

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2566-“It’s true, but Mister Jaxon is severely injured and I have to treat him immediately without further delay.” Leon nodded.

“Great! Hang Jaxon over and we will take him to the nearest hospital!” The Feaks snapped out of it and were all overjoyed.

Since Jaxon was in a critical situation, they intended to send Jaxon to the hospital immediately and could not be bothered to consider if Leon was the culprit.

“Kid, since you said you aren’t responsible for this, you are coming to the hospital with us! Once Jaxon gets better or wakes up, we will let you go once we confirm that you are not the culprit!” Roman added and turned his sharp gaze at Leon.

He knew that Jaxon might be alive, but that did not mean Leon was not the person who attacked him. So long as Leon remained the suspect, he could not let him go.

Hence, Roman intended to take Leon to the hospital and once Jaxon regained consciousness, they would find out if Leon was responsible.

“No! Mister Jaxon is severely injured and there’s no time to send him to the hospital! I’ve already informed you that I can help him, so you don’t need to send him to a hospital,” Leon said.

He realized that the Feaks probably did not hear him due to excitement and repeated himself again.

“What? You are going to treat Jaxon? Are you a doctor?” Roman and the others exchanged baffled looks.

“That’s right. I’m quite well-versed in medicine. I’ve just sealed the circulation around Mister Jaxon’s heart and so long as I start treating him immediately, I’m quite certain that I can wake him,” Leon said.

“Um...That won't be necessary. There's no equipment here so it's safer to send Jaxon to a hospital...” Roman hesitated for a moment and immediately rejected Leon's suggestion.

He did not know how skilled Leon was, but assumed Leon could not be that helpful considering his age.

Jaxon was barely alive and without any medical equipment around, Roman did not think he had the ability to cure Jaxon.

Most importantly, Leon was still a top suspect and there was no way that he would let him treat Jaxon.

If Leon did so recklessly or messed up on purpose, Jaxon would perish for good and there was no way he would treat his grandson's life without caution.

“No! I've told you that Mister Jaxon's condition doesn't allow him to be brought to the hospital. If you insist on doing this, you will end up killing him...” Leon could tell that Roman did not trust him and was displeased.

However, Jaxon's life was on the line and Leon suppressed his frustration to keep convincing Roman in the hope that his advice would be taken seriously.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2567-“Nonsense! We are Jaxon's family and we won't ever harm him. You, on the other hand, keep stopping us from sending him to the hospital. What exactly are you plotting?” Romeo roared.

Like Roman, he also did not believe in Leon's skill and since he firmly believed Leon to be the culprit, there was no way he would hand Jaxon over to Leon.

“Yeah!”

“Kid, if you want to prove your innocence, follow us to the hospital. Don't stop us from sending Jaxon to help!”

“Once the doctor cures Jaxon, he will tell us the truth!”

The two elders agreed along.

Seeing how stubborn they were, Leon was furious. “Why you...”

They first falsely accused him of killing Jaxon and the guards, and now, they were preventing him from treating Jaxon.

Though Leon was often quite tolerant, he was starting to lose patience.

For a moment, he even thought of handing Jaxon over to the Feaks and let them reap what they sow.

However, he knew he could not do such a thing.

Jaxon's survival was the priority at the moment and his injuries were too severe for him to be moved.

If the Feaks moved him, Jaxon would likely die on the way to the hospital.

As a doctor, Leon could not watch as the Feaks got Jaxon killed.

On the other hand, the Feaks insisted that he was the culprit, and if Jaxon died, Leon would likely be blamed, and proving his innocence would only be more challenging.

This was hardly what he wished to see.

"Alright, that's enough! Romeo, send Jaxon to the hospital right now. Elders, get Mister Wolf to come with us. Before he is proven innocent, he is not allowed to move at all." Roman knew that time was of the essence and commanded the others right away.

"Yes!" Romeo ignored Leon and reached out to get Jaxon off the ground.

"Stop! You are going to get him killed! I won't let you do this! " Leon was provoked by their stubbornness. Without hesitation, he waved his arm and sent out a wave of powerful energy that overwhelmed Romeo in an instant.

Baam!

Romeo was caught by surprise and before he had the chance to react, he was sent flying.

Thankfully, Leon held back and he did not suffer any injury.

"Kid, how dare you?" Roman was furious.

He already thought that Leon was responsible, and Leon's action in stopping them from sending Jaxon to the hospital appeared like he was trying to get Jaxon killed on purpose.

Roman refused to let Leon do as he pleased and launched a powerful attack at him without hesitation.

He prepared to defeat Leon first and wait until Jaxon woke up to determine if Leon was the culprit.
