

Chapter 71

Ethan was taken aback by Allison's push. He stared at her face. She did not look good. Her eyes became glossy, and her lips were quivering.

He calmed himself and leaned on her again.

Allison was sobbing. She had no idea what was going on. What was wrong with her? Why could she not stay calm and let him kiss her?

When Ethan leaned close to her, he pulled her to his chest and hugged her.

"Why are you crying? I didn't want to make you cry."

She hugged him back and cried.

He patted her back. "I am sorry. It was my fault."

She shook her head at his chest. "No, it was not your fault. I am sorry." She mumbled.

He broke the hug and cupped her face.

"Look at me. I know you need time, and you can take as much time as you want. Just don't cry, okay? I will never kiss you without your consent. So you don't have to feel like this."

She bit her bottom lip and nodded her head.

He smiled at her and wiped her tears.

They talked to each other and stayed in Ethan's room for a while.

Ethan tried to make her understand that no matter what, he would stay with her always.

They heard a knock on the door.

"Come in." Ethan said.

A maid entered and said,

"Luna is calling both of you downstairs."

"We are coming." He replied. Then the maid left the room.

Allison stood up. "Let's go?"

"Yeah."

They left the room and headed to the staircase.

At that moment, Allison saw Ryan and the woman coming down from the rooftop.

'What were they doing on the rooftop? I thought they were in the bedroom.' Allison thought.

Ethan had yet to notice them. He put his hand on her shoulder and pulled her closer.

"Why are you still upset? I told you I was sorry."

Allison's eyes were fixed on Ryan. Ryan glanced at Ethan and then rolled his eyes. The woman locked her arm with his and came down.

"Hello, Ethan." The woman spoke with an alluring tone.

Ethan turned his head to her and looked behind her.

"Ryan, why did you take-"

"Oh, shut up. I am not interested in your nonsense."

Ryan interrupted him. He turned his head to

Allison and said to Ethan,

"Just focus on your girlfriend. Well, that's what you are doing, though."

His eyes pierced into her eyes. She could not help but look away from him.

"Let's go, Darling."

Ryan said to the woman and headed downstairs.

Ethan and Allison followed them behind.

When they reached downstairs, everyone was sitting on the couches, and the tea table in front of them was full of snacks and beverages.

Ryan held the woman's hand and went directly to the door.

Alpha Neil saw him and stood up.

"Ryan"

Everyone became silent. Ethan went to his father hurriedly and said, "Dad, please."

One thing that cleared Allison's mind was that Ethan always tried to unite the family. He did not want them to break.

Ryan turned around and looked at his father from afar.

"Yes?"

"What is this woman doing here?"

"She came here to hang out with me."

"This is my pack house, not a museum where you can take ladies to hang out anytime."

"Well, same thoughts. That's why I am taking her somewhere else."

Alpha Neil glared at him. Ryan scoffed as if he did not feel any fear.

"R-Ryan, I-I think I-I should I-leave." The young woman spoke out and let go of Ryan's hand. The head Alpha was getting angry, how could anyone disobey him?

Ryan was about to stop her, but before that, Ethan said,

"Yeah, you should leave."

The woman nodded her head and left the pack house.

Allison was staring at Ryan. How could he be so shameless?

She moved her eyes and saw the disappointment in Luna Ella's eyes. She could see anger in Alpha Neil's eyes.

Her parents were quiet and did not let out anything. But they also did not expect this type of behavior from Ryan.

Ryan glared at Ethan for telling the woman to leave. He turned around to leave the pack house when Alpha Neil said,

"Come and join us."

Everyone was stunned. They thought he would tell him to leave, but he was telling him to join.

Ryan turned and headed to Alpha Neil. "Are you kidding me, Alpha Neil?" He asked and stood in front of him.

Alpha Neil sat down on the couch and grabbed the teacup. He blew the smoke out of the tea and replied,

"You will leave in six months anyway. So attend the get-together. It's a family party."

"Am I a member of this family?"

"Unfortunately, you are."

Ryan looked like he would talk back to him, but he did not say anything else and went to sit on one of the couches.

"Allison, sit." Luna Ella said to her when she saw her standing alone.

Allison walked to the couch and sat beside her mother.

The heat of the atmosphere calmed down. Others glanced at Alpha Neil, who was trying to calm himself after arguing.

Allison knew that he also loved his son. He was afraid to scold him. Because what if Ryan left the pack again, like last time?

Everyone started to talk. Allison glanced at Ryan. He was busy using his phone. He was not even talking to anyone.

She averted her gaze from him and told herself, 'Please stop messing with my mind. He is a bad boy. I can't look at him. I should focus on my boyfriend only.'

Alpha Neil looked at Luna Ella and said,

"We should get ready for war anytime."

Everyone looked at him. Why was he talking about war? Allison paid attention to him.

Alpha Neil explained,

"Alpha Easton has an eye on our pack. He can attack our pack."

"But we stopped the pack border for his pack." Luna Ella said.

"Yeah. That's why he will take someone else's help and attack our pack indirectly. Last time they attacked the future Alpha of this pack."

Beta Glen shook his head. "No, I don't think so, Alpha. He will take time to plan anything."

"Why?"

"I heard his beta, Beta Ramon, has been sick since last month. Someone attacked him one month ago and almost killed him."

Chapter 72

"What are you saying? Who attacked him?" Alpha Neil asked.

"Who knows? Maybe some of their enemies." Beta Glen replied.

Alpha Neil's eyes turned dark. "Though I stopped the boundary, that did not mean I would forgive Alpha Easton for what he did with my son."

"Oh really? What will you do?" Ryan spoke out.

Everyone's eyes shifted to him. He was sitting on the couch, leaning his back against the backrest.

"Let me guess." He put his finger on his chin and dabbed for a few seconds as if he was thinking of the possibilities.

"Yes, I got it. You will stop the pack business with him. Or maybe ask another pack to do the same because I don't think you have the guts to announce a war against that Alpha."

"RYAN"

Luna Ella yelled and glared at him.

"Mom, stop yelling. I am telling you all the facts."

Ethan sent a quick glance in the direction of his father, Alpha Neil, who was incensed by Ryan's statement because it was so openly disrespectful to him.

"Ryan, can't you just shut your mouth?" Ethan said.

"Listen, Big bro. I did not have any interest in staying here. Your father was the one who told me to join in. Now that I have just spoken out my opinions, you all are trying to shut my mouth. Is it a fact? You all are bullying me." Ryan replied with an innocent face.

Allison rolled her eyes at this sassy man. She assumed he was intentionally doing or saying something to enrage others.

"Do you think declaring a war is easy? What do you think? What is a war? You have never been to war. You know nothing about fighting. So don't say anything nonsense." Beta Glen said to Ryan. He could not control himself to defend his Alpha when Ryan talked about those things. Ryan looked at Beta Glen and was about to say something, but stopped when his eyes fell on Allison. She was staring at him.

He nodded his head and replied to Beta Glen, "You are right. I know nothing about fighting and war."

Alpha Neil did not argue with Ryan since his answer was given by his Beta.

After a minute of silence, everyone again started to talk again.

However, Allison's eyes did not move away from Ryan. Her eyes were following his every move. She had no idea why this man constantly made his parents dislike him.

Ryan began to use his phone once again. He got a call, so he went to receive the call in the garden. When he returned, everyone was headed to the dining room.

"Join us for dinner." Luna Ella requested Ryan.

Ryan did not reject her request and joined them at the dining table.

Allison sat down on a chair. Ethan sat beside him.

Surprisingly, Ryan sat opposite her.

She tried her best to avoid him.

"Allison, what is your future plan?" Alpha Neil asked her.

"Yes, Alpha?" She turned her head at him.

"What will you do after graduation?"

"I want to get a good job after graduation."

"Job? Why would you work outside? You are welcome to join my company. You can work with any of my companies. You are free to choose any position. I have faith in your abilities."

She smiled at him but said nothing. She desired to pursue something based on her own credentials.

"You don't need to do anything outside because you will have to handle the entire pack with me in the future." Ethan spoke to her in hushed tones.

She put down her fork and looked at him. When he observed her reaction, he laughed.

She turned back to her plate, but she froze when she noticed Ryan staring at her.

His eyes were profound and dark. He looked indifferent. But his eyes were telling her that he was enraged.

Her heart was beating like a marathon. Inside, her wolf was wailing. She felt distressed in her heart for no reason.

He looked away from her and continued eating. She did not comprehend what was happening to her.

After dinner, Beta Glen asked Alpha Neil to permit them to leave.

"Allison, you are like my daughter. Even though Ethan is fully recovered, you are welcome to visit this pack house at any time. I miss you daily, honey." Luna Ella said to Allison.

Allison hugged her. In one month, she became close to Luna Ella. They spent a lot of time together while she was taking care of Ethan.

About Ethan, she felt it was her responsibility to take care of him since he had saved her.

"I will." Allison replied to her.

Ryan walked out of the pack house as if he was getting bored.

He stood outside and was about to light a cigarette but stopped when he heard a voice behind him.

"Ryan"

He turned around and smiled at Allison's mother, Joey.

"Yes, Aunt?"

She walked to him and said, "I am leaving, so I thought to talk to you."

"Yeah."

"How are you?"

He stared at Joey for a while before replying,

"Good."

"You know how Alpha Neil is, dear. Don't worry about his words. He adores you tremendously.

The same is true for your mother. Don't be disrespectful to them. They truly love you." She attempted to persuade him of the facts.

He shook his head and replied, "They only love Ethan. But it doesn't matter to me anymore."

"Look, what you do in your personal life will affect your future. Your mate will be upset about your actions."

Ryan scoffed when he heard her. "Yeah, mate."

"What?"

"Nothing, Aunt. Tell me. How are you? Don't mind if I somehow spoke inappropriately to your husband." He said and winked at her.

She chuckled. "You are a good boy. You can be happy with others if you stay calm."

He nodded his head. Beta Glen, Jennifer, and Ethan came out of the pack house. They noticed them and approached them.

Beta Glen gave Ryan a sidelong glance but did not say anything.

Joey smiled at Ryan and went to the car with Beta Glen.

Only Ryan, Allison, and Ethan were left there.
Allison headed to the car when Ethan stopped her.

"Allison"

She turned to him, and he pulled her into a hug.
She was stunned at first, but then she hugged him back.

"Bye." Ethan said, breaking the hug.

"Bye." She replied.

She glanced at Ryan. He started to walk to the other side while smoking.

Chapter 73

Chapter 73

The next day, Allison went to school on time. She told Teresa what had happened at the pack house.

"You mean Ryan dared to destroy the get-together?
This boy! He even took a woman into the house? Where is his fear? He seems fearless."

Allison nodded her head and walked to the class with Teresa.

"But let me ask you one question. What gives you such a bad mood? You should be happy that you are with your boyfriend now. The love of your life is with you. The one you loved your whole life has become yours. Now what?"

The pace of Allison's steps slowed down. She looked at Teresa and gave a slight head shake.

"I don't know. I am feeling strange. Regardless of how much I attempt to rein in my wolf, nothing seems to work. She lost her mind completely. She became crazy. Every time I saw Ryan..." She paused and lowered her head.

Teresa held her hand and walked to the cafeteria.

"What? We can't miss the class."

"Shut up. I need to hear you. Finally, you have decided to tell me your actual problems. It's more important to me than attending classes, which I can attend tomorrow too."

They sat at two seated tables. Teresa left the table to go to the counter, where she placed an order for two strawberry shakes and then returned with them.

"Take a sip and tell me what is wrong with you and your wolf."

Allison did what she was told and said,

"I don't know what is happening to me, Tess. My wolf is out of control now. Many days ago, Ryan led me to a place deep within the forest, and after I had regained control of my wolf form, I went there. There, I met Ryan, but fortunately for me, he was unable to recognise me. This worked out well for me. But he met my wolf. From that day on, my wolf wanted to meet him. Since he was the one who my wolf met first after recovery, I think she..."

"She likes Ryan?"

Allison's head was low. She did not reply. It stated that Teresa guessed right.

"So you like Ethan, and your wolf likes Ryan?"

Teresa asked another question.

Allison lifted her head and shook her head.

"I don't know."

"What? Even now, you have no idea whether or not you like Ethan. But despite that, you choose to get involved with him in a relationship?"

"I-I was... I have no idea what occurred with me throughout that time. I thought it was the best decision for me because he had saved me."

Teresa grabbed her arms. "Allison, are you crazy? I thought you were still thinking about that rejection. So I gave it the benefit of the doubt. But did you fall out of love with Ethan?"

She looked at Teresa. She had never thought of anything like that.

"I don't know."

"What the heck! You are in serious need of some help." Concerned, Teresa replied while placing a hand on her forehead.

Allison was silent. However, Teresa's eyes widened.

"Your wolf can't like Ryan. He is not a well-behaved young man. He is basically making out with different girls every single day. His activities and reputation are well known to everyone. There is no way to change him. I told you that he would not stop his desire for many days. It became his habit to be with different girls." Teresa endeavoured to make her understand.

When Teresa did not get any reply from Allison, she asked,

"Forget your wolf. What about you? Do you like Ryan?"

"N-No."

"Why are you stuttering then?"

Allison took a deep breath and tried to speak confidently.

"I can't like him, Teresa. He does not have the manners to talk. His lifestyle is beyond our imagination. About his habit? He can't be a one-woman man."

She said what was on her mind. Teresa stared at her with doubt in her eyes. "Are you sure?"

"Yeah."

Teresa acknowledged her with a nod. They engaged in conversation for a while. After waiting for a few minutes, Ethan eventually entered the cafeteria and took a seat at Allison's table.

"I am going to another pack with Dad for a meeting this weekend." He told Allison.

"This weekend?" Teresa heard, so she asked.

"Yeah."

"Oh."

"What happened?" Ethan asked Teresa.

She shook her head. "Ah, nothing."

Allison announced, "This weekend is her birthday," which brought a smile to Teresa's lips that Allison remembered her birthday.

"Wishing you a happy birthday in advance." Ethan said.

"Thanks. But I was thinking of throwing a birthday party. The Alpha of this pack should stay at my party you know. If you attend, the other people will act appropriately; if not, you already know how wild our boys can be."

"Unfortunately I can't come but I will remind them to behave themselves while they will be there.

Don't be concerned."

"Thanks, Ethan."

After talking with Ethan, Teresa, and Allison left for their class.

Allison was inactive in the whole class because Ryan attended the class. He was with another girl. She did not know how he persuaded a new girl every day. Or why were girls head over heels for this bad boy?

All of her attention was focused on Ryan and the girl as she shamelessly stroked Ryan's arms and thighs.

"The pen will crack."

She heard Teresa beside her. She turned to her and asked, "What?"

Teresa signaled with her head in her hand. "If you place all of your wrath on the pen that you are holding in your hand, it will break."

When she looked at her hand, she noticed that she was holding on to the pen rather firmly.

She put the pen on the bench and looked outside the window.

"I think you should reconsider your relationship."

"What?"

"Yeah. You should take a step back and evaluate your relationship with Ethan."

"Nothing is like that. He is my boyfriend and I-"

"I don't think so. The way you are reacting to Ryan's actions, I can't believe you anymore."

"Teresa, plea-"

"Allison and Teresa, if you talk again, I will give you two detention." The professor spoke out.

They stopped talking and looked at their books.

"Sorry, sir." They said it together.

The professor let it go and focused on the lesson.

After all the classes, Teresa and Allison left the school. Teresa headed to her car and said,

"Ethan can't come, but you are my best friend. You have to come to my birthday party this weekend."

Allison smiled and replied,
"Of course, I will come."
