

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1711 – 1715

Chapter 1711

“This one.....”

When Hiroshi Tanaka faced Ito’s problem, he immediately fell into a dilemma.

How should I answer?

Can the answer come back?

If you don’t come back by any chance, do you have to take the blame?

Will the answer come back?

Even if it was Ito Takehiko, he would run away immediately!

It seems that this question is really difficult to answer.

Seeing that he was stubbornly speechless, Ito shook his heart, and blurted out, “You don’t think that 80% chance for the money is that it will not come back, right?”

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly explained: “It’s not that there is no hope. I don’t think we need to be so pessimistic. It should be 50-50!”

“Fifty-fifty?” Ito Takehiko said angrily, “What the h*ll is this difference between not telling me and being so ambiguous?”

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: “President, there are indeed many uncertainties in this matter. I am not ready to make a conclusion now, but don’t forget, no matter how bad, we can still solve the problem through litigation.”

“Litigation?” Ito pointed at Hiroshi Tanaka and cursed: “You let the dog eat your brain? Eiki was abolished by Charlie in the street and has become the laughing stock of all Japan. If I f*cking sue him for usurping my money wouldn’t it be even more laughed at by the whole of Japan if we don’t give 100 million?!”

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: “Mr. President, this is 4.5 billion USD. We can’t really let it go because we are afraid of being laughed at? The whole family’s annual net profit can’t reach this number...”

“Yeah...” Ito said in a painful voice: “The recent economic downturn, our overall net profit last year was only more than 300 million USD. If there is not much improvement this year, maybe it will be even less.”

For large families or large companies, losses are common.

For example, the domestic Zotye Automobile, their financial report shows that they have lost more than 10 billion in a year in 2019.

The American General Motors Corporation, which is also in the automotive industry, has suffered losses due to poor management for years. In GM’s 100-year history, the worst year is a direct loss of 38.7 billion USD!

The international economic situation has been cold in the past two years, and the pressure on Ito Takehiko has been even greater.

In this sluggish market environment, the development prospects of medical and health companies are actually the broadest, because people may not buy cars or houses, but they have to buy medicines.

Because of this, he decided to do everything possible to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Unexpectedly, he stepped into a deep pit.

Now that 4.5 billion fell into the pit and he can’t get it back, I remember him scratching his heart.

Seeing that Ito was extremely depressed, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly persuaded: “My lord, in fact, you don’t have to worry about it now. We are different from the Takahashi family. The Takahashi family doesn’t even know who Charlie is, but we at least know him more. On the bottom line, knowing that he is the current owner of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and he is in Aurous Hill, China, and he stepped back and said that even if we had to meet each other in the end, we would be able to find him. The Takahashi family is different. They may not even be able to find him.”

“Yes!” Ito Takehiko suddenly felt his eyes light up and blurted out: “I just want them to not find him! As long as they can’t find Charlie, they will always be the laughing stock of Japan! Hahaha, so funny!”

After that, Ito Takehiko stood up immediately, lit another cigar excitedly, and took a sip, then smiled and said, “Tanaka, in my name, send a bunch of flowers and a fruit to the Takahashi family. The basket should go over and say it is sympathy and meant to disgust them! Hahaha!”

Chapter 1712

“OK, President!”

At this moment, Nanako, who is far away in Kyoto, is still sitting in the courtyard waiting for the heavy snow, and doesn’t know if it will come.

There was a sudden vibration from the phone in her pocket. After she opened it, she found that it was a push notification popped up by the app, with the title: “Eiki was beaten up in the street by someone in Tokyo, and his arms abolished!”

Nanako couldn’t help being surprised, and thought to herself: “Eiki is very famous in Tokyo, why would anyone act on him in the street?”

However, she didn’t have much interest in Eiki, and didn’t want to care about this gossips, so she didn’t click on it.

However, as soon as the screen of the phone was locked, it immediately lit up again, and it was a push from another app. The title was similar to the one just now, except that this one added: "The mysterious man is superb and can be called the god of war!"

Nanako, who has a deep love for fighting and martial arts, immediately cheered up.

She really wanted to see how powerful the mysterious person who was called the god of war by the Japanese media really is!

Later, she turned on the phone and played the video.

Charlie was surrounded by the crowd, and when she couldn't see anyone, Nanako felt very calm.

When several people were quickly knocked into the air, her expression showed unconcealable shock, and she murmured: "Eiki's bodyguard can't be a waiting person. It can be seen that this person is really strong!"

Then, she suddenly uttered an ah, the phone couldn't be held firmly, and it fell to the ground with a snap.

She hurriedly bent over to pick it up. Fortunately, the ground in the yard was not hard and the phone was not damaged.

So she picked up the phone and couldn't wait to continue to look at it, her expression became more horrified and excited!

She blurted out excitedly: "Master Wade...It's really Master Wade!"

At this time, Nanako has become a star chaser girl.

And Charlie is her natal idol!

Therefore, as long as she saw Charlie, she couldn't hide the excitement in her heart!

What's more, Charlie in the video is so elegant, so chic, and so domineering!

Nanako, who has always been as quiet as still water, got up, the nymph0 who couldn't control it, and said to herself in surprise: "Master Wade is really handsome and powerful! This kind of strength is indeed a master of martial arts! No wonder! Can beat Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei with a single palm. With his strength, even if five Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei attacks him at the same time, I am afraid it will be difficult to win!"

With the extreme excitement of the young woman, Nanako watched the video several times over and over again. At this moment, she couldn't wait to rush back to Tokyo immediately and try her best to meet Charlie!

However, after a while, she gave up the idea again.

She knew that after Charlie abolished Eiki, he would have to face the Takahashi family's targeting, and her father also has conflicts with him. If she went to him at this time, let alone whether he had the energy to see her. Just going to see him by her is likely to bring trouble to him!

Nanako looked at the sky and murmured: "I only hope that Master Wade can leave Tokyo in peace. As for whether I can see him again, his safety is far more important than my wish. I hope God will bless him and Master Wade will never meet danger....."

Chapter 1713

That night.

The whole Tokyo runaway group united unprecedentedly.

In the past, they were fighting each other, even competing, antagonizing, and fighting each other while guarding a site. Now they all have become comrades-in-arms.

Everyone held hands together and searched through the carpet, just to find the whereabouts of the mysterious man who abolished Eiki.

However, the instruction they received was not to hack the man, but to report his whereabouts to the Takahashi family immediately.

As long as the exact clue is found, one million will be given.

The mobsters usually don't have many opportunities to make money. They either collect some protection fees on Red-Light Street, or they are doing some chicken business, and their income is actually very low.

In Japan, how can you be considered a successful mobster?

In fact, it's very simple. It is enough to have a large displacement motorcycle.

Because in the eyes of the rioters, a good motorcycle is simply the standard equipment for the successful rioters.

It's like an ancient warrior has a good horse.

However, most of the mobsters barely make ends meet, and simply cannot afford the cost of large-displacement motorcycles. Therefore, they have to walk, or take buses or subways, to fight with others on the streets.

As for why not to take a taxi, it is because the taxi fare in Japan is surprisingly expensive. The mobsters go out for a fight. Before they get to the place, the taxi fare may have been over 1,000, far exceeding their consumption ability.

Because of this, they are desperate for money.

One million, even if it is divided among several people or dozens of people, it is a very objective figure in the hands of individuals.

Therefore, these rioters all took to the street with their own brains, holding their mobile phones, while playing the video of Eiki being beaten, while looking for Charlie in the video.

But they didn't dare to search with great fanfare, they only dared to search with their eyes quietly, because they knew that this man was incredibly powerful. If you see him, you must not hesitate, turn around and run, and report to the Takahashi family while running. That's it.

At the same time, several ninjutsu masters enshrined by the Takahashi family also penetrated into the night wearing night clothes.

They are extremely good at concealing body shape and breath, and they are very good at secretly searching and tracking. They are one of the few masters who can truly pass by without leaving marks.

For top ninjutsu masters, it is completely possible for people to run in front and let top police dogs chasing behind. In a few steps, the police dogs will lose all clues.

However, although they are good at hiding their whereabouts, when it comes to attacking power, they are still much worse than Chinese martial arts masters and internal masters.

But then again, although their absolute strength may not be comparable to China's domestic masters, their overall combat effectiveness should not be underestimated.

Because they are very good at using fatal blows, such as very good at using poisoned daggers, darts, and blow arrows. They like sneak attacks and give opponents a surprise nirvana.

Therefore, if the average master is slightly less vigilant, it is really possible that they will follow their way, and maybe they will die when it is unclear.

The task of these ninjutsu masters is to find Charlie and monitor him secretly. After the Su family leaves Japan, or before Charlie leaves Japan, they will kill him.

Chapter 1714

However, it was not easy for these ninjutsu masters to find him. Charlie left no clues at the scene. They could only check Charlie's whereabouts through the Tokyo monitoring system first.

late at night.

The first batch of raw materials prepared by Qin Gang arrived in Tokyo.

After the plane landed, it was unloaded and cleared immediately, and then shipped to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at the fastest speed.

Since Liang and Ichiro have been training at the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Tokyo production base for a day, after the raw materials arrived at the base, they immediately entered the factory and started producing JX Weisan.

In addition, Liang followed Charlie's request and applied to the Japanese Drug Administration to directly change the name of Kobayashi Weisan to JX Weisan.

In this way, after successful trial production, JX Weisan can be put on the market directly in Japan and in the countries where their Weisan has covered it.

During the trial production, Issac asked his subordinates to drive him and come to Ichiro's house to pick Charlie to the scene.

As soon as Charlie got on the car, Issac said nervously: "Master why were you choking with the young master of the Takahashi family?"

Charlie frowned and asked, "How did you know?"

Issac hurriedly said: "Someone took a video of you teaching him and posted it on the Internet. Now it's spread all over Japan! You are hot in Japan!"

Charlie frowned: "It has been spread throughout Japan within two hours?"

Issac helplessly: "Master think about how fast the cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming was spread on our domestic short video platform! We have more than one billion people in China, and that cross talk is not half It's been all over the country within just a few hours..."

Charlie shrugged and said, "After all, our domestic Internet industry is very powerful, but is the Japanese Internet so developed?"

Issac sighed and said, "Master even if Japan hasn't done much in the past few years, it is still an established developed country. Although their Internet is not as developed as ours, the video entertainment sector is still good. Young people have nothing to do all day long, except for drinking, eating and shopping, just playing with mobile phones."

As he said, he pointed to a few young boys walking side by side on the side of the road outside the window, and said, "Master look at those little b@stards. They just walked and looked at the phone. He didn't even take the road to watch. Several people in Tokyo get kill several times a day. I guess the eight achievements of these people are watching your video!"

Charlie asked, "Do you have any Japanese short video app? Find out and let me see it."

Issac hurriedly took out his phone, found out the video and passed it to Charlie: "Look, master."

Charlie looked at the video and found that he was blurry in the video. This was a relief, and said: "Fortunately, the filming is not very clear, otherwise it will be troublesome if an acquaintance sees it. I still talked to my wife before I came. It was about coming to Japan to help people watch Feng Shui. If she sees this video, she must ask me what happened."

Issac said: "You can rest assured that this app is not compatible with ours in China, and Japanese short videos have no influence in our country."

Charlie asked him: "Are you sure?"

Issac nodded: "Yes, on our domestic short video platform, there are only a small number of people who are doing content. Most of the rest are copied and copied by a bunch of birdmen. One piece is hot, they can't wait for it. Ten thousand people plagiarize, and there is either a bunch of ugly and poor stinky silks playing the rich second generation, or a bunch of scammers selling some broken fish and shrimp lives on the beach."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Regardless of these people, you call Stephen, this video of mine can't be circulated to China in any case."

"OK Master!"

Chapter 1715

Under Liang's overall management, the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals quickly produced the finished Powder.

Charlie came to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's production base in the suburbs of Tokyo and personally did a quality inspection. After confirming that the newly produced JX

Weisan was no different from the JX Weisan produced in Aurous Hill, he told Liang: “Liang, you must ensure that the Tokyo production line maintains the current speed, work overtime, keep people, don’t shut down the machine, and quickly produce a large number of finished products.”

“Okay Master!” Liang nodded immediately and asked, “By the way, Master, when will our JX Weisan be officially launched in Japan?”

Charlie said: “Don’t worry about the official launch. We have to debug the production lines in Yokohama, Nagoya, and Osaka, and then accumulate a batch of finished products. At the same time, we must also prepare to advertise in Japan for consumers even in Asia. Everyone knows that Kobayashi’s Weisan has been fully upgraded, the name has been changed to JX Weisan, and the prescription has been enhanced. The effect is at least ten times the previous one. After the campaign is completed, sales will begin.”

Liang hurriedly said: “OK, Master, after I have sorted out the production lines, I will immediately start to promote things.”

Charlie snorted and said, “Since the trial production has been successful here, we can go to Yokohama tomorrow.”

Liang nodded and said, “Master, I will leave an engineer here to supervise. Let’s leave early tomorrow morning!”

Charlie turned to Ichiro next to him and said: “Give you a chance to come back. You must take good care of it. Whether you can rest easy in your life next depends on how you perform in Japan. These production lines must be given to you. Manage it well, otherwise, I will cut off your dividends and let you drink Northwest Wind.”

Now, Ichiro has given 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical’s shares to Charlie, and his remaining 10% will not play a decisive role in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

As the majority shareholder of Absolute Holdings, Charlie has all decision-making powers over the company.

In other words, if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical makes 10 billion this year, Charlie wants to withdraw all the profits of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and transfer it to JX Pharmaceutical, Ichiro has nothing to do.

When the time comes, all profits will be taken away, and naturally he won't be able to pay him a dime in dividends, and he will have nothing to do.

Therefore, his best choice now is to honestly work for Charlie. In this way, after Charlie asks Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to make money through the production of JXwei Powder, he will also generously release a portion of the profit dividend to him. Make sure that he can enjoy the rich life in Japan without worrying about money for the rest of his life.

Ichiro has been imprisoned in the kennel for a long time in the dark, so he can be said to cherish his current life very much. Seeing Charlie said this, he hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry, Ichiro will be your dog in the future. , Wherever you let me go, I will go, whatever you ask me to do, I will do it!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction.

Seeing that the on-site production is in order and the production quality is up to the standard, Charlie did not stay too much. He said to Issac and Liang: "Okay, let's go back to rest and go to Yokohama tomorrow."

.....

When leaving Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, Issac walked quickly ahead and helped Charlie open the car door.

Charlie was about to get into the car, and when he first stepped one leg into the car, his figure suddenly stopped for a few seconds.

Issac asked hurriedly, "Master what's wrong?"

Charlie frowned slightly, then said calmly: "It's okay, let's go."

After speaking, he got into the car.

Subsequently, the convoy drove away from the scene neatly.

At this time, on the roof of a building opposite Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, four men in black were lying side by side.
