

The Ex-Husband's Revenge

The Ex-Husband's Revenge chapter 2519-Why you!" Felton glared daggers at Leon.

Leon first purchased all fifteen herbs for 287 million, and now he raised the price for the Rainbow Flower to 650 million.

That added up to a total of over 800 million, which rivaled what most families earn for a year.

He could not understand how a mere vice president had access to so much money.

However, judging from the calm look on Leon's face, 650 million was not the maximum price he could afford. On the other hand, this was the best Felton could do.

Even if he stubbornly raised the price further, there was no way that he could win against Leon.

Soon, he realized that there was no point in competing against Leon when the financial capability of Cynthion Group surpassed his imagination.

An idea flashed in his mind and he turned to Jaxon instead." Miser Feaks, this Rainbow Flower means a lot to us. I'm willing to pay 520 million to purchase it.

So long as you agree to sell it to me, I'll owe you a favor. If you or your family need help in the future, I'll do my best to help! If you refuse, you are on your own when something happens."

His tone carried a hint of threat.

Since he could not rival Leon in terms of money, he could only try and convince Jaxon.

Jaxon was the owner of the Rainbow Flower and so long as Jaxon agreed to sell it to Felton, Leon would not obtain it no matter how much he offered.

Felton was not concerned about getting rejected by Jaxon.

The Feaks were moderately influential in the western region and could not hold a candle to the Farmers.

If Jaxon knew what was best for him, he would not dare to deny this request as crossing him would only cause his family to suffer.

Sensing the threat in Felton's words, Leon instantly noticed his intention and shot Felton a contemptuous look. "How shameless of you to threaten others!"

Ignoring Felton, Leon turned to Jaxon. "Mister Feaks, I'm willing to pay 650 million for this flower. If that's not enough for you, I don't mind paying more. So long as you agree to sell me the Rainbow Flower, you can request anything that's within my power," Leon said earnestly, hoping that his sincerity could move Jaxon into selling him the flower.

"Well," Jaxon was at a crossroads.

His family was hardly the most powerful family there was and even the strongest martial artist in his family was only in the Semi-Almighty State.

A Rainbow Flower could help martial artists get through the barriers in the Almighty State. Keeping it for his grandfather or other elders would only be a waste. Hence, it seemed ideal for him to sell it to Leon or Felton.

However, he only had one Rainbow Flower and could not possibly sell it to them both.

Leon and Felton competed against one another since they met. If he sold the Rainbow Flower to Leon and crossed Felton, the Feaks would surely suffer for it.

However, Leon was Renee's boyfriend and the vice president of a company that held valuable alchemical pills.

It would not be beneficial to him if he sold the Rainbow Flower to Felton and cross Leon either. Instantly, he was rendered helpless and did not know what to do.

Mister Wolf, Mister Farmer, I'm sorry. The Rainbow Flower is too rare and I can't decide if we are going to sell it! I'll need my grandfather's approval. Please give me three days. I'll ask my grandfather about it and if he agrees to sell it, I'll inform you two," Jaxon said.

This was just a temporary solution so that he did not cross Leon or Felton.

“Um, fine!” Felton considered it and nodded.

Though Jaxon did not agree to sell the Rainbow Flower to him, he did not sell it to Leon either, so he could accept this as a temporary solution.

His father, the Western Boss, was the ruler of the underground community and his influence was unrivaled. So long as Jaxon did not sell the flower to Leon, Felton could simply get his father to pressure the Feaks into selling the Rainbow Flower.

Considering the Western Boss’s power and influence, the Feaks would not dare to defy him. The Rainbow Flower would fall in their hands eventually so there seemed to be no reason to rush.

“Um, alright!” Leon said hesitantly.

He was wise enough to notice that Jaxon was stalling.

However, it was reasonable that Jaxon refused to sell the Rainbow Flower to protect himself. Since it belonged to Jaxon, Leon could not force him to sell it or he would be no different from Felton.

Jaxon was relieved that both Leon and Felton accepted his suggestion and announced the end of the bouquet. “Alright. Thank you all for your support! I hereby announce that the bouquet has come to an end.”

With the bouquet ending, everyone was still reluctant to leave.

They all witnessed the miraculous effect of Cynthion Group’s alchemical pills and even had the pleasure of viewing a heavenly herb.

This was a trip worth the time.

Cynthion Group held great potential and whichever family managed to work with it would surely profit.

For some reason, the Morrisons and Cynthion Group had yet to reach an agreement.

Leon already promised that he would choose someone else to work with if his negotiation with the Morrisons fell apart. This was undoubtedly a perfect chance for them.

They all realized they needed to hurry home and report this to their seniors in the hope that their family could collaborate with Cynthion Group.

With that thought in mind, people started to leave.

“Brat, you have some guts to defy me again and again! I won’t forget this. Just wait!” Felton shot Leon a malicious look, before leaving with his bodyguards.

He knew that Leon offended Felton. The bouquet ended and Felton was upset with Leon before he left. Hence, Jensen was worried that Felton might plot to harm Leon.

To thank Leon for the alchemical pill he gave, Jensen intended to escort Leon back with Renee. With the two of them alongside him, he should be safe.

“It’s fine! Thank you for offering, Mister Daglesh! I have something else to handle, so you should leave first,” Leon shook his head.

have anything to fear from Felton. Even if Felton was plotting something, there was no way he could harm Leon.

Because of that, Leon was not at all concerned about Felton. His true concern was the Rainbow Flower.

Felton was supported by the influential Farmers, whereas he was merely an outsider with no backers.

Once he left the venue and missed the chance to purchase the Rainbow Flower, the Western Boss and Felton would surely pressure the Feaks into selling it to them.

When that happened, it would be impossible for Leon to obtain it and this was not what he wanted.

Hence, he intended to speak to Jaxon in private after Felton left to see if he could purchase the flower.

Once he obtained the Rainbow Flower, even the Western Boss would struggle to take it away from him. That would be the safest option.

“Something else? Sure. I’ll leave for now then,” Jensen said thoughtfully.

He did not know what Leon needed to do, but he did not need help. If that was the case, he should not overstay his welcome. Hence, he said goodbye to Renee and Leon and left.

After he left, Leon turned to look at Renee and Ariella.

He came with Renee, Ariella, and Jacob. Since Leon and Renee did not leave, the other two stayed as well.

“Miss Morrison, there’s something that I need to discuss with Mister Feaks! You and Miss Oxford should head back,” Leon said.

“Um, forget it, I’m staying here and leaving with you later. Ariella, you and Jacob should head home,” Renee said to Ariella.

After the conflict between Felton and Leon, Renee could tell that Felton had developed a deep resentment toward Leon. She was worried that Felton would harm Leon and could not possibly leave Leon behind.

Hence, she intended to wait until Leon was done and send him back to the hotel safely.

“Sure! Renee, Mister Wolf, we’ll leave now!” Ariell said and left with Jacob.

Soon, Renee, Leon, Jaxon, and a few bodyguards were the only people left in the hall.

Leon did not mind that Renee insisted on staying.

He only stayed behind to discuss the Rainbow Flower with Jaxon and it was not exactly top secret.

Since Renee wanted to wait, he decided to let her be.

“Mister Feaks, are you free now? There’s something I’d like to discuss with you.”

Leon approached Jaxon, who was commanding the guards to clean up.

Renee followed closely behind.

“Mister Wolf? What do you need?” Jaxon asked in confusion before ordering the guards to keep going and approaching Leon and Renee.

“I want to talk about the Rainbow Flower. I hope that you can sell it to me,” Leon said sincerely.

“I-” Jaxon was momentarily taken aback when he realized that Leon stayed behind for the Rainbow Flower.

Renee, too, was confused as to why Leon refused to leave and realized that Leon wanted to purchase the Rainbow Flower behind Felton’s back.

“Mister Wolf, I’m sorry, but I’ve mentioned that I need to speak with my grandfather about selling the Rainbow Flower. If he agrees to sell it, I’ll inform you in three days.” Jaxon smiled apologetically.

He only refrained from selling the flower to Leon to avoid crossing Felton.

Though Felton already left, the Fenners’ power was formidable and Jaxon dared not to sell the Rainbow Flower to Leon in secret.

If Felton was offended by it afterward, both Jaxon and his family would suffer and he was not that foolish.

“Mister Feaks, don’t rush to reject me! You can make your decision after hearing my terms out!” Leon said confidently.

He knew that Jaxon was wary of the Fermers’ power and dared not to sell the Rainbow Flower to him. On top of that, as an ancient lineage of doctors, the Feaks were not short on money, so there was no amount of money he could offer to change Jaxon’s mind.

However, Leon had far more than money to offer. So long as he offered something tempting enough, he was certain that he could convince Jaxon.

“What terms?” Jaxon was slightly baffled by his confidence.

“You’ve already witnessed the power of the Motherwort Pill! The most powerful pills in Cynthion Group for the moment are the Sun Pills and Motherwort Pills.

The Motherwort Pills enhance the power of martial artists who possess dark energy or train with dark methods. The Sun Pills enhance the power of martial artists who possess light energy or train with light methods. If it's okay with you, I can offer three Sun Pills, money, and other pills like Premium Energy Nurturing Pills in exchange for the Rainbow Flower," Leon explained.

"Sun Pills? Are you saying that this pill can enhance my power and get me past multiple barriers?" Jaxon was shocked.

Though the Feaks were not a lineage of martial artists and Jaxon did not reach On top of that, the Feaks were never short on herbs and with the help of multiple rare herbs, he long reached the Intermediate Overlord State and was The Sun Pill worked similarly to the Motherwort pill and could enhance the power of martial artists who possess light energy or train with light methods. It overcome multiple barriers and rise to the Emperor State as Renee did.

That way, he would rival Jensen and other younger martial artists.

Jaxon did not reach thirty yet and the sooner he reached the Emperor State, the more potential he would open up for the future.

This immediately caught his attention and he was tempted by Leon's offering.

"That's right. The Sun Pill can help martial artists in the Overlord or Emperor State past multiple barriers and they work well for martial artists in the Semi Almighty and Almighty States as well! If someone in the Semi-Almighty State takes the Sun Pill, it's almost guaranteed that they will get to the Almighty State!

If someone in the Almighty State takes it, it'll help increase the probability of a breakthrough when used properly." Leon nodded.

He was hardly lying.

Back in the southern region, John, Angus, and Henry were all in the Semi Almighty State and all reached the Almighty State with the help of the Sun Pills.

the help of the Sun Pills, they both reached the Peak Almighty State.

These were proof of just how powerful the Sun Pills were.

such limitations, even the most powerful martial artists in the family stopped at the SemiAlmighty State and could not get any further.

With that considered, using a heavenly herb on themselves would be a waste.

However, the Sun Pills were different as they rivaled supreme spiritual herbs in terms of effect.

If Jaxon was willing to accept three Sun Pills and other alchemical pills in exchange for the Rainbow Flower, this would produce three martial artists in the Almighty State in his family.

This would fit perfectly into their needs. Hence, Leon felt that trading with the precious Sun Pills seemed most tempting.
