

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3941

At nine o'clock in the morning, Aurous Hill Airport.

A blond, blue-eyed, tall middle-aged woman stepped out.

This woman looks very beautiful, but the wrinkles at the corners of her eyes can tell that she is no longer young.

She is Kelly West, who is in her fifties.

However, due to the background of a designer, her outfits are very fashionable. If you don't look carefully, you will think that she is only in her early thirties.

When Kelly West walked out of the airport, Claire recognized her at a glance, but Fei Kexin, who looked at her information yesterday, was a bit big head, and didn't respond at once.

However, Kelly West recognized Fei Kexin for the first time, so she waved to her very enthusiastically, and happily shouted: "Mayfair! Here I am!"

Fei Kexin came back to her senses and recognized her, so she pretended to be excited and said, "Kelly! You are finally here!"

While talking, Kelly West had already arrived in front of the two of them.

Claire was like a pupil on the side, too excited to interject, but Fei Kexin pulled her in front of him for the first time and said to Kelly West: "Kelly, this is what I told you on the phone. Said Claire, Ms. Claire, she really likes you!"

As soon as she heard these three words from Ms. Claire, Kelly West realized that she had her mission in mind, so she quickly said to Claire: "Hello, Ms. Claire, I heard Mayfair say that you are too A designer, I am so happy to meet colleagues in China, and to be such a young and beautiful big beauty!"

Claire didn't expect that Kelly West, who she had been afraid to take the initiative to say hello, would ask herself so enthusiastically. She was a little flattered at once, and said quickly, "Wh...Ms. West Hello, I have admired you for a long time and I am glad to see you!"

Kelly West embraced Claire and said with a smile: "Don't be so polite! You are Mayfair's good friend, and my good friend!"

Fei Kexin smiled and said to Claire at this time: "I said that Kaili is very enthusiastic, she is not as big as a well-known designer."

Kelly Weiss nodded her head very kindly, and said to Claire very kindly: "We are all designers, and we must have more common languages, so you must not be so cautious in front of me, just treat me as your best. Like a good friend, I heard from Mayfair that you will be our guide to take us to visit Aurous Hill these days, so that we can also take time to talk about the design experience, and perhaps bring more inspiration to each other. "

Kelly West's words really made Claire very excited, so she hurriedly said: "Ms. West, please rest assured. I am a native of Aurous Hill and I am very familiar with Aurous Hill. I heard that you are here for the first time in China. I will definitely let you experience the Chinese culture and customs as much as possible!"

Kelly West smiled slightly, and said with emotion: "Actually, I visited China once twenty-eight years ago, but that time I went to city."

When Fei Kexin heard this, her heart suddenly became a little annoyed. Kelly West gave skuna the feedback that she had never been to China, and she told Claire that way, so she suddenly changed her mind. Up?

So, before Claire asked this question, Fei Kexin pretended to be surprised and asked: “Kelly, haven’t you been telling me that you haven’t been to china?”

Kelly West realized that she couldn’t help but said something wrong just now, so she quickly explained: “In fact, when I first came to China 30 years ago, I was entrusted to come to China for her. When designing the newly married mansion, the other party is the most important person in my life. At that time, she told me not to disclose anything related to her, so I always declared to the public that I had never been to China.”

Speaking of this, Kelly West couldn’t help but sighed and said sincerely: “That noble person is like a life mentor to me. If it weren’t for her, I wouldn’t be able to have the achievements I am today.”
