

Ex-Wife 1593

Chapter 1593

Stefan had been wanting to help Renee regain her eyesight, and was willing to pay any price for it.

"It's simple. Raise the reward and spread it far and wide. I'm sure many people will come to you." Owen smiled sadly." There are many who are obsessed with material wealth, so most problems can be solved with money."

"Yeah, you're right... I got it." Stefan nodded.

Early the next morning, Stefan worked with Xavier's entertainment company to issue an advertisement seeking a pair of eyes. The donor would be rewarded with 100 million dollars if their eyes were a match, and they would also get five percent of the shares of Hunt Enterprise. The reward was extremely tempting because once there was a match, the person concerned would have endless wealth for generations to come. The advertisement created an uproar, and there were so many applications that the website and phone application crashed..

At last, Stefan was forced to issue some requirements-the donor had to be between twenty to twenty-six years old, healthy, and had to be a cultured person from Aeos who shared a seventy percent resemblance with Renee. After that, the number of applications decreased a lot, reducing the workload of the staff screening them. It was much more effective.

After a few days, there were nearly a thousand people with the possibility of a successful match. That result excited Stefan, but he was condemned by society and Hunt Enterprise because of how much he was investing in it. The public felt that Stefan's actions were a violation of human rights and wasted resources; it was the perfect example of the rich bullying the poor. Many competitors of Hunt Enterprise made an issue of it and created a lot of negative news condemning Hunt Enterprise.

For a moment, Hunt Enterprise was attacked by many negative comments, worsening its original predicament. The executives of Hunt Enterprise were extremely unsatisfied with Stefan for this, and endlessly voiced out that they wished to see Stefan take a break and return home to take care of his wife. They wanted to make Stefan a mere figurehead. Meanwhile, Jovan had gained the upper hand in his fight against Stefan, and even some shareholders who were against Jovan previously took his side over Stefan's.

During the latest company meeting, Elijah was very gloomy." Mr. Hunt, the news you caused recently has made a big negative impact. The board of directors agreed that you need to stop, or..." Elijah trailed off, not daring to continue.

"Or what?"

"Or they'll dismiss you and let Mr. Jovan take your place." A long sigh escaped Elijah as he decided to tell the truth.

"I'm not surprised. I've long anticipated it," Stefan said calmly.

"Well, what you did is just one of the reasons. The main reason is that Mr. Jovan Hunt has established a cooperation with the Murphy family, who have invested a lot in his new project, which the board of directors has high hopes for. They said that it'll bring about more profits for the company, — so...

"I'll grant their wish since they want me to rest. I happen to be busy too, so it'll be great to rest for a while." Stefan was nothing but calm, as if he had been waiting for that day to come.
