

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2491

Chapter 2491

“Hahahaha... we won, Venerable Jeffrey won!”

“Finally defeated that guy, Venerable Jeffrey is awesome!”

“It’s an honor to have fought alongside Venerable Jeffrey for so long!”

A large number of Dragonmarsh spectators stood up and gave Venerable Jeffrey warm applause.

The first battle of the day was so intense and exciting.

The two sides went head-to-head, exchanging fierce punches.

The fight was extremely brutal.

The audience was thrilled.

This was the kind of duel a warrior should have.

“Huh... is it finally over?”

Jeffrey wiped the sweat from his forehead and relaxed.

Although the last killing move consumed a lot of energy, fortunately, he successfully defeated his opponent, so it wasn’t a loss.

“Ka... Kaka...”

Just as the audience cheered, a pile of gravel in the deep pit at the center of the ring began to vibrate slightly.

The top part slid down little by little, making a slight collision sound.

“Hmm?”

Jeffrey frowned on the ring, feeling uneasy.

The next second, there was a loud bang, and the pile of rubble suddenly exploded.

The sky was full of stone powder, like a drizzle, floating down.

Immediately afterward, Father Adam, covered in black scales and with red eyes, slowly walked out of the smoke and dust.

“Hehehe...”

Father Adam laughed evilly in a low voice.

His original eyes had turned into vertical pupils like a beast’s, scarlet and violent.

Like a demon.

“Ka... Kaka...”

With every step Father Adam took, the damaged scales and wounds on his body healed at an incredible speed.

When he walked out of the deep pit, Father Adam had completely recovered, and his aura was even more ferocious than before.

“You... you are not dead?” Jeffrey widened his eyes in disbelief.

In the previous attack, Jeffrey had already overdrawn his strength and used the strongest move of his life.

Almost no one below the Grand Master could stop him.

He couldn’t understand why Father Adam was still standing.

At this moment, not only Jeffrey but also the audience was dumbfounded.

The cheers and applause stopped abruptly, and everyone was in shock, unable to believe what they were seeing.

They saw clearly that the last palm strike from Master Jeffrey was like a mountain pressing down, unstoppable.

Even the arena made of black gold stone was blasted into a deep pit.
