

Chapter 1648 It's Just How I Am

---

Sean hesitated for a long time, his uncharacteristic reaction making Janet's suspicions grow. An ominous feeling sprung in her heart, growing steadily by the moment.

It had only been a suspicion at first, but Sean's reaction was as good a confirmation as any. By now, Janet was sure that Brandon had definitely encountered trouble when he dealt with Jeremy. He must have come up with this idea to not make her worry.

At the same time, Janet knew that nothing would come out of pressing Sean. He was as loyal as they came, and nothing would make him disobey Brandon's orders.

Janet stared at the cars in front of her and answered Sean on the phone, "I'm following the cars."

As she spoke, she caught a glimpse of the words "West Road" on the road sign. She continued, "I'm on West Road now."

Her words took Sean by surprise.

She didn't hear Sean's answer. To make herself more credible, she fixed her eyes on the license plates of the cars.

"A6823, A6824... Are these your plate numbers?" Janet didn't give him the time to deny it. Her tone grew stern as she continued, "I know it's you. Tell Brandon to answer the phone."

On the other side of the call, Sean was too scared to speak. His eyes widened as he listened to Janet say the location and list off the plate numbers.

He was about to give in. However, Brandon was sitting right next to him the entire time without saying anything, and Sean didn't dare to bypass his orders.

Sean turned his head and glanced at the rearview mirror. Just as Rosalynn said, he saw

Chapter 1648 It's Just How I Am  +120 Points at most a car trailing close from behind.

That could only be Janet. She had caught up with them.

Timidly, he looked at Brandon, wordlessly pleading for his help. Sean's breath was starting to quicken in his fear.

To make things worse, Janet seemed to only grow more insistent. Her voice came from the other end of the phone again. "Sean, Brandon is in the car with you, right?"

Sean didn't answer, but Janet didn't wait for his response.

"Tell him that I'm worried. If I didn't see him, he could do whatever he wanted. However, we did meet, and I will follow him wherever he goes. It's just how I am."

Sean pleaded, "Please don't make things any more difficult. You're putting me in a tight spot. Just go back and rest. You have my word that Mr. Larson will come back home tonight unharmed."

"I won't change my mind no matter what you say," Janet said firmly. She was about to hang up the phone without waiting for Sean's answer.

But Sean moved faster. Before she could end the call, he quickly put the phone on speaker and handed it to Brandon.

He looked at Brandon with helpless eyes, as if telling him not to drag him into his problems. Janet was as tough as nails, and he didn't want to get on her bad side.

Without checking for Brandon's reaction, Sean put the phone in his hand.

Only then was he able to breathe a sigh of relief. He made a show of looking out the window, acting as if nothing had happened. At this moment, he almost wished he was anywhere but here.