

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1625

Married at First Sight Chapter 1625 – As soon as Zachary came out and saw Sonny kissing Serenity's face, he was jealous of a three-year-old child.

Zachary carried Sonny into the house and talked to Sonny as he walked.

"What does Uncle want to tell Sonny?"

Sonny looked curious.

Then, Zachary had a long talk with him.

Sonny couldn't understand a lot of what his uncle said, but he only understood one meaning, which was that his uncle said he was a man and couldn't keep kissing his aunt on the face.

But, that was his aunt and his aunt could kiss his little face.

In the end, Sonny had only one thought in his mind: the world of adults is really complicated and difficult to understand.

What Zachary said to Sonny left Serenity speechless, so she had no choice but to say to Zachary, "Husband, take Sonny upstairs to take a bath."

Sonny said, "Uncle will help me take a bath tonight and I want to take my toy to take a bath."

Zachary: "Also you can take your water gun."

Sonny: "Okay."

They went upstairs to discuss conditions.

Liberty said to Serenity: "Zachary will spoil Sonny."

Serenity: "No, he spoils Sonny, but he also has principles. He won't spoil Sonny blindly. Sonny was taught very well and will not be pampered, he knows what can be done and what can't be done."

Now Sonny could be said to be a collection of thousands of favors.

Whether it was a businessman or a member of the York family, they loved Sonny very much.

Liberty: "Sister, I've something to tell you."

Serenity looked at Liberty.

Liberty: "Mrs. Lewis asked me out tonight to meet and have a conversation."

In front of Serenity, Liberty didn't need to hide anything.

Serenity would discuss with her and ask for her opinion.

So did she.

"Did Mrs. Lewis take a check of several million to keep me away from Duncan?"

Liberty stared at Serenity.

Serenity smiled, "There are often such plots in TV dramas."

Serenity was not worried at all that Mrs. Lewis asked Liberty to meet, and Liberty would suffer.

"Mrs. Lewis told me a lot. In the end, she hoped that I would give up my rent, move away from the current street, the loss suffered by moving the store, and the decoration costs needed to rent a new store. She will compensate me. Serenity, do you think I want to move?"

Liberty asked Serenity, and without waiting for her answer, she said to herself: "I thought about moving at the beginning, but I don't think that would be useful, and Duncan can find me if I'll go anywhere. Mrs. Lewis hoped that I would take Sonny and leave Wiltspoon quietly, and she said that I was allowed to contact you and my aunt, but she asked you to keep it secret and don't reveal my whereabouts. If I do this, Duncan will give me up."

Serenity stopped smiling, and her expression became serious and angry.

"How could Mrs. Lewis ask you like this? Why did she want you to leave Wiltspoon? It was her son who took the initiative to like you and pursued you. Why didn't she let her son leave Wiltspoon and leave you alone?" Serenity asked.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1626

Married at First Sight Chapter 1626 – Liberty: "Want me to sacrifice?"

Serenity: "I don't think escaping can solve the problem. Sister, don't move away from the current street, your store has been there for a while, and you have finally accumulated some regular customers. You have to start over. As long as you keep your heart and don't get kidnapped by Duncan, it's useless even if Duncan tries his best. If you obey Mrs. Lewis's request and take Sonny out of Wiltspoon, Maybe Duncan will never forget you in this life, and he will be looking for you, and Sonny for the rest of his life.

He pursued for a while, but he didn't get a response, and his mother would stop and persuade him. After a long time, he would give up, and return your peace."

Liberty also thought so. Her leaving didn't solve the problem.

Liberty and Serenity shared the same thoughts, so Liberty was unwilling to even leave Wiltspoon.

Liberty could definitely keep her heart.

After talking to Serenity and listening to her opinion, Liberty stopped thinking about Mrs. Lewis's interview with her.

If she want to make a fuss, Mrs. Lewis could do it by herself.

Anyway, Liberty also promised Mrs. Lewis that as long as Mrs. Lewis disagreed, she would never marry into the Lewis family. Even if Mrs. Lewis agreed, she would not necessarily marry into the Lewis family.

"I'm going back first, and I have to open the shop tomorrow." Liberty stood up and said goodbye.

Serenity: "Sister, it's so late, stay with me overnight."

"I'm familiar with this road. No matter how late it is, I dare to drive back by myself. I'm going to get up early in the morning, and I'm afraid it will disturb you and Zachary to rest, especially Zachary, who is so busy with work that he can't rest well, how will he perform his job the following day!"

Liberty politely declined Serenity's offer.

She resolutely disagreed to stay overnight at Serenity's house.

Serenity had no choice but to send Liberty out.

"Sister, about Sonny's going to kindergarten, have you thought about which kindergarten to let Sonny go to?" Serenity asked about her nephew's going to kindergarten.

Liberty said: "I want Sonny to go to the Golden Cradle Kindergarten. That kindergarten happens to be between my residence and the breakfast shop, so it's convenient for me to take Sonny to and from school."

The distance from her residence and her breakfast shop was about the same distance.

Serenity: "I think Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten is better. Zachary said that Central Kindergarten is the best kindergarten in Wiltspoon."

It's expensive. But for them, that little tuition fees were not a problem.

Liberty smiled and said, "People in Wiltspoon don't know that Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten is the best kindergarten in Wiltspoon, but the tuition fees there are also the most expensive. The annual tuition fee costs more than 100,000 to 200,000, which ordinary people can't afford it.

Besides, the central kindergarten is notoriously difficult to get into, even if the family has money and can afford the expensive tuition fees, they may not be able to squeeze in."

Who id't want their children to win On the starting line?

The problem was that central kindergartens couldn't be entered with money.

Liberty continued: "I still have savings, and now I can earn money in the store. It is still possible for Sonny to receive preschool education in the central kindergarten, but can we get in?"

Liberty's savings were enough for Soony to attend kindergarten for three years.

Liberty: "I have also known about the kindergarten in the Golden Cradle. In that area, that kindergarten is also very good, with a good environment and responsible teachers. Of course, it cannot compare with the central kindergarten. Children from ordinary families, Golden Cradle Kindergarten is very good. It's ok."

Serenity said: "Zachary asked about this matter and told me that if you want Sonny to enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten to receive preschool education, he will help Sonny to go in. Regarding the tuition fee, you don't worry, there's me and Zachary."

"I have enough money of my own, so I don't need you two to help Sonny pay for tuition." Liberty refused to let Serenity and her husband pay for their son's tuition.

After thinking about it, Serenity said: "If Zachary can help Sonny enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten to receive preschool education, then let Zachary help. Tell me how much it will cost, and I will pay for it."

Liberty: "Sonny is my son, and his tuition should be paid by his mother."

Regarding the issue of Sonny's education, Liberty did not insist on not asking his brother-in-law to help him like other matters.

Like all parents, Liberty wanted her son to be educated in the best schools.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1627

Married at First Sight Chapter 1627 – “Okay, then I will reply to Zachary.” Serenity did not compete with Liberty to pay Sonny's tuition.

As long as Liberty wanted Sonny to enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten to receive pre-school education, she could afford those tuition fees.

In Liberty's words, Sonny is her son, and the tuition should be paid by her.

If Liberty couldn't afford the tuition, she won't let Sonny enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten.

Serenity knew Liberty very well.

Liberty was the York family's oldest mistress, but she didn't have much money. She needed money the most, but she didn't want to ask Serenity for it. Instead, she relied on herself.

She was always afraid that raising money with her would affect her status in her husband's family and hold her back.

But Serenity was not the kind of person who just took money to help her relatives. She thought that it was better to teach people to fish than to give them fish.

“Serenity, thank you, because of you and your husband, Sonny's starting line is ahead of others.” Liberty was very grateful to Serenity and Zachary.

“Sister, if you say such things to me again, I will get angry. Without you, I don't know what will happen. We are sisters, sisters who depend on each other, and Sonny was brought up by me. I regard Sonny as my own son, and it is related to his education, which is as important to me as my sister. When we have no ability and no conditions, we can only look at famous schools and sigh and give him the best education possible.”

Liberty smiled and said: “Okay, okay, I won't talk to you anymore, it's late, you go back to rest, you don't have to see me off, it's not the first time I've come here, I think it's my home here.”

"I would treat you like your own home, but as soon as your health got better, you would go back to a rented house. I would buy you a flat, but you wouldn't take it." Serenity complained to Liberty.

Liberty said: "Sister, I have the ability to buy a house myself, so you don't need to give it to me. It's like buying a car. If I need a car, I will buy it naturally. You don't need to give it away. I hope everything can be earned through my hard work."

Serenity stopped talking.

Zachary had already started to draw up a list of betrothal gifts. He discussed with Serenity and said that he would give a villa to Liberty.

But Serenity was worried that Liberty would not accept it, so she gave her the task of persuading her to accept the villa.

Serenity thought, this task was too difficult.

Liberty drove away from the villa under the watchful eyes of Serenity.

Serenity stood at the door of the villa and watched Liberty leave. She didn't turn back until the car was out of sight.

"Auntie." Sonny, who had just taken a shower, rushed out with a big water gun in his arms, and pointed the water gun at Serenity, but he didn't dare to use water, for fear of getting her clothes wet and being spanked by his uncle.

He tried to wet aunt's clothes, aunt was not angry, but uncle was angry, not only verbally educated him, but also spanked his little b*tt, although the force was not strong, it didn't hurt him, but it also made him have a long memory that 'When playing with a water gun, don't shoot at people'.

Serenity raised her hands in a gesture of surrender in cooperation, and said with a smile: "Sonny, your aunt has surrendered."

Serenity stepped forward and picked up the little guy, "Sonny, you really smell good."

"Auntie, you smell so good." Sonny said. In other words, he was always fragrant, and his aunt had a little fragrance as well, but it was very light and not as strong as his..

Serenity laughed and said, "my cousin wore perfume."

She didn't like to use perfume.

Zachary gave her a lot of expensive perfumes, but after realising she didn't like them, he stopped sending them to her.

Sonny: "Auntie, has my mother returned home?"

Serenity: "Well, your mother has to go to work tomorrow, so she had to go back early to rest."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-