

Married At First Sight Chapter 2965

Married At First Sight Chapter 2965-Tania said quickly, "Seren, you have to be happy. If Zachary dares to make you angry, tell me, and I will teach him a lesson. The most important thing for you right now is your health."

Serenity and her pregnant daughter-in-law were more important than her son, Zachary.

The child in Serenity's belly was the grandchild Tania had been looking forward to for a long time. Whether it was a grandson or a granddaughter, it was the first grandchild and was special in the hearts of Tania and Liam.

Tania could understand Grandma May's feelings for Zachary.

As the first grandchild and the next-generation relative, it was natural that Grandma May loved Zachary the most.

Serenity smiled and said, "Mom, Zachary and I haven't had any conflicts for a long time, and he won't have any conflicts with me now. Mom, don't worry."

When they first got married, because they had no emotional foundation and Zachary had some misunderstandings about her, thinking that she had some agenda and coaxing her grandma into forcing him to marry her, the couple was prone to conflicts.

When lovers in love become husband and wife and live together, there will also be a running-in period.

Not to mention that she and Zachary had a flash marriage.

Thinking that Zachary was a maniac who doted on his wife, Tania smiled: "That's right, I'm not worried. Zachary has always doted on you and will not have any conflicts with you. Seren, you said, If Tatum becomes a chef, is it really to chase his wife? I asked Tatum who he was going to be a home cook for, but he refused to tell me. He kept it secret like that. I thought it was possible that he was chasing his wife."

Tania believed that Tatum became a home cook because he wanted to pursue his wife after Serenity enlightened her.

However, Tania didn't feel at ease until he didn't know whose family Tatum would work as a chef for.

"Tatum refused to say it. There are two reasons. One is that he may be afraid that his mother will cause damage and prevent him from going to work, and the other is that he really wants to chase his wife. When Zachary comes back in the evening, I will tell Zachary and go find out. Just ask the family where Tatum is going to work if there is a daughter of marriageable age."

"Yes, yes, yes, let Zachary come forward and inquire. Tatum listens to Zachary very much. He will tell Zachary whatever is on his mind. He rarely talks to me. He talks more to his father than to me. Alas, this is what happens when you give birth to a son. When the son grows up, he will be closer to his father."

"A daughter is still considerate. I don't have the life of a daughter. Come on, Seren. It's the same with giving me a granddaughter. I'm in good health and can live until my granddaughter gets married. I'll enjoy my granddaughter's tenderness, consideration, and understanding. It makes up for the loss of not having a daughter."

Serenity's smile froze, and she said, "Mom, I can't guarantee this. I have nothing to do with having children. The decision lies with Zachary."

Tania: "Yes, it has nothing to do with us women."

Both mother-in-law and daughter-in-law were a little embarrassed when talking about this topic.

Tania quickly changed the subject and said, "I don't know what kind of wife your grandma has chosen for Tatum."

"She must be very good and suitable for Tatum. Grandma often travels around and to so many places. She has thousands of choices to choose from, and she won't pick the bad one."

Grandma May specifically targeted Hayden from Jensburg.

No one in Jensburg knew that Hayden was a woman.

Grandma May found out and targeted Hayden as her granddaughter-in-law. Now, Kevin is about to win the beauty.

In order to help Kevin clear his name as a homos*xual, Hayden publicly wore women's clothing and admitted that she was a woman.

She and Kevin were together. It was the most normal relationship. It was not homos*xuality that was not accepted by the world. They didn't know how many girls' hearts were broken.

"Yes, I believe in your grandma's vision." Tania still trusted her mother-in-law.

In the past, she felt that Grandma May had treated Zachary badly and forced Zachary to marry Serenity.

Now, Tania has fully accepted Serenity as her daughter-in-law.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2966-In the future, Tania could also slowly train Serenity, teach Serenity little by little about the inner affairs of the York family, and then hand it over to Serenity so that she, the head wife, could retire.

Serenity was also willing to learn and study seriously.

Serenity was also motivated and ambitious, so she was quite suitable for Zachary. Zachary was also an ambitious man.

Of course, the most important thing was that Tania felt that Zachary was already in Serenity's hands, and she could only accept Serenity for her son's happiness.

As long as the son is happy, it doesn't matter where the daughter-in-law is born.

Besides, now that they know that Serenity was originally a descendant of the Farrell family in Jensburg, it's not bad.

When the Farrell family was at its peak, it was considered a match for the York family.

Serenity's aunt, Audrey, was also the wife of a businessman. Her sister, Liberty, also works hard to become stronger and can be Serenity's backer.

Tania appreciated the attitude of her daughter-in-law, Serenity and Liberty, towards life.

As for what others in the upper class said in private, Tania had looked away, as long as those people didn't say it in front of her and didn't let her hear it.

When she heard this, she would definitely vent her anger on her daughter-in-law's behalf.

And everyone knew that Tania was a mother-in-law who protected her daughter-in-law.

"Seren, your second aunt, Rosella, will take Camryn to the banquet in two days, and I will go with her that night. Do you want to come with me?"

After Tania finished speaking, she immediately said, "Forget it; you can take good care of your baby at home. Even if the banquet is not crowded, I'm still worried that some people are not good-looking, and if they bump into your belly, you and your baby will be hurt."

She would regret it for the rest of her life.

Serenity smiled and said, "I'm not worried about that, but Zachary won't let me go. He's very nervous. Mom, I think that on the day I give birth to my baby, Zachary may be so nervous and scared that he faints."

Tania said, "Probably not, but when I gave birth to my child, his father was so nervous that he fainted, whether it was the first or second child."

"When I gave birth to Zachary, his father insisted on accompanying him during the delivery and went into the delivery room with him. He fainted due to his anxiety, and the nurses and doctors had to carry him out. I was in terrible pain at the time. Seeing that he fainted from fright, even I felt hurt, but I wanted to laugh at that time."

Tania still couldn't help but laugh when she mentioned what happened back then.

That scene made her scared and laugh at the same time. Suddenly she saw Liam closing his eyes and falling softly, which frightened her.

Later, she found out that he was overly nervous and was frightened by the scene of a woman giving birth, which was why he fainted. She was amused.

After giving birth to Zachary, Liam felt sorry for her and said he didn't want a second child because he already had a son as his successor.

It was Tania who wanted a daughter and was determined to continue having children.

Who would have known that the couple did not have a daughter, but they were both responsible for the birth, which was so shocking?

Tania said, "Zachary may inherit this from his father. Anyway, when you give birth to the baby, don't agree to Zachary accompanying you during the birth; otherwise, you will be distracted from worrying about him."

Serenity smiled and said, "There is such a thing. I see that Zachary is very nervous now. Sometimes I wake up in the middle of the night and find him staring at my belly. He felt a little uncomfortable, and he looked like the sky was falling."

“On the day when the baby is born, we can’t let him follow him into the delivery room. He might actually faint in there.”
