The Girl He Craves Chapter 182

Sophie's pov

Aiden's fingers run over my arm, tenderly. He kisses me softly, moaning in my mouth as he presses closer to me.

He moves his lips down the corner of my mouth, leaving sweet open mouth kisses wherever his lips touched. He moved lower, kissing down my neck and on my pulse. I moaned.

I could feel his body heat and it comforted me. It calmed down the fear that tickled up my spine when those dreadful thoughts span back into my head.

I didn't know what Christopher did to me earlier would rouse so much fear in my heart. I was angry at what he did and scared in the moment, but I didn't know the lingering of that fear would remain.

It feels awful and I pity the women who go through this regularly. How powerless they felt, how terrified they are in the moment. What happens after? Do they even survive this?

I was lucky to have not been forced into anything else. Christopher was much bigger and stronger than me so I stood no chance against him strength wise.

What if he didn't stop there? What if he wanted more than a kiss?

I shivered, trembling under Aiden.

I yelped suddenly when Aiden bit down on my shoulder. He lifted his head, a sloppy cute grin on his mouth. "Don't think about him. Focus on

With one hand holding his weight besides my head, the other crawled between us. He playfully runs his fingers down between my breasts, gliding down to my belly button.

My back arches as his hand thread under my nightwear that rode up when I lifted my leg.

My nipples rub against the fabric as it hardened and tingled. I could feel the silkiness of need between my thighs, soaking the thin fabric of my panties. I was very certain he could have felt it when he was pressing his hardness against me a few moments ago.

His fingers brush against my hip bone and I sucked in a breath.

"Sophie," He whispered, lifting himself slightly. His eyes bored into mine as his fingers teasingly trace the lining of my panty. "You're absolutely beautiful, you know that?"

I draw my bottom lip between my teeth and sucked the plump flesh as I shyly look away from him. I was still not used to him complimenting me.

I flushed.

"Hey baby," He whispered. "Look at me." He prodded.

I shyly brought my eyes back to his and his eyes softened. "Don't ever hide those pretty eyes from me again. Okay?"

I nodded, smiling while flushing under his stare. He grins at my shyness and leans down to softly capture my lips.

He bit my lip softly and rasp his tongue over the flesh. I opened my mouth and he delved his tongue in deep.

It tangled with my own and I buried my fingers in his hair. He groaned in my mouth while teasing his fingers over my lips and clit.

I arched my back, opening my legs even more to allow his bigger body to fit directly between them.

I sighed in his mouth when his hardness rubbed against my throbbing pussy.

Aiden pulls away a little to murmur on my mouth. "You're so wet, you're soaking through my sweats." He chuckled and nibbled my bottom lip.

I felt a rush of heat sneak up my neck to settle in my cheeks. Flustered I bit into my lower lip. He chuckles and swipes his tongue over my teeth.

"Release your lips my love. I'm the only one who's allowed to bite it," He rasped out while peeling my panties to the side. His fingers brush along my wet lips, curling up to my clit.

My thighs shook and my heart pounds. A delicious tightening started in my belly. Aiden captures my lips again, this time so slowly it made my toes/curl.

And then he pushes his finger knuckle deep inside me. I push out a gasp and he pushed his tongue inside my mouth.

He fucks me with his finger until he added another digit. I bit his tongue and he groaned then chuckled. Pulling his fingers out, he whispered on my mouth. "Want my cock instead little Sophie?"

I nodded, burning brightly. He chuckled at my sudden shyness. "You're acting so shy tonight as if I had never been inside you."

I bit my bottom lip and looked at him under my lashes, he sucked in a sharp breath and murmured the word fuck. He lifts off me a little and grips my panties in his hand. He slides it off my body while peering into my eyes deeply.

I lift my bum a little so he'd be able to take it off completely.

He tosses it off the bed and kneels on the bed. With dark hungry eyes, Aiden curled his fingers in a motion to tell me to sit up.

I do, and he smirked. He pushes his sweats off him and releases his member from his briefs. My mouth watered.

Aiden then removes my nightwear slowly, deliberately making his fingertips brush along the sides of my breasts while doing so.

My nipples throb when the cold air kiss them sharply. Aiden throws my nightwear off the bed too.

He smiled at me and reaches for me. His palms press on the small of my back, his hardness pressing between us and his precum wetting a small patch of skin on my stomach. My breasts pressed against his hard toned chest.

We both moaned at the incredible feeling of being so close. "I love you Soph." He whispered and slowly turned us around.

He sits on the bed and pulls me closer. I yelp when he lifts me up a little and fixes me on his lap. His cock brushes between my thighs until the tip presses against my core.

I gasp, my nails digging into his shoulder blades.

He presses his forehead against mine, the tips of our nose brushing, our lips near, hot breath fanning against the flesh. Our breathing is hasty and uneven.

Aiden pushes my hips down, while his hips push up. We both gasp as he entered me. "I love you so much Sophie." He moaned as I sank onto him.

I kissed his lips softly, hugging him around his neck as he fills me. "I love you too Aiden."
