free time today. We’re going to the Divine Faith Church to take a look today. Do you want to go together?” Satchell asked.

Meldrick smiled faintly. “No, thanks. You guys go ahead. I’m going out with Draven. He said he’s going to bring me to other places.”

“Alright. Enjoy yourself.”

Satchell was thrilled to see how close Meldrick and Draven had gotten together. At least, he knew Meldrick would protect his son from being bullied when his son joined the Stormy Moon Sect.

After that, Meldrick and Draven parked the car at a roadside across from a villa. They got down, went to a cafe across the villa, and sat on the second floor to monitor the villa.

“All we need to do is wait. It’s still early. I don’t think he’s here,” Draven said.

Shortly, he noticed something and frowned. “Meldrick, there’re a few surveillance cameras at the entrance. Do you think Sofia is going to investigate Severin’s death?”

Meldrick flipped his palm and took out a black color mask. He smiled, “I’ve already thought of this. That’s why I prepare this mask. Let him treat Fonzo first. We’ll kill him after he finished his treatment and we can find a spot out in the wood to bury his body. That way we won’t leave any traces behind and Sofia won’t know we are the way who killed him.”

Draven nodded. "Good planning. Even if Sofia wants to investigate the truth, it's not going to be easy. It's going to take a while before Severin's women know that he's dead too."

Chapter 992

As Draven said that, he had another thought. "I wonder if he's going to bring his women together with him? Do we kill them too if they come together?"

After hearing that, Meldrick thought about it and said, "Kill them? They are all so beautiful. It's a waste if we kill all of them. We can capture them and find a place to indulge after we kill Severin. Isn't that much more fun?"

The idea lit up Draven's eyes. He gave Meldrick a thumbs up. "That's right! You're a genius. I get to unleash my anger at his women after I get my revenge."

"Haha. All we need to do now is wait. Hopefully, he brings a couple of his women together with him. Those women are in luck to escape if they didn't come along," Meldrick chuckled, "His women are so darn pretty and he's really lucky. But he should have stopped there and do not try to seduce Sofia and make Sofia like him."

"I agree. You and Sofia make a perfect match. You're definitely so much better than him," Draven quickly took the chance to grovel and please Meldrick.

Obviously, Meldrick enjoyed it. He smiled. "I admit that he's very talented. But I'm definitely a better-looking dude than him."

He paused for a while and continued, "Oh, well. Appearance is just appearance. Only the strongest dictate this world and the weak have no say. All the rules in this world are set by the strongest. Today the day Severin dies."

"That's right. No matter how talented he is, he's going to die because he offended and tried to steal Sofia away from you." Draven nodded. "Hey, I'm not going to go with you later. I don't have a mask so I'll be staying here watching your magnificent performance."

"Haha. It doesn't matter if you go with me or not. But I think it's better if you find something to cover your face. Maybe we're going to kidnap his women after killing him and surely, you don't want people to see your face."

Meldrick chuckled and prayed that Severin would not come alone.

"He's here! But it looks like he's alone."

Just then, Draven saw something.

Meldrick looked out from the window. As Draven said, Severin pulled up his car at the roadside. He was alone without any accompaniment.

Meldrick looked disappointed and said, "Those women are lucky. None of them come along."

Draven could tell how disappointed Meldrick was. He consoled, "Don't worry. I can bring you somewhere else after you kill Severin. I know a few places that have beautiful women."

Meldrick smiled. "Remember your promise. I have very high expectations."

"Don't worry. I promise you will be satisfied," Draven smacked his chest and gave his promise.

Meanwhile, Severin had reached the door.

"Good day, Mister Severin. Please welcome in!"

Just as he was standing in front of the door, the guards saluted respectfully and loudly at him.

Chapter 993

It gave Severin a scare. "Have you guys seen me before?"

One of the guards came up and said, "When Mister Fonzo returned, the first thing he did was show us the photo you two took together. He told us you're coming here to treat him and requested everyone to memorize your look."

"I see," Severin smiled bitterly.

"Please walk this way, Mister Severin." A guard showed Severin the way and led Severin into a garden.

At that time, Fonzo was enjoying the sun and drinking a cup of tea in the garden. It looked so peaceful.

"Mister Severin! I didn't expect you to come so early."

Fonzo quickly got up and shook his hand with Severin when he saw Severin walking into his garden.

"Hahaha. I was thinking that I can spend some time with my family after I treat you," Severin chuckled. "Mister Fonzo, please sit down and I shall start the treatment."

Fonzo sat down as told and smiled at Severin. "Mister Severin, I have been thinking about how to repay you since yesterday. But I just can't find an answer because I know how rich you are."

Severin smiled, "That's not necessary. You don't have to repay me anything. It's enough that I get to know you."

Despite that, Fonzo was persistent. "No. I can't do that. I feel so grateful that you're able to heal me and make me stand up again. Did you see how I have no trouble standing up just now? Although I can't walk too far, I believe it's just a matter of time before I'm fully healed."

He then asked, "I wonder if your wife is gifted with the ability to train? Does she has any attainment?"

Severin forced a smile, "She wants to train and she's already a level six grandmaster. But she doesn't have the gift. The furthest she can be is a level nine grandmaster. Unless I can find a treasure that could change her physique. Otherwise, there's no way she could become a profound master."

"That's good!"

Unexpectedly, Fonzo smiled and nodded.

At that time, Severin was taking out his tool to use during the treatment. He frowned vehemently after hearing that reply. "It's good?"

Fonzo quickly explained himself, "Wait. I don't mean it's a good thing. What I was trying to say is I finally know how I can repay you."

Swiftly, he flipped his palm, took out a small porcelain bottle, and placed it on the table. "This is my family heirloom that is passed down for generations. It can change a person's physique so his or her body could be transformed with the ability to train. But I only have one portion. Please accept this."

"What?"

All the while, Severin never expected Fonzo to return the favor. Little did he know, Fonzo actually possessed this type of treasure.

His plan had been hoping Wuhlrich would find him a treasure that could change a person's physique after he had finished the task Wuhlrich gave him. After that, he could use the treasure to transform Diane's body.

At first, he thought he needed to wait for nine months before he could get his hand on the treasure. Yet,

"Haha. That's why I was happy to hear that. If your wife is gifted, then this treasure is useless. This item is only a treasure if your wife needs it. Haha. I finally find how to repay you."

Fonzo was extremely happy when he passed the porcelain bottle to Severin. "This treasure finally serves its purpose."

Severin accepted and kept it somewhere. He then saluted, "Thank you so much. I can't find any reason to reject this treasure."

Chapter 994

Fonzo smiled. "Mister Severin, I was going to invite you to stay for lunch but since you plan to spend time with your wife, I'm not going to do that."

"We can meet again tonight. I'll spend time with my family later and come find you again tonight. Then we can drink together," Severin suggested after some thinking.

It lit up Fonzo's eyes. "Good! That works. I'll arrange and let's have a wonderful night tonight."

After spending some time together, Severin could tell Fonzo was a nice, friendly, and grateful guy. Someone he would like to be friends with.

They ended the conversation and Severin started the treatment. Several minutes later, Severin put away his tool and stood up. "Mister Fonzo, this treatment is done. I shall leave now and I'll see you tonight."

Fonzo replied, "By the way, where are you staying?"

Severin smiled. "We're here just for a couple of days so we're staying in a hotel."

Fonzo said, "Cancel it. I have a villa and no one is staying there. Bring your family together for dinner tonight and you guys can move into the villa. That way, it'll be easier for you since you need to come here to give me my treatment every day."

It sounded valid and thus, Severin accepted the offer. Thank you. I'll move in together with my family tonight."

"Haha. Good. Come, let me send you out." Fonzo laughed out loud.

"No. You need to rest for at least half an hour after the treatment. Please don't move around," Severin rejected.

"Alright. I won't do that then. Goodbye," Salute waved his hand.

"Goodbye." Severin smiled and walked to the door.

"He's out. He's finally out!" Draven said with much excitement as he had been monitoring the door from the cafe.

"Haha. Stay here and watch how t kill him!"

Meldrick stood up, put on his mask, and strode downstairs.

"Oh, Severin, you still can't escape." Draven smiled evilly as he watched Severin walk out the door.

"Now you know what's the consequences for offending me. You got lucky yesterday but that's not going to happen today."

Severin reached his car. As he was about to get into his car, he saw a man wearing a mask approaching him.

When the man with the mask was close to him, he saw spiritual energy covering the man's fist and the level of spiritual energy was very thick.

"Level two warrior emperor. It looks like he's the fat guy from yesterday. Does he think I can't recognize him just because he's wearing a mask?"

Severin recognized Meldrick from his attainment and body. Instantly, he figured out what was going on. A smile appeared on his face as he mumbled to himself, I guess he doesn't know who he is messing with until I teach him some lesson."

Chapter 995

The mask Meldrick put on his face fully covered his face and only revealed his eyes and mouth.

Despite that, Severin was not an idiot. Based on the attacker's attainment, he had figured everything out. Even though Sofia did not have the intention to kill him, Meldrick did not share the same thought.

"Die!"

Meldrick swung his arm to unleash a spiritual energy beam toward Severin. The spiritual energy beam was very powerful.

Severin sneered. Without any delay, he unleashed his spiritual energy from his body to his fist. As he waved his hand, a spiritual energy beam also shot toward Meldrick.

A loud explosion sound exploded as the two spiritual energy beams colluded together.

“What? The attack did not work?”

After the glaring light disappeared, Meldrick got a shock. He did not hold back on that attack and that definitely was not an attack a level nine warrior king could easily handle. That was why he was shocked to see Severin fight off the attack so can fight back the att

warrior emperor stage too? That’s the only reason to explain how he

At that moment, Meldrick was still in shock. According to his plan, Severin should be dead by now after the attack and he would carry Severin’s body and leave this place immediately.

Yet, things did not go his way.

“No way!”

Draven too was shocked as he witnessed Severin was still alive. His mouth was wide open as he started to doubt if he was imagining things.

“No! No! That’s impossible!”

Meldrick shook his hand. He clenched his fist tightly as he unleashed his spiritual energy to cover his fist. Within a split second of time, he appeared in front of Severin and threw a punch at Severin.

“Do you really think you can kill me?” Severin sneered.

Same as Meldrick. He clenched his fist tightly and covered the fist with his spiritual energy.

Another explosion happened. However, this time, Severin stood firmly where he was and Meldrick got pushed away by the afterforce.

He only stopped after he was several feet away. Blood gushed up his throat and he could not hold it in where he vomited the blood out. The look in his eyes changed immediately. Without any hesitation, he made his move and escaped.

Severin could not be bothered to waste his time to go after Meldrick. After all, Meldrick and Sofia were members of the Stormy Moon Sect and also elite members of the sect. Thus, he thought teaching Meldrick a lesson was sufficient.

“Geez, he runs off so fast.” Severin chuckled and ignored Meldrick.

Chapter 996

The bodyguards that were standing guard at the entrance rushed over. One of them asked, “Mister Severin! Were you hurt?”

Severin patted his palms. "No need to get all worked up. The attacker was just making a fool of themselves. They're no match for me at all. By the way, there's no need for you to tell Mister Fonzo about this. I wouldn't want him to worry about me!"

"Understood, Mister Severin!" The bodyguards nodded immediately.

One of them then stepped forward and said, "Be careful when you're out there, Mister Severin!"

"I'll be all right! Don't worry" Severin nodded, then got into the car and drove away.

Meldrick fled to an alley and took off his mask. His pale complexion had improved a little after he ate a healing pill.

"Darn it! How is he so strong!" A few minutes later, he clenched his fist and said, "This is all Draven's fault. For telling me that this guy is a level nine warrior king. Judging from the punch just now, he most definitely isn't a level nine warrior king!"

Once he finished muttering to himself, his injury had improved slightly more and then he sneakily went back to the coffee shop again.

Upon seeing Meldrick return, Draven immediately came forward and asked concernedly. "Are you okay? Is he too strong for you?"

Meldrick sat down in the chair and said coldly, "Didn't you say he was just a level nine warrior king? Well, I could tell from that single punch earlier that he is definitely not a level nine warrior king! My guess is that he's a level three or level four warrior emperor!"

Draven panicked immediately and exclaimed in surprise. "I... I didn't know that! In that case, no one could be a match for him then! Walbert said that the level eight warrior king and two level seven warrior kings in his family weren't able to hold their own against him! At the time, they felt that Severin's strength was that of a level nine warrior king."

Meldrick sneered. "Then he didn't use his full strength against the Crenshaws' elders then. He doesn't even need to use his full strength to handle those three. He just needs to use the strength of a level nine warrior king against them."

Then, a keen viciousness flashed across Meldrick's eyes. "Severin is cunning. He didn't admit that he was a warrior emperor yesterday, pretended to act weak in front of Sofia, and claimed that he doesn't have good talent and whatnot. In hindsight, I now know that it's all a blatant lie! Sofia won't have a good life if she follows someone like him."

"You're right. He is very sly, and he lied when Miss Sofia asked him what his attainment was. If he said he was a level three warrior emperor, then you wouldn't have caused trouble with him today and ended up getting injured."

Draven nodded immediately and asked again with concern, "How are you feeling now, by the way? Was your injury a serious one?"

Meldrick looked at Draven and said, "Don't worry. My injury isn't that serious. I've already eaten a healing pill. Even though it's a first-grade low-rank pill, it still has a pretty good effect. It'll take probably an hour or so before I'll be fully recovered."

He was still a little traumatized after recalling the incident earlier. "I'm glad I managed to escape fast enough earlier, otherwise I would've ended up dead." Unbeknownst to him, he would have had zero chance of escaping if Severin had genuinely wanted to kill him.

"Sigh, it's all our fault that you were injured. We misjudged the situation!" Draven sighed and blamed himself.

Meldrick then said forgivingly, "You and Walbert aren't to be blamed for this. If anything's to blame, it's Severin's cunningness. Besides, there are only a handful of strong people who have reached the attainment of warrior emperor. By your understanding, the four war gods are the most powerful people you would have ever met, and you would've had the chance of meeting anyone who could be a warrior emperor. It's understandable that you would be under the impression that Severin was just a level nine warrior king."

"Thank you for your understanding!" Draven breathed a sigh of relief when Meldrick did not blame him. "His attainment is much higher than yours, so I guess we can no longer hope to kill him then!"

Chapter 997

After some thought, Meldrick said, "There might still be a way for us to kill Severin. I might not be a match for him, but I trust that a certain someone will be very eager to kill him. Haha! Severin is as good as dead if that person finds him."

Draven was overjoyed when he heard that. "Who is it? Will they help us? You mentioned that they are very eager to kill Severin. Do you mean to say that Severin offended him?"

Meldrick glanced at Draven. After some thought, he finally said slowly, "You don't need to pry. That person definitely has a grudge against Severin. I'm confident that he'll look for Severin once I tell him about this. Anyway, let's leave it at that for now. We'll be heading back tomorrow. Even though I'm no match for Severin, I'm pretty sure that person can kill him."

Draven stood up and said to Meldrick, "Would you like to go to the place I told you about? There are plenty of pretty girls there!"

Meldrick, however, turned down the offer. "No thanks. I wanted to celebrate after killing Severin, but I'm not in the mood for any of that now."

"Okay then." Draven immediately went to foot the bill and left with Meldrick.

After leaving the place, Severin decided not to tell Diane about what happened because he did not want Diane to get worried. As soon as he arrived at the hotel, Diane and the others had already dressed up. They were waiting for him in the plaza downstairs.

"We were all waiting for you to arrive, Brother-in-Law!" Seeing Severin come back, Megan said happily. Severin walked over with a smile. "So, where do all of you plan to have fun today?"

Diane smiled. "Megan said that there's an amusement park that we can spend the day at, and once we're done there, we can head to a nearby farmhouse for a meal and come back sometime around the evening."

Severin nodded and said with a smile. "Sure thing. But I'll drive right to Fonzo's place once we're done for the day. He has an empty villa, so we'll be staying with him for three days. That way, I don't have to go back and forth every single day. I can pay more attention to his treatment."

"Really? Well, that's great to hear! At least he knows how to show his gratitude!" Megan said with a smile.

Felicia smiled as well and said, "Well, Severin did cure his limp. I think it's only just for him to show his thanks. At least a hundred million or so dollars will be fine."

Severin smiled wryly. "It's not like we have any shortage of money. Besides, he has repaid my kindness and gave me his family treasure!"

"Treasure? What sort of treasure?" Felicia's eyes lit up and she looked eagerly at Severin when he heard that there were treasures.

Severin did not know how to react to that. "It's for Diane, not you."

"For me? What kind of treasure is it? Now I'm getting curious!" Diane then smiled. "Judging from how happy you look, I bet they're really amazing!"

Severin smiled and said, "Of course, they are! I've been given something that can help you change your attainment talent. It's a single drop of millennia-old spiritual liquid."

"Do you have any more of that, Brother-in-Law? I want some too!" Megan asked, tugging Severin's arm.

Sheila was equally surprised to hear what the treasure was and said to Severin, "Could you give me some too?"

Severin smiled wryly. "I'm sorry, but there's only one drop. It's enough for only one person. Diane will get it first."

Megan immediately released Severin's arm in disappointment. She pouted and said, "Sigh, why did they only give you one drop? Diane's so lucky!"

Sheila was not as disappointed as Megan was, and she simply smiled at Diane. "I'm glad you can finally change your attainment talent, Diane. You'll be able to start training in no time!"

Chapter 998

Severin smiled and said, "Don't worry, everyone. I'll continue to help you find other treasures that can change your attainment talent. Securing this was incredibly difficult, but it's all thanks to Fonzo's generosity that he decided to give it to me. This is proof that other similar treasures exist in this world, and I will secure them for you when the time comes."

"You need to keep your word, okay? We're relying on you to find it!" Megan's immediately jumped for joy. Promise me that the next one you get will be mine!"

Severin smiled wryly. "Okay, okay. The next one will be yours, and the one after that will be Sheila's!"

After hearing that, Sheila felt a little tingly with joy because it showed that she had a place in Severin's heart.

"Thank you, handsome!" Sheila lowered her head slightly and smiled sweetly.

"No thanks necessary, you're practically one of our own now!" Severin remarked casually.

When Megan heard his remark, she immediately said Jokingly to Sheila, "Did you hear that? He said that you're 'one of our own now'. You understand what that means, right? It means you're going to be a part of this family in the future."

Sheila felt a gush of emotions in her heart and she could not help but glance up and steal a glance at Severin. Her feminine shyness was displayed vividly at that moment.

"Enough with that nonsense, Megan!" Severin said, glaring at Megan.

Megan did not fear him at all, and she merely raised her head to say, "Hmph, it's not nonsense! Saying that she's 'one of our own' is practically the same as saying she's 'family'."

"Fine. I won't argue with you. It's time we set off." Severin ignored Megan and walked straight to the car.

"Awesome! We can stay here for a few more days and continue to have some fun!" Lillie remarked happily to Wendy and the girls.

Severin looked at them and said, "By the way, don't forget to let me know if you run out of pills when your attainment becomes more stable. I'll give you more so you can continue to improve your attainment. Make sure to raise it as high as you can."

"Don't worry, sir! We'd definitely ask about it from you! Wendy said with a smile.

Severin then brought all of them out to enjoy themselves.

By late afternoon, he arrived with everyone at Fonzo's residence. He had just parked his car when Fonzo brought Mae-Lynne and others out to greet him.

"Haha, Mister Severin! You're finally here." Fonzo laughed and said gleefully, "Look! I don't even need to use crutches anymore and I can walk perfectly fine without any help."

Severin nodded. "You can start walking without help now, but don't overdo it just yet. You'll need another three days to recover fully!"

"Let's head in and have dinner. Everything's ready, and we're all just waiting for you to arrive." Fonzo smiled and led Severin and the others inside.

Chapter 999

Fonzo was a very hospitable and straightforward person. Dinner with him was a relaxing affair.

Severin chatted with Fonzo over dinner, and a sudden thought prompted Severin to ask, "By the way, Mister Fonzo, I wonder if you might know any of the underground forces within your jurisdiction?"

“Underground forces? I’m afraid I don’t know a lot about these organizations because I rarely pay attention to them!” Fonzo frowned. He then asked curiously, “What makes you interested in them, Mister Severin?”

Severin picked up the red wine in front of him, drank it in one gulp, and said, “I was planning to locate several groups that are named after the animals in the oriental zodiac, but in Latin. For example, Draco, Tigris, and Equus. They must also call themselves a ‘hall’ rather than a ‘gang’.”

“What about Canis Hall?” Mae-Lynne blurted out. “I do remember hearing something like that before.”

“That’s exactly the kind of organization I’m looking for!” Severin was overjoyed when he heard that. “Do you know where this Canis Hall is, Miss Mae-Lynne?”

Mae-Lynne smiled and said, “I overheard a conversation about Canis Hall when I was in Wymount City. That was probably about two years ago.” After a pause, she continued, “I remember it clearly because the name sounded very unique. I wondered to myself who would give such an ugly name to an organization. I nearly laughed when I heard that.”

After explaining how she came to know about Canis Hall, Mae-Lynne’s smile disappeared when she had a sudden thought. She looked at Severin a little conflictedly. “What business do you have with this group. Mister Severin? Why are you searching for them?”

Severin smiled awkwardly. “Ahem, they all belong under a single organization, and I just want to make sure that they return to that organization. It’s as simple as that.”

He then poured himself another glass of red wine, raised it, and said to Mae-Lynne, “Here’s to you, Miss Mae-Lynne. Thank you very much for letting me know that they’re in Wymount City. I will have a much easier time finding them, so thanks again.”

After Mae-Lynne shared a toast with Severin, she said to him, “That’s not necessary! You’re one of our own now, so there’s no need to be so polite.”

Severin nearly choked on his drink when he heard that. Megan’s ridiculous explanation of the phrase one. of our own’ earlier that morning made him prone to understanding those words as Megan did.

Upon seeing that Severin nearly choked on his drink, he could not help but cover her mouth and giggle. Severin drank a lot that night because he was elated to learn about Canis Hall’s whereabouts. Meanwhile, Fonzo’s family-including the elders and several of Fonzo’s wives-drunk enthusiastically with him and ended up getting him drunk. Diane and Sheila had to help him up to the room upstairs.

“I can’t believe he could get drunk when his alcohol tolerance is so high.” Diane could not help but shake her head and smile wryly when she saw Severin passing out from drinking too much.

Sheila smiled and said, “He can’t help it, I think. He’s probably super happy to find out the whereabouts of Canis Hall, and Fonzo’s family had drunk really enthusiastically too. As if it wasn’t enough that all seven of Fonzo’s wives came to raise a glass to him, Fonzo’s sons toasted him right after too! Even with his high alcohol tolerance, he’s bound to get drunk after that.”

Diane nodded. "You're right. Fonzo is understandably very happy too. After all, his legs are finally healed, and he can walk without help now! Anyone who is in his position will be happy, of course! Severin is like a savior to them."

Chapter 1000

"You're right. Anyway, I'm feeling a little sleepy right now, so I'm going to head to bed. You should go to sleep soon too!" Sheila smiled and walked out.

Diane glanced at the soundly-sleeping Severin before going to take a bath. After she was done bathing, she lay down beside him and dozed off.

Severin woke up in the middle of the night because he had to use the toilet. He walked out in a daze, emptied his bladder in the toilet, and returned to the room to continue sleeping.

"Kyaaaaaa!" Sheila screamed in fright when she woke up and saw a man sleeping beside her the next morning. Once she realized that it was Severin, her shock changed instantly into joy. She thought to herself, 'Maybe he wanted something to happen between us last night because he likes me!'

The scream woke Severin up, and he opened his eyes in a daze before finally realizing that Sheila was beside him. He sat up immediately in fright and asked her, "Why are you in my room?"

Sheila was speechless. "Take a good look around. This is my room! Aren't you supposed to be sharing a room with Diane?"

Severin scratched his head before finally realizing vaguely that he woke up last night to use the toilet. "I... I must've entered the wrong room!"

He got off the bed in embarrassment and had a complicated expression. As he looked at Sheila's sexy figure and beautiful nightdress, he could not help but smile wryly and ask, "I didn't do anything to you last night, did I?"

Sheila lowered her head bashfully. "I... I don't know. As soon as I woke up, I found you lying next to me with your hands on my body. But if you ask me whether or not you kissed me... Then I'm afraid I can't say. for sure."

Severin felt ashamed. He placed his arms around Sheila because he mistook her for Diane, and he did not expect Sheila to be so blunt about it.

"It doesn't change the fact that you slept with me! Since neither of us know what you were up to last night and whether or not you did anything to me, you need to take responsibility for what you did!" Sheila pouted and stole a glance at him.

Severin was speechless when he heard that. "Why didn't you lock your room door? If it was locked, I wouldn't have entered the wrong room after getting up last night to use the toilet!"

Sheila glared at Severin and said, "I forgot to lock it because my head was buzzing from all the wine last night. I didn't expect you to come in and sleep on my bed!"

At that moment, Diane heard the ruckus and came over in a nightgown top.

She had a slight frown when she opened the door. "I was wondering why you weren't beside me when I woke up in the middle of the night. I thought you went to make some pills in another room because you were worried about disturbing me while I was sleeping. I didn't expect you to go to Sheila's room!"

Severin was speechless for a moment, but he soon explained to Diane in a hurry, "I was a little wasted last night, Diane! I got up to use the toilet, and I ended up entering Sheila's room by mistake after I was done. I'm pretty sure I didn't do anything!"
