

After Prison 181

Chapter 181

After hearing that, the expression on the saleswoman's face changed a little. She thought she was about to close a sale seeing how generous Severin and Queenie were when they were considering buying one unit.

The moment she knew they did not have the money and were just window shopping struck her. If that was real, Severin and Queenie were just wasting her time.

"What? She is a B-girl? Ferid, luckily you did not pick her. Otherwise, you are going to regret it for the rest of your life. You can never tell if she would accompany some rich kids after her shift or not," Faye expressed her opinion in a weird tone with her eyes looking contemptuous at Queenie.

Immediately after that, she added, "Are you her boyfriend? If you are, I advise you better break up with her as soon as possible. She must have slept with many men!"

Severin could not tolerate it anymore after hearing that. He stepped forward and slapped Faye.

"Good job!" Queenie was going to do it but Severin beat her to it. She felt extremely satisfied seeing Faye getting slapped.

It was not like she wanted to work in the bar if she had a choice. Regardless of that, she would never use her body in exchange for money. Indeed, there were many times when she was tempted. Nevertheless, she turned all the offers down every time. The thing Faye said had gone way over her boundary and she was really infuriated by it.

"You-you slapped me??" Faye covered a side of her face with her hand and looked in disbelief.

"Queenie is my cousin! So apologize to her now. Or I'm not going to let you leave this place!" Severin said coldly along with a terrifying vibe.

Faye quickly hid behind Ferid, "Ferid! You-you said you will protect me, didn't you? Why are you just standing here and doing nothing?"

"So she is your cousin. Hey, kid, how dare you slap my woman? I'm going to have you pay for what. you did!" Ferid was dumbstruck.

After he reacted, he grasped his fist tight and punched at Severin. Unfortunately, Ferid was just a normal person. A white collar that could not punch his way out of a paper bag. How could a person like him actually be able to compete with Severin?

Undoubtedly, Severin was able to catch his punch. With just a little strength, Ferid squatted down in pain.

"Ouch, ouch, let go of me. It hurts!" Ferid squatted and his tears were about to fall from his eyes because of the pain.

"Geez, you're so weak!" Severin applied a little strength and pushed Ferid away.

It resulted in Ferid stumbling to the ground and looking embarrassingly.

“You-you are useless!” Faye was so angry and ashamed.

“Kneel and apologize. Do you hear me?” Severin looked at her

“Why should I scam? I’ve already apologized. I’m not leaving. Let’s see if you can really afford to buy the house or not!” Faye thought she was humiliated and wanted to find a different way to beat Queenie.

“Severin, where’s my bank card?” Queenie asked. Severin passed it to her.

With the bank card in her hand, she said to the saleswoman, “I don’t need to see the show unit. I’ll get the unit on the sixth floor. Full payment in cash. Can you round up the figure?”

“Sure. That will be two hundred thousand dollars in total. Ma’am, you can pay here. I’ll go and prepare the document!” The saleswoman was very excited.

“What? Paying in full with cash for the unit?” Ferid got on his feet and exclaimed.

In the beginning, his intention was to show off his ability to Queenie and made Queenie regret not being with him. He wanted to show Queenie that she could own a roof over her head and that their future would get better if she agrees to be with him. Yet, he was dumbstruck to hear the unit cost two hundred thousand dollars and Queenie was going to pay in full.

Faye was stunned too. When she saw Queenie going over to make her payment, she gave Ferid a signal and quickly left the place together.

“Ah!” When everything was settled, Queenie came over and stretched her back. “It feels so good! This was not the first time he humiliated me. I have been tolerating it. It definitely feels good to see their faces just now!”

“Let’s go. Feeling good after buying the house? Oh, right. You don’t have a car yet. Let’s go buy a car!” Severin said after the thought entered his mind.

When they left the place, Queenie started to plan how to use the remaining money.

“Hey, Eston, look. Isn’t that Severin?” Lucy asked when she saw and pointed at Severin. She was accompanying her friends to come to look at the show house. It did not take long before she saw Severin.

A fit of rage sparked in Easton’s body when he heard that name. He grasped his fist tightly. “What the hell is that b*stard doing here?”

“Hoho. What else can do you here? Duh! He must be here to buy a house!” One of their friends said.

“Huh? I have never seen that woman beside him before,” Lucy said after she felt shocked. “I bet he must be seeing other women secretly now that he has some money in his pocket. After all the years Diane waited for him and he actually bring another woman here to buy a house? It looks like he is buying the house for that woman!”

“This is a good chance to stir up their relationship. What are you waiting for?” Easton reminded.

Lucy quickly took out her phone and snapped two photos before she nodded with satisfaction. Hmph! Severin, I got you this time! I hope what is waiting for him when he goes back home to Diane.”

Later, they went to look at the show unit with their friends and went back home.

When they were back at home, Lucy put her arms around Easton and said, “Honey, why don’t we relax and give it a try?”

Easton felt helpless when Lucy was inviting him for coitus. After he offended Severin at the restaurant owned by Jada, he discovered there was something wrong with his body. It seemed like he was losing his ability as a man. As a matter of fact, he loved women and also enjoyed coitus. Otherwise, he would not be screwing Lucy in the first place. Moreover, he was also secretly in contact with a few other women but Lucy did not know it. If he could not enjoy the pleasure of being a man, what was the meaning of living?

Unfortunately, Easton noticed he was still unable to man up even after a while.

He gripped his fist tight. “F*ck! Severin must be the one who did this to me. It must be him! Although he did not touch me that day, I can sense it from the way he looked at me when he left. He must have secretly done something to me!”

Lucy was at a loss for words. With a sullen face, she said, “Honey, if this keeps up, what should we do? I’m like a widow except you are not dead.”

Chapter 183

Easton’s face was gloomy and sullen. He thought for a while and said, “I’ll make an appointment with the hospital to check my body to see what’s going on.”

He gripped his fist tightly. “What we need to do now is ask Jada if she could get Mister Edward to help us to get rid of Severin!”

Lucky smiled bitterly. “Mister Edward is the young master from a second-tier upper-class family. We hardly have the chance to get in touch with him. Jada is our only hope. She did go to see him the other day but Mister Edward was busy and did not have the time for her. Damn it! Why is it so hard to get rid of Severin? Even the bodyguards from the Stones were not his match!”

“I know! He had some dumb luck. If Larry’s mother was not sick and did not need Severin to treat her on that day, Larry will never help him. We will not be in this situation either!” Easton said.

He paused for a while and continued, “Especially when many masters from my family were there. No matter how strong Severin is, there is no way he could defeat so many people by himself. Sigh! I can only say lady luck is not on our side!”

Lucy spoke, “Larry had explicitly told the head of the Stones not to try to touch Severin. If not, he would go after the Stones. Now we can only put our hopes with Mister Edward. He’s from a second-tier upper-class family. If he’s willing to help, Larry is not going to be a problem to him.”

“Yes. The second-tier upper-class family is not afraid of Draco Hall. They have the power to fight against Draco Hall. Even if Mister Edward killed Severin, Larry will never cross his family because of Severin!” Easton agreed by nodding his head.

Out of the blue, Easton’s phone rang. After he hung up, a joyful expression appeared on his face.

*F*ck! There’s finally some good news!” he said excitedly.

“What?” Lucy shared the same feeling. “Don’t tell me someone knocked and killed Severin in a car crash. It’s marvelous if that happened!”

Easton chuckled. “Mister Edward has agreed to meet at Dratin Hotel. Jada is asking us to join so we can help to persuade him. It’s going to have a better effect that way.”

Lucy’s eyes sparkled. “Haha! What are we waiting for? I guessed Severin only has a few days left to live. If Mister Edward is willing to help, it’s no longer a problem!”

Quickly enough, they drove and arrived at Dratin Hotel. When they were at the entrance, they saw Jada and her bodyguards were waiting for them.

“How is it, Miss Jada? Do we have a chance? Is Mister Edward here?” Easton went up and asked hopefully.

Jada smiled. “Yes. We have a huge chance. Mister Edward holds grudges against Severin. And I think he likes Diane too. Let’s stir things up and add fume to the fire. I have a good feeling about it!”

Easton and Lucy exchanged looks and were thrilled to hear that. The three of them waited for a while before Edward arrived with his bodyguards.

Lucy and Easton exchanged looks and were thrilled to hear that. The three of them waited before Edward arrived with his bodyguards.

Chapter 184

"Hi, Mister Edward. I'm Easton and this is my fiancée, Lucy." Easton carried favor with Edward as he approached and bowed a little when he saw Edward arriving.

Edward took a look at Lucy and there were sparks in his eyes. He had to admit Lucy was a beautiful woman. 'No wonder Easton would trick Severin and insist on stealing her away from Severin. She does look pretty and has a wonderful body. Especially her boobs. But Diane is still better than her.'

The elegant and gracious Diane encompassed was hard to find among other women.

"Haha. So you are Easton. I know you because Severin went to screw up your wedding a couple of days ago. Your family was left with eggs on their faces after that. You are the hot topic among the noble families. Haha!" Edward was extremely arrogant when he said that and did not care about Easton's feelings.

“Yes, you’re right! F*ck Severin! I’m not going to let this pass easily!” Easton was infuriated with his gritted teeth. “It was a totally speechless situation. We even invited Blade to the wedding but who knew Mister Henry and the others ended up siding with Severin? Just because he got lucky and saved Larry once. I’m totally speechless.”

Lucy also added, “In fact, the Longhorns do not owe Severin anymore. When we wanted to get rid of Severin together with Miss Jada, it turned out he knew someone from Draco Hall. So people from Draco Hall helped him too. Later we found out Larry’s mother was sick and Larry helped Severin because he needed Severin to treat his mother!”

Edward looked at them. “So there’s nothing you guys can do to him, and decided to come find me for help?”

Jada, Easton, and Lucy felt embarrassed and did not know what to say.

After a moment of silence, Jada broke the ice. “Mister Edward, we actually take up the cudgel for you. You should deserve to be together with Diane. Severin is just a person who was in jail before. If he did not know to cure people and had some dumb luck, he could never live until today!”

“Alright. Let’s go. We shall continue this while we eat,” Edward suggested.

Obviously, he knew what were they seeking after. Even if they did not come to find him, he would still go after Severin.

Having these people asking him for help, he was not let this chance go easily when he could try to get some benefits from them. It was for the best too. Thus, he was more than happy to meet with them.

Shortly, the table was full of delicious dishes and a couple of bottles of expensive red wines.

Edward looked at them and said, “Easton, you must be the one who hates Severin the most. You had your finger broken because of him. Even though it was reattached, it is not functioning anymore, right?”

Easton looked at his wrapped-up finger and gritted his teeth angrily. “I wish I can beat the crap out of that b*stard!”

“I hate him too! Not only did he beat him, but he also made us knelt down to beg for mercy. I have never been so humiliated in my whole life!” Jada said.

“Yes. So all of you hate Severin very much!” Edward smiled. “But I don’t actually have anything big against him. He didn’t screw up my wedding or slapped me.”

He paused for a while before continuing. “So why should I help you guys?”

Chapter 185

Easton and Lucy exchanged looks with each other. They frowned as their faces looked terrible.

Before this, Jada had expressed that there was a high hope Edward would help them. Based on Edward’s current attitude, it did not seem like Edward would help them..

Easton smiled awkwardly. "Yes, there's nothing serious between you and Severin. But I think Diane is totally into him right now. Think about it. If Diane ends up together with Severin, you are going to miss out on her."

The corner of Edward's mouth twitched. "Haha. Don't worry. He's not going to take Diane from me. After all, I've promised to give Diane's parents a million dollars as dowry. Her parent will help me to persuade their daughter. Besides, do you think Diane's family will agree to let her marry Severin that poor guy with a lousy house?"

At that moment, Jada burst out laughing. "Haha. Mister Edward, I think you are a bit slow with the information. Severin is not living in the lousy house anymore. His house is far better than the one I live in now."

"How could that be? I remember your family was lucky enough to get the chance to buy a house in Dragon Lake Vista. We wanted to buy but didn't have the chance." Edward was shocked.

If Severin really could afford to live in Dragon Lake Vista, there was no saying that Diane's parents would probably accept Severin because of Selene.

Easton added, "As I said, Severin got lucky. After he saved Henry, Henry gave him a villa in Dragon Lake Vista as a reward. This guy now has a villa and a car. There's a possibility Diane's family will think differently of him!"

"Tsk! He still cannot compare to me. I'm a member of the Horsefields and also the only son of my parent. My identity is something that Severin can never beat me. Besides, the Shanahans should be grateful that I don't mind Diane already has a daughter. I don't believe the Shanahans are blind enough to choose Severin over me!" Edward snorted.

At this point, Lucy felt speechless. From the looks of it, Edward was very confident with his identity and family.

According to a woman's intuition, she had a feeling Diane was not the type of woman who love. money. Besides, if Diane was really the money-type woman, she would not wait that many years to reunite with Severin.

She thought about it. "Mister Edward. Think about it. If Diane loves money, do you think she would wait five years to be with Severin? And she rather fallout with her family because of a man. Do you think her family can force her to marry you?"

Jada agreed. "That's right. Don't tell me that you are thinking Diane will leave Severin after living poorly for a period of time. Are you seriously going to think Diane will think she chooses the wrong person because she is going to fight over daily matters with Severin? Don't be a fool. They are now living in a villa and they also had scammed some money from Easton. Now, do you still think they will break up because of some silly matters?"

Easton and Lucy exchanged looks with each other. They frowned as their faces looked terrible.

Before this, Jada had expressed that there was a high hope Edward would help them. Based on Edward's current attitude, it did not seem like Edward would help them..

Chapter 186

"Diane is a stubborn and idiot girl! She rather sacrifices her love because of her daughter. Damn it! * Edward gritted his teeth. "If I send someone to kill Severin now, Diane would hate me. And I will never have a chance to be with her.”

Easton was glad to see anger had gotten control over Edward’s head. He knew this was the right time. Thus, he quickly showed the photos they took just now to him. “Look at this. Severin is not really an honest person. It looks like he is trying to please Diane and want to be together with Diane but behind Diane’s back, he’s having affair with another woman. He even brought this woman to buy a house!”

“Really?” Edward took a closer look and gripped his fist tightly. “Damn you, Severin! You’re a b* stard for cheating on Diane! Does he think he can treat me like a fool?”

Lucy joined the conversation. “I know what kind of person Severin is. I used to be in love with him. He may look like a good person but he’s actually not! Oh, look at that car too. I think it’s Audi A8. I wonder if it belongs to him or that woman. If the car belongs to him, it just means he bought a new car and have an affair with that woman after he scammed Easton!”

She paused before saying, “If the car is not his, then it belongs to that woman. With that said, the woman is his sugar mama. What do you guys think?”

Easton heard that and smacked his head. “That’s right! Why didn’t I think of that? I don’t think the car belongs to Severin. He’s not that rich to be able to afford that expensive car. Most likely, he has found himself a sugar mama!”

“No matter what, he’s a bad person!” Edward stood up. “That’s it! I can’t accept seeing the woman. I love get cheated! I’m going to the Shanahans. I’m going to tell Diane’s parents that this jerk is cheating on their daughter and Diane knew nothing about it!”

“Yes, yes, yes. If the Shanahans know about it, you probably won’t have to do anything. The Shanahans would beat the hell out of Severin!”

Easton’s eyes sparkled. “And if Diane found out about this, she is going to leave Severin. She probably will even want to kill Severin knowing this is what she gets after waiting for him for five years.”

“Mister Edward, we are not using it. We are doing it for your own good. Besides, Severin is our common enemy. We should team up to fight against him,” Jada consoled.

Lucy also suggested, “Mister Edward, the food is here. Let’s just eat for now. I mean there’s no rush in this.”

“No!” Edward claimed directly. “If I don’t let the Shanahans know about this, I don’t have the appetite to eat! Easton, send me the photos. I’m going over there now. You can guys can enjoy the food!”

After that, he left the hotel in his car to head straight to the Shanahans.

When Edward left, Jada let out an evil laugh before she sat down. “Haha. Wasn’t he acting all superior just now? He really thinks he’s something, claims Severin can never win him, and trying to scare us. He’s so angry that I can see smoke coming out of his head!”

Easton smiled. “That’s what we want. He is the best person to go to the Shanahans to tell Diane about this!”

Chapter 187

“Haha! Damn, it’s so nice to go shopping driving in my Audi A8!” Megan expressed her happiness. At that moment, she had just returned home in good mood.

“Hehe. Did your fair-weather friends come looking for you again?” William asked cheekily.

“Hmph! Two of them stopped looking for me when I was poor but now they started to contact me again. I despised, scolded them, and asked them to leave. I treat those who didn’t despise me before to a good meal. Now they are jealous that I’m driving this car!” Megan answered.

“There goes another day. I think Severin earns some money because of his superb medical skill. Now I’m just hoping to receive the dowry he promised. Our days are going to get better,” Felicia said.

“Missus Felicia, are you at home?”

Suddenly, they heard Edward’s voice from outside. Felicia frowned immediately knowing Edward was outside. When Severin was still in jail, she promised Edward that she would let Diane marry him and she was waiting for Edward to give them the dowry he promised.

Two years ago, Edward would always bring expensive gifts for her every time he came. Undoubtedly, Felicia accepted those gifts with no guilt. Now that even Catherine and they had accepted Severin, she was embarrassed to face Edward.

“Should I hide somewhere?” she asked William.

“You can avoid him today but you’re not going to avoid him every time. It’s time to tell him the truth!” Williams said unhappily as he looked at his wife. “I already told you that you shouldn’t accept his gift. Gifts blind the eyes. What are you going to do now? Feeling shameful?”

Felicia was at a loss for words and remained where she was.

Edward entered and shouted angrily, “I’m so angry! Argh!”

“Mister Edward, what happened? Who has the nerve to make you angry?” Felicia smiled awkwardly and groveled.

“Mister Edward, here’s your tea.” Same as Felicia, Megan also received many gifts from Edward before.

She quickly poured a cup of tea for him and had mixed feelings.

“Who else other than that jerk, Severin!” Edward sat on the couch and drank the tea. “Diane treats him so well. But he actually..

Out of the blue, he remembered something. “Hey, I saw two Audi A8 parked in front and they are limited edition. I remembered each cost around two-hundred-and-sixty-thousand dollars. Did you guys buy them?”

“Yes. They are ours. We bought it just yesterday!” Felicia smiled brightly when she thought of the car.

“Yeah! I feel so amazing driving it!” Megan felt the same too. “It feels so damn good to drive it.

Even Stanley never drive this type of car before. His face looked so bad yesterday!”

“Missus Catherine was willing to spend so much money to buy cars for you guys?” Edward asked curiously.

Chapter 188

The fact that Stanley, the General Manager of Shanahan Corporation, did not have the luxury to drive this type of car. It was just impossible Catherine would bear to buy those two cars for William, Felicia, and Mega.

Most importantly, everyone knew that Catherine upholds thriftiness. From the other member of the family, they felt like she was relatively stingy. She always reminded them that money should be spent on the more important area such as developing and expanding their business.

The smiles on Felicia and Megan’s faces disappeared.

After a while, Felicia smiled awkwardly. “Umm...Severin was the one who bought them. And he even bought three cars at one time. He has one and he gave us the other two.”

“Severin!” Edward’s mouth was wide open when he stood up after getting shocked. “That’s impossible! He was the one who buy it? Those three cars cost 750,000 dollars and above. Where did he get the money from?”

“It’s true. He was the one who bought it!” Megan smiled. “He said he has some money. A savant he knew in jail gave him some money. I’m not very sure either. He probably also received some money from Mister Henry when he cured Mister Henry!”

“Who cares where he gets the money I’m happy as long as he bought me a car. This is the first time I have ever driven such a good car,” Felicia said.

Edward said with a sullen face, “Missus Felicia, you shouldn’t let that small amount of money blind your eyes. Think about my identity. If Diane married me, you are going to be my mother-in-law. I will treat you exactly like my mother. I’ll buy you any cars that you want if you request them.”

The anger had spiked up in Edward’s mind and he was starting to act ostentatiously.

“Anyway, let’s not talk about that. No matter how rich Severin is now, he still can’t compare with my family!”

Finally, Edward remembered the reason he came here for. “Diane got cheated. He has cheated all of you! Do you even know that?”

“Cheat? Severin didn’t have money? So he doesn’t have the money to give me the seven million dollars dowry he promised me?”

The moment Felicia heard that the first thing she thought of was the dowry Severin promised to give her. She gritted her teeth angrily. "Damn him!"

"Mister Edward, do you have the proof? Are you sure Severin does not have any money?" Megan asked to confirm.

Her face was gloomy. Although Severin bought her a car, she was not going to rest if Severin was not going to give them the dowry. Especially when the amount of the dowry was incomparable to how much the cars cost.

"Wait. Seven million dollars dowry? What the hell?" Edward was stunned.

"Severin said he is going to give us Seven million dollars dowry!" Megan repeated.

"Sh*t!" Edward was at a loss for words. "He must be lying. Where can he fork out that amount of money? What a joke, Seven million dollars dowry! Then what about the wedding? Is he going to throw Diane a wedding? How much money does he need just for the dowry and the wedding?"

"Mister Edward, you didn't know about the dowry?"

Felicia and Megan exchanged looks with each other and realized Edward was not there because of the dowry.

"No!" Edward smiled bitterly and took out his phone. "I'm not here because of the dowry. But he must be fooling you guys. How can he possibly have that amount of money? Just think about it. I'm sure he's trying to get you guys to like him. As time goes on, you guys would just accept him!"

After that, he opened the photo and passed his phone over. "I'm here to tell you Severin is seeing other women!"

"That's impossible!" William stood up all of a sudden after hearing that. He had been keeping quiet. and smoking before this. "Severin is not that type of guy. If he is, then what about the year Diane sacrificed for him? Mister Edward, please don't talk nonsense!"

Chapter 189

"Mister William, I'm not making it up. Look at these photos. They even thought about buying a house today. These photos were taken outside the show unit. Do you still think I make this up?"

Once Edward heard Severin had the money to buy the cars, he confirmed that Severin was the sugar daddy instead of finding himself a sugar mama. The woman in the picture was wearing a mini skirt paired with black stockings. With that sexy body, he had a feeling the woman was the flirty and coquettish type of woman.

Although William did not believe it, he still came over to take a look. He frowned. "They were just standing there talking. It doesn't prove anything. They were not holding hands or touching each other. Mister Edward, are you overthinking it?"

Edward did not agree. "Overthink? I think you are too stupid. Look at how this woman dressed! She doesn't look like a fine lady. I'm sure they must be something going on between both of them!"

To make matters worse, he said, "Obviously, Severin was going to buy a house after he has some money in his pocket. Maybe the house is for this woman. Diane still doesn't know anything about this."

"F*ck! Severin is a b*stard! My sister has waited for him for so many years. Why is he treating her like this? How could he go behind my sister's back and be together with this wench?" Megan said angrily with her gritted teeth.

From where she sees it, both Severin and that woman were smiling and they looked like they were very close to each other. Most likely, there must be something going on between Severin and that woman.

Felicia also expressed her dissatisfaction. "I heard Severin's relatives refused to get along with him and his parent after Severin went to jail. Their acquaintance even cut off ties with them. Is he really together with another woman? If that's the case, I will never forgive him!"

"Mom, let's call Severin and ask him to come over. We have the evidence. I want to see how is he going to explain it!" Megan suggested.

"Yes! I want to see what his explanation is!" Without delay, Felicia took out her phone and was going to make the call.

However, Edward stopped her. "No! It's a stupid thing to do. Do you think he is going to admit it when you ask him? We should ask Diane to come back by herself. If she doesn't know this woman, it means Severin has another woman. Now that Diane is together with Severin, I'm sure she will know the people Severin is closed with. Right?"

"Yes! Call Diane!" William nodded his head continuously. Not long later, Diane rushed back after receiving the call. When she arrived she saw Edward in her house and was unhappy about it.

"Mom, why is Mister Edward here? This is my first day at work and I only started working for a few hours. Yet, you called me back in a hurry and said you were unable to explain it on the phone. Hmph! I didn't know you were actually asking me to meet him!"

From Diane's point of view, her mother was still hoping she would marry Edward. Otherwise, Edward would not be here.

"Diane, that's not it. It's Severin! He has another woman and Mister Edward has proof!" Felicia explained immediately.

"Yes, Diane. Severin is cheating on you!" Megan said. "Mister Edward took photos of Severin together with that woman!"

Diane was dumbstruck that she nearly fainted when she knew there were photos to prove it. 'Is Severin really that kind of man? she thought.

People tended to say men went wild when they had money to splurge. Could it be true?

'I waited so many years for him to come back. The suffering and misery I received because of him. Is he really having another woman just because he's rich now? Diane thought.

She shook her head. "No! That's impossible. It's impossible! Did you guys see clearly?"

At that moment, she thought Edward had photos of Severin sleeping with another woman. That thought scared her so much that her face went pale.

"Look, Diane. See this woman. She's wearing a mini skirt and black stockings. She doesn't look like a decent woman. I'm sure you don't know who she is. Severin was released from jail not too long ago. I don't think he's in contact with many people. If he's not having another woman, then who is this woman here?" Edward said.

He went to Diane and wanted to show her the photos. Diane was scared and refused to look at the photos because she was afraid Severin was a b*stard just like what they said. The thought of her sacrifices all these years was for nothing had petrified her.

Regardless of that, she gritted her teeth and decided to look. After one look, she was relieved. She rolled her eyes at Felicia and Megan.

"Mom, what the hell are you guys thinking about? Severin was just standing there having a conversation. It's not like they were sleeping together. What's the matter wrong with you guys? You gave me a scare!"

"But-but this woman is wearing stockings!" Edward was not going to give up easily. "And they just came out from the sales gallery. I bet they went there to buy a house. Severin must be thinking of sugaring her by buying her a house!"

Diane explained, "Mister Edward, this is a misunderstanding. I know this woman. She's Severin's cousin. She's a decent woman. They had helped Severin's parents many times over the past few years by lending money to them. Last year, her mother needed to undergo surgery so she could only borrow money from other people. In order to pay back the money, she was forced to work in the bar as a B-girl."

She continued, "Severin told me this morning before he left. He was going to ask his cousin to resign and also paid back the money he owed to her. I know about this!"

"Gosh, so she is Severin's cousin!" Felicia was relieved to hear that.

"That's good. I really thought he was cheating on you!" Megan ran her hands down her chest to calm down.

"But-but why did they go to the sales gallery?" Edward asked.

His face looked terrible. He had the intention to break up Severin and Diane. Yet, that woman was actually Severin's cousin. It put him in an awkward situation.

"I have no idea about that!" Diane frowned. "I'll ask him tonight."

After that, she looked at Edward and said persistently, "Mister Edward, I hope you can keep your hands to yourself and leave my family matters alone. I will only dislike you even more when you tried to meddle with my relationship with Severin, Severin is my husband. My grandmother and my parent has accepted him. It's time for you to give up!"

"Mom and Dad, I'm going back to work now. Take care of Mister Edward. I'm very busy. Don't call me if there's nothing urgent!"

Later, she turned around and left without looking back.
