

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3609

At this time, Olivia was shocked.

At the moment when she faced Charlie and called out Charlie's name herself, she felt that her whole person had completely collapsed.

Under Charlie's coercion, her legs softened subconsciously, and she knelt down in front of Charlie, choked up and said: "MR. Wade...I was wrong...I was wrong because of the money, please You spare me and give me a chance to make up for it!"

Olivia's father Richard, also realizing that the general situation is over, hurriedly knelt on the ground, begging: "MR. Wade, Olivia is young, and he is easily impulsive in doing things. Don't be familiar with her..."

William's father George also hurried forward at this time, and said with a pleading expression: "MR. Wade, we are willing to accept the five billion euros you said before! Our Rothschild family is willing to give four billion euros! Just ask! You can raise your hands high!"

Charlie smiled, looked at Richard, and asked him: "They give out 4 billion, so you will come out the remaining 1 billion?"

"I...I..." Richard was suddenly nervous and didn't know what to do.

A few minutes ago, he was able to gather one billion euros through gritted teeth. That's because Olivia was basically equal to the uncrowned queen of Northern Europe before. Only waiting for the death of the current queen to be crowned smoothly, so basically. Control the financial power of the entire royal family.

But now, the queen has woken up. In this case, neither Richard nor Olivia have the right to mobilize royal funds anymore, so at this time, let Richard take one billion euros out. Foolishly talk about dreams.

After thinking about it, Richard could only bite the bullet and said: "MR. Wade... our own assets, cash and various real estate together, it is about 500 million euros. If you don't mind, I'm willing to put all the assets together. I will give it to you as compensation!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Then this is only 4.5 billion, not enough."

After speaking, he looked at George and asked with a smile: "George, would you like to pay more?"

George almost collapsed, and said bitterly: "MR. Wade... 4 billion euros is already our limit... We don't have so much cash at all. We have to wait until the stock market opens tomorrow to collect 4 billion euros. Only by selling off a large number of stocks in hand will it be possible to make up enough..."

Charlie shook his head and said indifferently: "Your two families are a community of interests, both of you will be prosperous, and you will lose everything. If the money is enough, I can spare you a way of life, otherwise, I will treat you as kingslayers tonight. Killing on the spot, tomorrow will be directly announced by the queen, saying that you united to rebel tonight and were killed by the Royal Guard! Then the photos of your deaths here will be released to the public, by then, people all over the world will think You deserve it!"

When George heard this, his heart trembled violently!

He didn't expect Charlie to kill himself!

Moreover, he also believed that Charlie did have this strength and could kill all of them at any time.

More importantly, even if Charlie really killed them, according to the reasons Charlie said just now, the world would never doubt it.

After all, they did bring people into the queen's ward today. If Charlie really killed them and then claimed to the public that they were killed on the spot because of King Killing, it would logically fit in perfectly.

Even if the Rothschilds knew about it, they wouldn't doubt it.

In that case, Charlie killed them without taking any risks...

Thinking of this, George looked at the queen, crying and begging: "Your Majesty, you are the prince of a country and you want to uphold the country's legal system. Even if you send us to court, you can't let Charlie kill us..."

When the queen heard this, she blurted out without hesitation: "My life was saved by MR. Wade. From now on, I will follow MR. Wade's instructions. If MR. Wade wants to release you, I will send you out of the palace immediately; but If MR. Wade wants to kill you, I will immediately follow MR. Wade's words and announce your crime of murdering the king and treason!"

The queen knew very well in her heart that how long she could live in the future depended on Charlie, so at this time, she naturally had to obey Charlie.

When George heard this, his body was wet with cold sweat!

He really did not expect that the empress would have such an attitude!

If this is the case, then myself and my son are likely to die here today...

Thinking of this, he hurriedly pleaded: "MR. Wade, don't worry, I will find a way for the remaining 500 million euros and I will make up for you as soon as possible..."
