

After Prison 1011

Chapter 1011

Ronnie then said without any hesitation, "I do. I've been wanting to get revenge since the day I knew of Brandon's death! If I ever find out the identity of the person who killed my son, I'll slice him up without a second thought!"

Following a brief pause, Ronnie added emphatically, "I can't call myself a father if I don't avenge my son!"

Meldrick then immediately reminded him. "But you must promise me that you can never tell anyone that I told you about this."

"I promise I won't tell a soul." Ronnie raised his hand and swore solemnly.

Meldrick then said, "Okay. That practitioner's name is Severin Feuillet!"

"Severin Feuillet?" Ronnie frowned when he heard that. "Other people might share the same name as he does, and he is an unaffiliated practitioner too. It would be like finding a needle in a haystack if we don't know which city to start the search." Ronnie then seemed to have thought of something as he asked Meldrick, "Do you know where this Severin person lives? How did you even find out about him?"

"We met him when we went to Skystream City. He's the one who killed four of our disciples." Meldrick smiled drily.

When Ronnie heard this, he said, "Why didn't you kill him then if he killed our sect's disciples? Is your attainment weaker than his?"

Meldrick had a bitter smile as he said, "I was about to kill him when Sofia stopped me. She regarded him as a lifesaver after he killed Brandon, and I didn't have a choice because she prevented me from killing him! I tried to kill him without Sofia's knowledge sometime later, but after I attempted that, I realized that my strength is still far behind him even though he's an unaffiliated practitioner!"

"I'm surprised that a powerhouse that is stronger than a level two warrior emperor such as yourself exists in normal society! He must be a person of high status then!" Ronnie frowned and could not help but take a guess.

"He injured me when I punched him, so I immediately made my escape and fled the scene. I'm guessing he's a level three or level four warrior emperor. You're right in guessing that he isn't an ordinary person. He's also the governor of the South County, one of four counties in Skystream Province. His current place of residence is South Link City. I'm sure you'll have no trouble finding him if you head there."

After explaining everything, Meldrick stood up and said, "I've told you everything I know, Mister Ronnie, so whether or not you want to avenge your son is up to you now." He then excused himself.

"So, this Severin guy is the governor of the South County, and he's staying at South Link City?" A murderous intent appeared in Ronnie's eyes. He stood up, clenched his fists, and said, "I'll avenge you soon, Brandon."

The next morning, Ronnie sought out the grand-elder and informed him, "I have some matters to attend to, Grand-Elder. I'll be back in about a week!"

The grand-elder looked at Ronnie and asked, "Is something wrong?"

Ronnie smiled wryly and said, "I'm still feeling depressed even though Brandon has been dead for a while. Now I drink every day to try and numb myself with the alcohol, so I thought about taking some time to relax. I'll treat this as a holiday."

The grand-elder nodded, patted Ronnie on the shoulder, and said, "We can't resurrect those who have passed on. I think it's good for you to relax a bit and come to terms with what's happened."

"Thank you for your concern, grand-elder." Ronnie gestured respectfully and flew away.

During that time, Severin and the others were on their way home. However, they all treated the journey home as yet another road trip and followed the route that Megan planned. It went without saying that she had chosen to return using a different route than the one they took to Skystream City.

After more than two days on the road, they finally returned to South Link City.

"They're back!" exclaimed a bodyguard.

Chapter 1012

Many bodyguards got excited when they saw Severin return.

"Oh, has my son finally arrived back home?" When Maurice and Judith heard that their son had returned, they immediately came out of the villa to greet him.

"I'm glad to see you're all safe and sound!" Catherine was also all smiles after seeing that everyone had returned.

On the other hand, William was a little taken aback when he saw Megan and Benjamin holding hands so intimately. He pointed at them and asked, "What's going on with you two? Why are you holding hands?" "Isn't it obvious, Dad?" Megan turned shy and lowered her head involuntarily. "Mom already said yes!"

"Haha, well, you've got yourself a boyfriend at last! I was worried that your standards are so high that you won't be able to find a boyfriend and get married!" William remarked with a hearty laugh, much to Megan's chagrin.

She rolled her eyes at William and said, "What are you talking about? Why wouldn't I be able to get married? Besides, Benjamin here is the son of South Link City's mayor! Are you saying that he isn't up to my standard?"

"Haha, not at all, not at all! If your mother consented, then it's all the more reason for me to consent too." William laughed cheerfully.

"I never thought our family will be blessed with this great news!" Catherine remarked happily.

To her surprise, Megan came forward and said with a smile, "There's more what that came from, Grandma. Sheila will soon become Severin's second wife!"

Sheila blushed and lowered her head.

"Haha, of course! By all means!" The old lady was even happier and grinned from ear to ear.

The Shanahans had plenty to celebrate that day after coming so far. They used to be a third-tier family in a small place like Brookbourn, and they could only dream of establishing connections with the daughter of the city's mayor.

However, their son-in-law had since been able to marry such a woman, and she would be marrying into a very wealthy family too. The Shanahans were progressing at a rate that was so much different from that of the past.

Severin's six beautiful bodyguards could not help but look at Sheila with envy. After all, a man like Severin was a near-perfect existence who excelled in almost every aspect. Any woman would be happy to marry a man like that.

"Yay! Mom and Dad are back!" At this moment, Selene also ran over and threw herself happily into Severin's arms.

"Look, Selene! I bought you a doll!" Sheila smiled, took out a doll from the car, and walked over..

"Thank you, Aunt Sheila!" Selene hugged the doll and smiled happily.

Sheila then asked, "Did you miss me?"

"I did!" Selene exclaimed gleefully. "I like it when you bring me out to play and train!"

Megan then smiled and said, "She'll be your second mommy from now on, so you can call her Mommy Sheila!"

Chapter 1013

Everyone was in a jovial mood after Severin and the others returned, so they all went to have dinner at a 'hotel to celebrate.

When night fell, Severin took out his materials and refined some pills in his room.

Although he already knew which city Canis Hall was in, he was in no hurry to locate them. Instead, he planned to spend a few days refining some pills for the hall masters as well as Lillie and the girls. After all, their attainment would have already stabilized during the past few days. If Severin gave them pills, then he could save a lot of time. They could train during his absence and improve their attainment while waiting for his return.

In particular, Larry, Mick, Gracie, and Rachel still had much to improve. After all, Severin would only be one step closer to his goal if they became stronger.

Severin spent another night refining five pills, and he did not take a break the next morning either. He continued to refine more pills and produced another eight. As he kept refining the pills, the success rate of those second-grade high-rank pills was increasing too.

He sighed when he looked at the remaining materials. "I'm glad my uncle-master provided a lot of materials, and I'm also thankful that my talent in alchemy is decent enough that I didn't have to waste too many materials when I first started trying out alchemy. Otherwise, I would've run out of materials to use."

Another day soon passed, and Severin had produced a total of 35 second-grade high-rank pills over the course of forty-eight hours. Anyone who knew that he could successfully produce so many pills in just two days would be shocked, especially if they found out that they were all second-grade high-rank pills. Even a single pill is a treasure that would be coveted by the strongest warrior kings.

The several halls that Severin had located developed rather well in that time frame. Although there some of them had internal disputes in the beginning, they behaved themselves as soon as they learned that their backer was South County Mansion. Of course, there were never any disputes in Draco Hall, Mus Hall, or Serpent Hall because Severin had told them not to stir up any trouble.

Severin finally called Wendy and the girls over to meet him on the third morning.

"Your attainment has improved a lot, and you're quite a stable level five warrior king," Severin said with a smile as he looked at the six young, domineering beauties in front of him.

Kiera smiled. "You're not going to give us pills again, are you? The speed at which you refine all these pills. is simply insane!"

Severin smiled and said, "That's right. I will be giving you more pills, and this time they're second-grade high-rank pills."

"Second-grade high-rank? That sounds awesome! This will help us improve so much more than just one level, right?"

The girls were all very excited when they heard that. If they received such a pill, then they would become almost unstoppable in a place like South Link City even though that might not be the case in other cities. South Link City may be huge, but it can never compare with Skystream City in terms of prosperity.

Severin nodded. "I can tell that Wendy's attainment should be about peak-stage level five warrior king. If she consumes this second-grade high-rank pill, she probably stands a good chance of securing a breakthrough to level eight warrior king. As for the rest of you, you're all at intermediate-stage level five warrior king, so the most you can make a breakthrough is to level seven warrior king."

"We're more than happy with that, sir! I don't know how I can even thank you for giving us these pills!"

Abigail said excitedly, and everyone else was just as happy too.

Beside them, Naomi covered her mouth with a snicker and said, "Well, if you don't know how to thank him, then you can always pledge your heart and soul to him. Haven't you seen those TV shows where the girl offers herself to the man because she doesn't have any way of repaying him?"

Abigail blushed as soon as Naomi made that remark.

Chapter 1014

At that moment, Abigail rolled her eyes. "What are you talking about, Naomi?"

"I'm just kidding! Look at you blushing so hard!" Naomi said with a smile.

Severin felt a little embarrassed when the women said that. He cleared his throat and pretended not to hear their conversation. With his mental abilities, he levitated six pills in front of everyone. "You may take one each at random. There's no need to argue over which pill is better than the other."

"Why would we do that? We're more than happy to get this pill, and we're already very grateful that you could give them to us," Kiera said with a smile.

The girls thanked him one after another and carefully put away their respective pills.

Severin nodded with satisfaction and said, "I'll be leaving for Wymount City in two days, so I'll leave the safety of the mansion in your hands."

Lillie immediately patted her chest and assured him. "You don't need to worry so much on your trip. This pill will make us all level seven warrior kings at the very least, and we might even be strong enough to leapfrog higher-level opponents! The mansion will be in safe hands!"

"Yes, you don't need to be so worried! We'll take care of everyone here!" Wendy said immediately.

Severin nodded. "Okay then, that will be all for today. Don't forget to send someone to inform all the hall masters that I want to meet them."

"Yes, sir!" The bodyguards answered in unison.

"Come out here, Severin!" At that moment, however, a middle-aged man flew over and glared down at him from the sky.

"Is he on a suicide mission or something?"

"He must be insane to just break into the mansion like that!"

"Does he have a death wish?"

Many of the bodyguards flew into the air too.

"Come back down here!" Severin called out and instructed all his bodyguards to come down.

"Sir! He's trespassing on your property!" A bodyguard said while glaring at the intruder.

Severin nodded. "I'm aware of that, but you're no match for him, even if you attack him all at once!"

Lillie frowned and felt a powerful murderous aura from the raging stranger.

"He's strong. Very strong!" Wendy remarked after looking at the man.

Chapter 1015

"Which one of you is Severin? Come out here and let me kill you, or else I will destroy this place and kill everyone here!" The intruder said angrily as he gazed down.

Everyone in the mansion was frightened, and they all ran out to see who was it that made such a ruckus.

"I will spare everyone else if you show yourself and let me kill you to avenge my son. I'm going to count to ten, and I'll go on a killing spree if you don't come out by then!" the middle-aged man said again.

Severin smiled. In a quick dash, he flew to a height of nearly a hundred meters and stood in front of the man.

"Don't bother counting. It's only going to waste more time!" Severin said while looking at the other party. The man narrowed his eyes. "Are you the one who killed my son?"

Severin smiled bitterly. "Sorry, but I've lost count of how many people I killed. Which one of them is your son?"

The middle-aged man's lips twitched a couple of times. He glared at Severin and said, "Then I'll make sure you remember our names when you die today. My name is Ronnie, and my son's name is Brandon." Severin did not pay much attention when he killed Brandon, and he had already forgotten that name. After thinking for a while, he frowned and asked with a puzzled look, "Who is Brandon? Can you be more specific?"

"You don't know who Brandon is? Then I'll remind you again. He's a disciple of the Stormy Moon Sect, and I am the sect's protector!" a strong fluctuation of spiritual energy gushed out from his fist when he said. that.

"Are you able to tell the intruder's attainment level from the spiritual energy that he produced?" Lillie asked Wendy.

Wendy looked carefully and said, "His attainment is high... very high. I'm guessing he's a level seven warrior emperor. I wonder if Mister Severin will be strong enough to go against him."

Diane, Megan, and the others had rushed over by then Diane had a fearful look when she heard Wendy's words. "A level seven warrior emperor? Is the intruder's attainment that high? This doesn't look good. I didn't think the Stormy Moon Sect's protector would be so strong."

"What are we supposed to do? We lose our position as South County Mansion if Severin is dead." Felicia had a worried expression because she knew what sort of disaster would befall them if Severin was killed.

"Don't say that, Mom! We have to trust him!" Megan insisted despite feeling a little less than confident.

Chapter 1016

Sheila clenched her hands unconsciously and had an extremely solemn expression on her face. "He's too strong. Severin might be able to handle a level one or a level two warrior emperor, but this is a level seven warrior emperor we're talking about here! How did the guy know where to find Severin? When did Severin kill his son?"

"Is your son one of the four Stormy Moon Sect disciples that I killed in Skystream City? I recall Sofia assuring me that she wouldn't report this issue to the sect when she returned. She said that the sect won't try and cause trouble to me anymore."

Severin then thought for a moment before saying, "Aha! I get it now. You didn't listen to the sect, did you? You sneaked out, and now you're trying to avenge your son by killing me!"

After a pause, Severin continued, "I bet no one would ever find out if I killed you right now. Then the Stormy Moon Sect won't trouble me again."

Ronnie's body was trembling with anger. He did not expect that Severin still did not know who Brandon was even after he mentioned Brandon's name. He felt powerless to do anything about it because it was as if he was talking to a wall. His face was extremely gloomy as he said, "Brandon is the young man that you killed to save Sofia. He's a talented level eight warrior king. You should know by now who he is, right? I'm here to avenge him."

He then sneered and said, "You have a big mouth, kid. I came to get revenge behind the sect's back because this is personal grudge that I'm holding against you. It has nothing to do with the sect, or the four disciples who died in Skystream City. Understand?"

Severin finally had a realization. "Oh, I see! You're the father of that pervert, then? He drugged Miss Sofia and wanted to force himself on her before killing her. If you're here to avenge an animal like him, then you're no better either. You must've been the one who spoiled your son to the point where he wouldn't even hesitate to do something so heinous?"

Severin's words made Ronnie's face turn blue, and then pale with anger. He glared at Severin and said, "How dare you call my son an animal! I didn't intend to kill your family today, but I've decided not to spare them now that you've pissed me off."

Upon hearing that, Stanley nearly fainted from the fear. He immediately stepped out from the crowd and shouted to Ronnie, "How can you do something like that? You said that you won't do anything to my cousin-in-law's family if he shows himself, but now you're going back on your word! You can't do that!"

George also echoed in agreement. "Yeah! If you have a problem with him, then take it up with him instead of with other innocent people! We're all ordinary people here, and I don't even have even the slightest attainment foundation!"

Ronnie looked down with a sneer. "Don't blame me for this. If anyone's to blame, it's Severin. He doesn't show any remorse, and he doesn't seem to want to kneel and beg me to let his family go either. To make things worse, he pissed me off by calling my son an animal! If you want to blame someone, blame him!"

After Ronnie finished speaking, he did not say anything further and immediately attacked Severin. "Time to end your life! Roaring Tiger Punch!"

Ronnie bellowed and manifested a giant ten-foot-tall tiger in thin air from his spiritual energy.

"Is that the technique of a level seven warrior emperor? It's frighteningly strong!" Lillie and the others immediately turned pale with fright. They had never seen such a domineering attack before.

"Mister Severin is very strong, but I'm beginning to wonder if he can handle that opponent!" Naomi had a serious look on her face because she knew everyone would be dead in a matter of minutes if Severin was defeated. No one else would be able to face such a strong attack.

“Your attainment is worthy of praise, but it’s very unfortunate that you had to meet me.” With a wave of his palm, Severin took out the Blood Fiend Sword that Wullricht had given him. As he injected spiritual energy into the weapon, it glowed radiantly with a blood-red light and produced a faint buzzing cry.

Chapter 1017

“Is that a spiritual weapon?” Ronnie looked at the sword carefully and was overjoyed. “This is a rather high-grade spiritual weapon. The one I’m holding is only first-grade. Yours is probably eighth-grade or ninth-grade, I believe?”

Ronnie became increasingly jealous as he looked at the sword in Severin’s hand. “This is perfect! Your sword will be mine after you die! This is a rather welcome surprise. You may have other treasures on you, too, and I can’t wait to get all of them once you’re dead.”

Severin merely smiled coldly when he saw Ronnie’s excited expression. “Hehe, keep dreaming! Will you even be alive to take this from me?”

He then injected more spiritual energy into the sword and immediately swung it in front of Ronnie.

“Rose-Petal Rain!” Severin yelled. A bunch of rose petals immediately appeared, and each of them was about the size of a palm. There were as many as a hundred of those rose petals floating in front of him. “What a beautiful technique.” Lillie’s eyes lit up when she saw it.

Diane said, “It might be beautiful, but we don’t know if it’s going to work.”

Sheila looked at Lillie and the girls before asking, “Wendy, Lillie, can you or any of the other girls tell what Severin’s attainment level is? Is he as strong as his opponent?”

Wendy looked at her carefully before shaking her head. “No, unfortunately. He’s strong enough to conceal the fluctuations of his spiritual energy, yet it’s also solid enough that he could condense them into those petals. All I can tell you is that the petals are beautiful, but I’m not sure just how much spiritual energy is contained within them. I just hope Severin can win!”

“He needs to win! We’ll die if he doesn’t!” Stanley was so frightened that he almost cried as he prayed while looking at the two people in the air.

“Hehe, what can these petals do?” Ronnie looked at them, smiling.

“I didn’t want to produce so many petals, but I thought it looked better this way. I previously only trained this technique to starting-stage and was only able to cast ten petals. Now I can produce a hundred petals. after raising it to intermediate-stage.”

Severin smiled, paused for a while, and continued, “I’m pretty sure that ten petals will be enough to deal with you, but I’m going to use a hundred petals to test the true power of this technique.”

Ronnie gritted his teeth angrily. “You make it sound as if you’re using a sledgehammer to crack a nut.”

Severin snickered. "If you want to compare yourself to a nut, then be my guest."

"You..." Ronnie erupted in a rage after hearing that. He pointed at Severin and said to the tiger, "Kill him. I want to know whether those petals or my tiger is stronger!"

The ten-foot tall spiritual tiger let out a deafening roar and charged forth with a terrifying force.

"Its momentum is too strong. Will those petals even be able to withstand it?" Catherine was very worried. That was her first time feeling so nervous.

"Go forth!" Severin remained indifferent. He waved his hand slightly and directed the petals toward the tiger.

The petals exploded not upon contact, but upon attaching themselves to the tiger. A flurry of explosions was heard, and the blinding rays of light forced some people to close their eyes.

Chapter 1018

When the light dissipated, Ronnie discovered that his giant tiger was completely destroyed and turned into dust. "How is that possible?!"

Only ten of Severin's petals were used on the tiger, and the rest continued to float forward as they headed straight for him.

"This is bad!" The petals were clearly some distance away, but they appeared in front of him within seconds. It was almost like an illusion. They brought a sense of confusion to anyone in Ronnie's position, and the speed at which they traveled through the air was incredibly fast.

By the time he turned to flee after realizing that something was amiss, he discovered that it was already too late for him to go anywhere. The petals surrounded him like a swarm of locusts, sealing off all avenues of escape.

"Sorry, but you've been surrounded! Hehe!" Severin chuckled and was very satisfied with the strength of that technique.

Judging from his trial run, he would have had no issues facing several people if he used that technique. "Why is this technique so unlike all the others? These petals contain a very strong power even though they don't look lethal! Worse still, he can produce so many petals at the same time!" Ronnie's complexion did not look too good, and cold sweat had begun to drop from his forehead before he knew it.

"Time for you to meet your end. Don't even think about killing my family if you can't go through me." Severin could not be bothered to entertain his nonsense and immediately motioned the petals to stick to him.

"Wait! No!" Death seemed to be knocking right on Ronnie's door, and he screamed in fright as he formed a thin protective shield around his body. Unfortunately, the petals would almost certainly destroy that protective shield if it could destroy his Roaring Tiger Punch.

Ronnie's spiritual energy shield was destroyed in an instant, and a few rose petals stuck to his body before blowing him into pieces. More than half of the rose petals remained unused. Severin's channeled his thoughts and dispelled most of them, but he saved a few and sent them flying straight toward Stanley.

Stanley was overcome with fear when he saw that, and he broke out in a cold sweat while begging hurriedly for mercy. “W-w-what’s all this, S-S-Severin? I’m not the enemy here. What’s gotten into you? Isn’t that intruder dead already? Are you feeling so bloodthirsty that you want to kill your own family?”

George was just as frightened as he said, “Are you nuts, Severin? He’s your cousin-in-law!”

Severin flew down, stood nearby, and said with a slight smile, “Who told that guy to take it up with me?”

“I’m sorry! I’m not afraid of death, but I don’t think we deserve to die.” Stanley said meekly and was almost on the verge of crying.

Severin snapped his fingers and dispelled the petals. “I’m kidding! Look at how scared you are!”

“P-p-please don’t make such jokes anymore. I would’ve died from fright!” Stanley took a step forward, but his legs were so weak that he nearly collapsed to the ground.

Chapter 1019

“He won! Hooray!” Lillie and the others were still feeling a little shocked, and it was almost like a dream to her.

They could not believe their eyes after witnessing Severin kill a level seven warrior emperor with such ease. Judging from the number of rose petals earlier, they felt that he could have easily handled seven or eight people with the same attainment level as the intruder.

“Awesome! Our governor won!” The other bodyguards jumped up for joy too. They had finally understood just how strong their employer was.

“You’re too strong, sir! Too strong! You’re amazing!” Wendy said excitedly. “The battle that you had with the guy is very insightful, and it will help us a lot in our future training. We’re very lucky to have witnessed a battle between two strong men!”

Severin smiled wryly. “Don’t just stand there and praise me. Round up some bodyguards to clean up the mess!”

After giving them some instructions, he walked over to the crowd and said, “Don’t be scared. His attainment isn’t very high, and he was never a match for me at all!”

Everyone was speechless. The intruder was the protector of a sect and a level seven warrior emperor powerhouse. However, Severin downplayed both the guy’s abilities and the situation too.

“Here’s his spatial ring, sir!” One of the bodyguards in charge of cleaning up the mess ran over and handed Ronnie’s spatial ring to Severin.

Severin took the ring and smiled. “I almost forgot that we can get a bounty from him. Hehe. His attainment was pretty decent, so I’m sure there will be some valuable things inside here.” As he said that, his eyes lit up when he thought of something. "I remember him saying that he has a first-grade spiritual weapon. Perhaps I can use that in future battles. My Blood Fiend Sword is too strong, and it'll be too flashy to use it too. I think it's best not to use that unless I run into a truly powerful opponent!" Everyone then made their way back in. The Shanahans had become more confident in Severin's ability after witnessing his prowess earlier. There was no need to worry about whether or not the Stormy Moon Sect would try and cause trouble with their family again. After all, he sneaked out from the sect to take revenge, and the sect probably did not know anything about his actions.

After a while, Wendy and the girls had called over the five hall masters.

"When did you return? It's great to have you back!" Larry was happy to see that Severin had returned. "I've already broken through to level three warrior king!"

Severin glanced at Larry and nodded in satisfaction. "Not bad! Mick and Gracie have already broken through to the level three warrior king too, I believe."

"I'm sorry, sir, but we haven't located any of the other halls in the time that you weren't around. Dracodom is simply too big." Gracie smiled bitterly and said regretfully to Severin.

Chapter 1020

Severin smiled and said, "Don't worry. If we've already searched the South County thoroughly, we can always start a new search in the other counties. If we still can't find them anywhere in the Skystream Province, then we can move on to the Skydra Province and other provinces too. I trust that there will be some information about those halls even if they had been wiped out."

After saying that, he went on to his main order of business. "I came to you today to give each of you two pills. It should be enough to raise your attainment quite significantly, and you'll probably be able to make a breakthrough to level seven or level eight warrior king.

"No way! Will we really have such a huge breakthrough? Rachel's mouth opened wide and she wondered if she had misheard him. She was a level five warrior king, and she could not have been able to make a breakthrough to level eight even if she had a second-grade medium-rank pill. She had the highest attainment among the five people there, and she believed that she would likely be the first one who could break to level eight.

Severin smiled, waved his hand, and levitated ten pills in front of all of them.

"Each of you gets two pills. You'll make a breakthrough after eating a pill, and you can take the second pill after your subsequent breakthrough has stabilized. Make sure that you've stabilized it though. I can't say much about the other halls that I haven't located, but I'm confident all of you will achieve it in due time." Severin smiled and said to them.

"Wait a second! This isn't a second-grade medium-rank pill... it's a second-grade high-rank pill!" Zoheb's voice trembled with excitement as he looked at the pill in his hand.

"You're right! It is a second-grade high-rank pill! Did you already break through to second-grade high-rank alchemist, Supreme Leader? That's the only possible explanation as to how you were able to get so many pills at once!" Mick was feeling very excited too. He and the other hall masters used to worry about whether or not they would be able to make a breakthrough to the attainment level Severin mentioned within a year. With those pills, they might even be able to exceed the target instead of merely reaching it. Severin nodded. "I have. Once the breakthrough has been made, you'll won't need to fear anyone in South Link City anymore. I've found out that Canis Hall is in Wymount City, so I'll be taking a trip there soon. Remember to train while I'm gone."

"That's amazing news! Another comrade will soon join us!" Larry could not help his joy.

"Wymount City is a little far from here. If I recall, it's within the jurisdiction of the West County." Gracie said after some thought.

Severin nodded. "Yes. It's in the West County. I attended the birthday banquet of the province governor the other day and met the West County's governor. I casually slotted in a question about the halls during our conversation, and his daughter mentioned the existence of Canis Hall. She remembered the name because it was unique and stood out to her."

The five of them exchanges glances and could not help but smile at each other. Some of the halls' names, such as Tigris Hall and Draco Hall, did not sound too off-putting. However, names such as Canis Hall and Sus Hall were a little less pleasant to the ear.

"You may rest assured that we will immediately come to the county mansion's aid if anything happens over here." Rachel smiled at Severin.

Severin nodded. "Don't forget to train hard! My six female bodyguards will catch up to all of you soon."