

Arabella 137

Chapter 137

"But right now, we don't have enough evidence against him, can't really pin him down..." Kenneth felt a heavy weight on his heart as he thought about this.

If Oscar really did have the reins of the company, they'd be losing a ton of cash this year....

"Should we send someone to help Bella?" Louisa was worried about her daughter being left alone..

But Kenneth wasn't worried, "Look at us, playing golf here, and in just a short time, Bella has uncovered so many issues... She's way ahead of us! I trust she can handle it." "Ever since Bella took over the company, it's been a big relief." Louisa added, glancing at Serena, "You should learn more from your sister..."

Indeed, Bella's management skills had surpassed her years

Her natural business acumen made her stand out in a crowd, she was incredibly capable.

Arabella was independent and decisive, probably because no one around her cared for her or loved her.

"Serena's right. I'm going to transfer some money to Bella, let her feel the warmth of home..." Louisa immediately took out her phone and transferred five million dollars.

Kenneth also took out his phone, "Whatever you transferred, I'll match it. We need to let Bella know, she's got not just her mom's love, but also her dad's!"

Hearing this, Serena was insanely jealous. She wanted to show Kenneth and Louisa that Arabella had grown up in such an environment, her heart was already complicated and no longer innocent!

Otherwise, how could she reveal so many dark sides of human nature?

But why did her parents think in such a different way from normal people...
