

Chapter 917 Baxter's Plan

When Lenny heard what Baxter had said, he was shocked.

He had indeed been harboring dirty thoughts about Julie. But he never imagined Baxter would openly discuss such a thing.

Baxter's words, however, stirred up Lenny's dark desires.

After a brief hesitation, Lenny asked eagerly, "What's your plan?"

Baxter's grin widened at Lenny's clear interest.

Originally, Lenny wasn't included in his scheme. But Baxter thought involving him might make things smoother, so he looped Lenny in.

Then, he shared his scheme. "Tell Julie you've gotten in touch with the big shots at Joy International Media. Suggest meeting somewhere far away to talk business. Don't worry. Julie's driver is in my father's pocket. My father has also set up a private place for us to take Julie to! I'll handle drugging Julie. When the drug kicks in halfway, the driver will head straight to our spot. By the time Julie gets there, she will be helpless!"

Baxter's eyes gleamed with excitement as he finished.

Lenny was momentarily speechless. Then, with a troubled look, he said, "I can't really set up a meeting with Joy International Media's top executives. I'm not that high up in the company..."

Hearing this, Baxter smirked and replied, "That's just an excuse! Julie won't know whether you can set it up or not. Besides, she'll be out cold on the way! Then, you, me, and my dad will have our fun with her!"

Lenny suddenly understood what Baxter meant.

He quickly picked up on the important part of Baxter's words. Newell, too, had his eyes on Julie.

These games the father and son were playing were seriously messed up.

If he joined in, he would probably be the third one after them to get close to Julie.

But this weird game thrilled Lenny a lot, giving him a strange sense of excitement.

He found himself lost in thoughts about Julie's striking look today. He fantasized about her in a passionate scenario, which heightened his excitement.

With these thoughts, he quickly nodded in agreement.

They finished their discussion, and Lenny headed back to Julie's office first.

In the office, a smile played on his lips. His gaze, filled with a hint of desire, occasionally drifted over Julie's figure.

He exclaimed, "Julie, I've got great news! I managed to get in touch with the top executives at the company through my father. They're keen on partnering with Pearl for some celebrity endorsements and promotions! And guess what? With me on board, we're getting everything at standard rates!"

As Lenny was sharing this, Baxter walked in. He offered Julie a glass of water, saying, "Julie, here, have some water. Lenny and I just wrapped up a chat. It's your turn now to discuss the details of this collaboration with them!"

As they spoke, both Baxter and Lenny's eyes couldn't help but wander over Julie's body.
