

Loving You In Secret by Debbie Meza Chapter 51-60

Chapter 52

What they were expecting to see was something that could entertain them and where they could be able to judge someone else from a moral and righteous point of view. The truth did not actually matter.

“Vicky, we’ve given you all the chances you need. Don’t blame us for doing this!”

The two girls forcefully grabbed Vicky’s purse to get it out of Vicky’s hand.

Unconsciously, Vicky grabbed her purse tightly. The two girls saw it, and their eyes were wavering with evilness. One of the girls pulled Vicky’s purse away and threw it into the air. The other girl took the chance and pushed Vicky away vehemently.

Vicky let go of the purse, and it flew up into the sky. When the purse dropped on the floor, it created a noise. All of the items in the purse were scattered out. Key, phone, tissue, and some makeup items were all over the floor.

about to fall down. Suddenly, a looked up. The handsome man appeared behind her all of a sudden, and he was looking at her now.

low and crisp, just like how stunned. “Tyler...”

to stand steadily and looked around.

eyes sparkled when she saw Tyler. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com Her eyes showed how happy and passionate she felt. She pouted and looked upset.

“Tyler, Vicky

“Your bracelet?”

explained, “The one my... brother gave me on my birthday.”

brother, she unconsciously lowered her voice. After that, she fight happened in the jewelry shop under your corporation. You should be aware of it too.”

got chills on her body after hearing what Maria said.

There were so many things that Vicky did not know. Plus, Maria's brother must be Harvey, Vicky's ex-fiance. Exactly a wound that Tyler did not wish to be reminded of.

When Maria actually mentioned her brother and the bracelet right in front of Tyler... It sounded so intentional that she was trying to hurt the wounded spot on Tyler again.

On the other hand, Vicky was Tyler's enemy's ex-fiancee. She had also used despicable methods to trick him. Tyler would hate her even more, having those memories down in his mind. Who knew, maybe he would even humiliate her when he lost control of his emotions?

The memory that Vicky had was too limited, and she did not know if there was more hidden secret that she was aware of among the things that she did know.

'So evil! Maria's plan is so evil!' she thought.

After Tyler heard it, there were no changes to his expression. He looked at the scattered items and said, "It's impossible. She's not the one who took your bracelet."

The expression on everyone's face changed. They all knew how bad Tyler and Vicky's relationship was. The person Tyler hated the most was not a secret in the city.

Spread the love

Chapter 53

Especially when Vicky was the ex-fiancee of Tyler's most hated person...

The enemy of your enemy was your friend. Therefore, the friend of your enemy was definitely your enemy too.

All these years, Tyler was not shy of showing Vicky how much he dislikes her because of Sheila and also because of this issue too.

Yet, no one anticipated that Tyler would actually be on Vicky's side. Even Vicky was surprised. The same went for Maria. Her pretty face was slightly twisted.

"Tyler, I'm not lying. She's the one who took it!" Her voice was so high that it could pierce people's ears. "If you don't believe it, search through her purse! My bracelet is in her purse!"

Since Tyler was there, no one dared to move forward. Even the two girls who tried to snatch Vicky's bag looked pale and were shivering after seeing Tyler appear.

Tyler used his deep blue eyes to look at Maria. His voice was cold. "You said she took away your bracelet because she likes it?"

was intimidated because of the strong vibes Tyler

That's right," Maria answered.

crash before and lost her memory. She has forgotten everything. How could

So were all the other guests at the dinner

her memory? Is it

How could it be fake?"

I also heard Vicky pretended to lose her memory in the past too... Who knows if it is real or fake this time?"

she's lying to you. She tried to pretend she had lost her interrupted her coldly. "So are you saying

I don't mean looked at her. "Then what do

Maria panicked anxiously.

time she mentioned her brother to him. Albeit, it did not work this time. Furthermore, he beside Tyler and had mixed feelings in her

Maria knew the reason was no longer valid. Without any choice, she uttered, "That bracelet is worth a couple hundred thousand dollars. Maybe...she's looking to sell it?"

Vicky wore an expensive dress today, but the purse she carried was too cheap.

Just as soon as Maria finished talking, Tyler said coldly, "Do you think my woman is in need of that couple hundred thousand dollars?"

He picked up the purse. "Since you're so certain the bracelet is in here. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com Let me take a look to see if it is really like what you said.

Everyone could see the items that dropped out from the purse and onto the floor. There was no bracelet.

After hearing that, Maria was delighted. Vicky clenched her hands tightly for no reason. Tyler used his finger to explore the rest of the items in Vicky's purse and checked all of the inner pockets.

The atmosphere of the dinner party became so quiet that people could only hear each other's breathing and heartbeat. They paid all of their attention to Tyler and stared at every move he made.

After checking the inner pockets, he did not find anything. Later, he discovered there was a back pocket. He extended his finger into it.

Maria held her breath and looked nervous while Vicky's heart got hung upon a thread.

Spread the love

Chapter 54

"It's Tyler searched the outer pocket of the purse for a long time. In the end, he retracted his hand and said, not there."

Maria could not believe it and widened her eyes. She exclaimed unconsciously, "It's impossible!"

She clearly remembered putting the bracelet into that pocket! Vicky was lucky the bracelet did not drop out of the purse when it flew into the sky and dropped on the floor. However, the bracelet was definitely in Vicky's purse!

Maria snatched the purse over from Tyler and searched the entire purse over and over again. So fierce like she was hoping to tear the purse apart into pieces.

Regardless of that, she could not find the bracelet, no matter how hard she searched. She shook her head again and again while murmuring, "It's impossible... It's impossible... Why is the bracelet not in the purse?"

Suddenly, she looked up and glared at Vicky with her reddened eyes. "You hide the bracelet... Yes! That's right! You hide it! The bracelet is on you, is it?"

Vicky sneered. "So are you going to propose to search my body? If you can't find it, will you go back to the me and search for it?"

stopped acting delicate and pitiful. She shouted out while pointing her finger at Vicky, "You took the bracelet! I'm sure of that! The bracelet after she went downstairs. Vicky did not go anywhere and did not realize there was a bracelet hiding in her body.

the girls were trying to take the

I propose if, in the end, I was being accused. You also said mocked Vicky just now did not dare to find a comeback say to what she said. She was overconfident and did not think things would turn out in embarrass Vicky as she anticipated. He even took Vicky's side male voice broke the Vicky looked to the back and saw Sebastian walking over from the crowd. She told him what happened with a straight face.

As the host of the dinner party, he was partly responsible for the accident that occurred during the dinner party. daily new chapters upload only on alaniniz(dot)com After knowing the whole thing, he frowned and looked at Maria.

“Miss Sparks, if Vicky is telling the truth, then... please apologize to her now.”

Maria pointed at Vicky and said with a high-pitched tone, “Even if the bracelet is not in her bag, it must definitely be on her!”

Sebastian was about to say something, but Vicky stopped her. She smiled at Maria. “Then what if the bracelet is not on me? What kind of condition are you going to offer to bet with me this time?”

Maria looked at the calm and subtle smile on Vicky's face. Her breathing was getting heavy while her mind was slowly getting back on track.

‘If the bracelet is not on Vicky, then... I will become the laughingstock of this dinner party. Not to mention offending the Mills family too,’ she thought.

It was better if Vicky was really the thief who stole her bracelet. She could push the blame entirely onto Vicky. Yet, she was just stating false accusations without any proof. At this stage, she could hardly convince anyone anymore.

Spread the love

Chapter 55

Maria's face looked terrible.

Sebastian saw the scattered items on the floor, and a gush of unhappy feeling appeared in his eyes.

"Miss Sparks, even if you wanted to search for your bracelet in Vicky's purse, it was unnecessary of you to throw her items on the floor, wasn't it?"

After saying that, he turned around to look at Vicky.

"Vicky, how do you want to settle this?"

Vicky thought for a while and said, "I'm fine with Miss Sparks fulfilling the promise she made to me just now."

The crowd was surprised. They thought Vicky would pretend to be generous and let Maria off the hook easily. Mainly because they were at the Mills family's dinner party, and Tyler had already helped her out.

who thought logically would prefer to leave a good image in front of their husband. Yet, that was not mistake. There were people who never knew how serious the consequences could be if they were never taught a lesson after making a high tolerance and critical thinking level. She refused to be the person who forgives and tolerates out crying. This time she was not acting anymore and truly feeling

"Tyler..." she called.

remote and did not even glance at her. Obviously, he could not be bothered he would never help me just now. Now that I'm still his wife, what be someone who can't uphold their promise? It makes me wonder how true the trusted or not."

looks. Who would dare to trust a person or be friends with a person whose words could a difficult situation after what Vicky said. She bit her lip too hard and causing her lip to bleed. Tears were rolling in her eyes.

you still mean it when you say I can make one request and you will fulfill Maria's eyes widened. She could not believe Vicky actually dared to push it! With everyone watching, she had no choice.

She gritted. "Yes..."

Vicky pointed at her belongings on the floor, "Then, please pick up my things from the floor and wipe them clean before putting them back into my purse.

"

She smiled and added, "Your friends tried to snatch my purse from me and dropped my belongings on the floor in the process. It's not too much of a request to ask to pick them up and put them back into my purse, is it?"

It was not an excessive request. Albeit that, it felt like humiliation to Maria. She had never needed to degrade or be servile before!

Spread the love

Chapter 56

Sebastian took the chance to say, "Miss Sparks, even if Vicky did not request that, isn't it right for you to pick up Vicky's belongings since you girls were the ones who threw them on the floor?"

He glanced over at the two girls beside Maria coldly. "Those who know you know that you are daughters of eminent families. However, those who don't probably think that you two are bullies and gangsters."

Up until this point, there was no room for them to reject Vicky's request anymore. Maria looked at Tyler for help. However, Tyler was still being himself and ignored her. In the end, she bit her lip vehemently and bent down to pick up all of the scattered items.

Enter title...

Sebastian looked away and asked gently, "Vicky, do you have other requests?"

Since Vicky attended the dinner party his family hosted, it was natural for him to ensure Vicky was well treated after being accused of being a thief.

Vicky looked around and smiled. "Miss Sparks also promised that she would let everyone else apologize to me too, if I'm innocent. Since I didn't steal the bracelet, then... all of you can line up and apologize to me one by one."

As soon as she finished talking, it created an uproar among the crowd.

“What? She wants all of us to apologize to her?”

“Isn’t this request a bit too over?”

“Anyone can make mistakes, and you should forgive people when possible. Forgive and forget.”

“What does this have to do with us? Why are you pulling us into this?”

Even Tyler was quite shocked by the request and looked at Vicky for a short while. However, he did not comment on it. His handsome face still looked cold and distant.

Vicky did not back down even when everyone had expressed their dissatisfaction.

“When Miss Sparks and her friends said that, none of you objected. That meant all of you agreed to it. If you think you are innocent, then you can express your dissatisfaction to Miss Sparks. I’m the same as all of you a victim of this case. No one likes to be accused and called a thief without any reason.”

There was nothing wrong with being lenient, but it also depended on the people and situation. Everything that happened today was indeed mostly because of Maria’s evil thoughts. However, the other onlookers were also responsible for the way it turned out since Maria’s side of the story was full of loopholes, and everyone just went with it.

Those people desired to see her being a clown, waited for her to be a laughingstock, and also wanted to see how embarrassed she was when she was being slapped down.

Most of the time, it was easy to be bullied when you were weak. Vicky believed after today, no one would dare to cause trouble for her easily. Tyler would not always be there to help her. She did not want to waste such a good opportunity. She needed to create a good future for herself and took the initiative. She did not want to have this happen to her again. Being the laughing stock every time she attended a dinner party.

Maria was picking up the things. When she heard what Vicky said, she was so anguished that she nearly vomited a mouthful of blood. ‘This shameless woman actually pushes all the blame on me! And she’s not even bothered to cover your act! Is she really dumb, or is she actually a smart woman?’

Maria lifted her head and looked at Vicky.

Vicky looked back at her after sensing Maria was looking at her and curled her lips into a small curve.

Unconsciously, Maria clenched her fists tightly. ‘She’s so arrogant! She’s not smart or dumb. She’s arrogant! Making mischief on purpose, pushing all the blame on me, so the others are dissatisfied and hate me.’

Vicky has already made a decision. Maria was not her nemesis, nor were they sworn enemies. In spite of that, they would never be friends with each other. If that was the case, why did she need to be fake and pretend to be nice to Maria? On the contrary, she preferred to take this chance and gave her enemy more blows. Rather than tolerate and upset herself by being generous, Vicky preferred to take her sweet revenge on her enemy.

Chapter 57

Vicky walked over to Tyler and grabbed his arm while the others continued to look at her with angry eyes.

She sighed and said, "Honey, do you think this request is too much? If you hadn't come any sooner, they would have really treated me like I'm a thief... What if they called a thief today and a robber tomorrow? Who knows if they will accuse me of being a murderer in the future?"

A thought seemed to pop into her head as she continued, "Honey, no matter how much we fight, it's between the two of us and has nothing to do with them. But you're the CEO of Hart Corporation, a powerful person.... And yet, your wife is being labeled as a criminal by some unrelated people... Tell me, are those people really your friend? Or maybe, they never liked you?"

Tyler's expression became serious. He looked down at Vicky. She was smiling at him sincerely, and yet, her eyes were sparkling. The things she said sow discord between Tyler and those people. Literally offending everyone who attended the dinner party. In spite of that, she was not afraid because Tyler was there.

Those who had an opinion of Vicky looked terrible after hearing that. They dared to judge and gossip about Vicky because they knew Tyler hated her and would not help her.

In other words, if Tyler really loved Vicky, they would not dare to treat Vicky like this. After all, no one would want to offend Tyler.

what to do for their best interests quickly didn't give it a thought

Missus Hart."

that you had to be accused of being a clear. If they were against Vicky now, it would mean they were against Tyler too. Moreover, they were Mills family together. A wise man submitted to circumstances. The rest of the guests started to apologize to Vicky. There were a few who were unwilling to do so. When the others did it, they late at night when they left the Mills

the back seat of the car. She watched

“Thank you...for today.”

the side and looked at her when flashed by. The light in the car was bright and “Thank me for what?” Tyler asked back.

“Thank you for voicing out for me,” Vicky answered.

Tyler’s answer was ambiguous. “Just because of that?”

Vicky looked at him and asked carefully, “Should there be another reason?”

Suddenly, Tyler extended his hand out. An exquisite bracelet appeared on his finger.

Vicky’s eyes widened.

Subsequently, Tyler’s low and cold voice sounded cheeky. “Do you really think it was not in your purse?”

Spread the love

Like she had expected, the bracelet...was really in her purse..

Vicky looked at the bracelet and told Tyler about what had happened. “After I left Missus Mills, I accidentally knocked over Maria. But I don’t remember her, so I wasn’t on high alert. After I went downstairs, she started to cause trouble before I could find you.”

In other words, it all happened because she lost her memory. Since she did not remember, she did not know who she should be aware of.

After listening to that, Tyler did not look surprised. He said, “That’s why there’s a reason why you don’t have any friends.”

her attended a dinner party with her, Cece got framed and was locked in jail for a pretty many people and made many people her enemies. Those who were close

Mills said, she started to

"I think you are starting to at the bracelet in his hand and was more sincere. "No matter what, I still need to thank you for must have discovered the bracelet while searching the purse and hiding it. Come to think her mind, looked like he was a little tired. His eyes

I don't want the feeling appearing in Vicky's heart as she looked at Tyler's handsome face from the side.' This man is not really as unreasonable she thought he was an unreasonable man who only cared about his beloved woman. He was so dumb

From the looks of it, it was not what she thought.

When she was being framed and accused of being a thief, he was the first one who stepped out to help her.

Although there was a big loophole in Maria's plan, Vicky had to admit it was near perfection. The loophole in the plan was from a logical point of view. Maria did not search for her bracelet before she insisted Vicky was the one who had taken her bracelet.

The perfection in the plan was Maria knew everyone was waiting to see Vicky fall. That was why the loophole in the plan was automatically being ignored.

Missus Mills told Vicky that every time Harvey's name was mentioned, Tyler would be angry. Under normal situations, the angry Tyler would not notice this small loophole and lash out at her in front of everyone. The way Tyler treated her in public would determine her ending.

Perhaps, Maria was trying to use the point on how Vicky still has feelings for Harvey to trigger Tyler. It was supposed to be perfect how Maria manipulated a person's feelings.

However, Maria did not know Vicky had lost her memory. Tyler knew it, so naturally, he knew Vicky did not remember Maria and Harvey.

Spread the love

Chapter 59

Obviously, Tyler was not stupid enough to run through old sh*t with a woman who lost her memory. Maria's wishful thinking did not come true.

However...

Vicky looked out the window at the dark sky. She remembered the final part of her conversation with Missus Mills. She asked, "Where is Harvey now?"

Missus Mills shook her head, "I'm sorry. I don't know either. After what happened, he was completely off the radar. No one knows if he is still alive or dead."

Vicky was starting to be more curious about the memory she had lost. She was so eager to get her memory back that she took a day and went back to the hospital to do an examination..

However, the result was still the same. She was disappointed.

The doctor advised her, "If you are in a hurry to remember the past, you can try hypnotization."

"Hypnotization?"

doctor nodded and said, "But you lost your memory because you were in a car crash, not because your mind blocked your memory was surprised. "Is there any difference between those two is just a mental issue. You did not actually forget about you were in a car crash. It was caused by something else. It is hard to say...if hypnotizing could help you regain your memory."

"I'll consider it."

treatment room, she accidentally saw a familiar person entering another treatment room. The person was no walked further and saw Sasha playing with hurt her leg previously. Looking at today's date, her leg should have recovered by now. Most likely, smiled. "Sasha, met, their eyes blazed with hate. She was reminded of the humiliation she experienced when she saw Vicky. Her eyes turn pointed at Vicky and cursed, "You b*tch! So shameless of you to seduce Tyler with a bitter trick!"

the one who offers me the opportunity? Without your with Tyler be so good? Oh, yes..."

Vicky smiled at Sasha. "Didn't you use to go to Hart Corporation as you like? I've been accompanying Tyler there these few days, but I didn't see you at all. Have you been busy?"

"You have been...accompanying Tyler in Hart Corporation?"

After being stunned for a few seconds, Sasha realized something. She scolded, "You b*tch! You must be the one who disallowed them to let me in! Aren't you?"

She did go to Hart Corporation to look for Tyler a few times lately. In the past, the front desk would just let her in. For some reason, they disallowed her to go up because the company policy stated only people with appointments were allowed to enter.

They even requested her to call Tyler or Tyler's assistant so they could allow her to enter.

Ever since Vicky nearly drowned after being pushed by her, Tyler never accepted her call anymore. That was why she had failed to contact Tyler for a long time, let alone go into Tyler's office.

However...

Spread the love

Chapter 60

Sasha did not realize Vicky could enter Hart Corporation and even accompanied Tyler there just within a month. When she met Vicky and Tyler in the hallway last time, she already felt something was different between those two. The move she tried on Vicky actually helped to close the gap between Vicky and Tyler.

Vicky said calmly, but the things she said could easily cause Sasha to go mad.

"I wonder if Miss Sasha heard that Tyler and I are getting better together. A few days ago, someone tried to accuse me of stealing. In the end, Tyler was the one who helped me out and also taught a lesson to the girl.

who bullied me."

She thought for a while and continued, "Oh, I think that girl's name is Maria Sparks... The girl who caused your cousin, Sheila, to injure her leg. If I remember correctly, Tyler did not do anything to Maria when Sheila was hurt. Right?"

Showing off in broad daylight!

a gush of blood was rushing up her throat. She did hear about it, and the way of the guests at the dinner party because of Vicky and having those guests apologize

She pretended to be the winner of the fight and looked at Sasha from a condescending angle accountable for what you did last time, not because you were lucky and not because Sheila put in the good words for you. It was because I never wanted to bother about it. But if there's a next time, was a simple-minded person. A string in her mind broke when again while sitting in he had breakfast with Vicky, she told him she was going to the hospital for a follow-up check. Perhaps she would not have the time to prepare lunch for him or they could go said she would be there before lunchtime. However, it was already past one was not here yet, and she did not even give things. It was normal for him to forget to take his lunch when he got busy. It had always been like this for over it was not even a month, and he was already not getting slender and long fingers tapped on the table and created tapping sounds. He looked at his quiet phone and picked it up. When he was about

Before he could say anything, Harry came in directly with a troubled face. "Mister Hart, something bad happened to Missus Hart!"

When Tyler was on the way to the hospital, Vicky was still in the emergency room. On their way to the hospital, Harry quickly debriefed Tyler on what had happened.

"I heard Missus Hart had a fight with a woman in the hospital and fell down the staircase..."

The reason Harry would know about it first was that he was the one who did the discharge procedure the last time Vicky was discharged from the hospital. He also left his phone number with the hospital.

Vicky was a beautiful woman and very easygoing. She gave the doctor in the hospital a great impression. The doctor remembered her name, and that was why Harry was contacted.

Tyler asked, "Then what about the woman Vicky had a fight with?"

"She ran away after that. But..." Harry looked at Tyler intimidatingly and stuttered. "I already sent someone to check her information. She's..."

Spread the love