Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1866 -Hugh was aware that the Queen Enterprise and the York Corporation would not develop unfriendly ties; at most, they would engage in a sort of fight in the catering industry.

Therefore, when Zachary held a wedding, they would all go to the wedding.

“Old lady chose a woman for Kevin. I heard that Kevin didn’t like it very much and resisted it very much. She gave him a goal at the beginning of the year. He didn’t even pursue that girl. After the second young master York got married, He was reprimanded by the elders in the family and urged him to get married early, he couldn’t bear the nagging of the elders, so he ran to Jensburg. It’s too far away, it’s impossible for the elders in the family to chase him to Jensburg to urge him to marry.”

Hugh finished speaking, he added: “This is the real reason why he wants to buy a house in Jensburg. He plans to live in Jensburg for a long time, so as to avoid the marriage urge.”

Hayden looked up at her younger brother and asked: “But Do you know which daughter house Grandma May chose for Kevin? He is so resistant.”

According to what she knew, the eldest Young Master York was also resistant to marrying Serenity at first, and the couple was no longer affectionate.

Feelings could be cultivated.

Of course, if you are unable to cultivate feelings, it is best to separate. Marriage should not be forced because it will not be happy.

“Well, I can’t find out. After Old lady chooses good wives for her grandchildren, she will give them a photo. It is said that the basic information of the woman is written in that photo. But it is kept secret from the outside world and outsiders can’t spy on it.”

Hayden hummed.

Looking at her files again, Hayden was not interested in who Kevin’s other half was.

Anyway, no one could be her!

Hayden had only met the old lady a few times, and the number of contacts was insufficient, and the old lady had no idea she was a woman. Besides, she was from Jensburg, which was a bit far from Wiltspoon.

Judging from the other half of Zachary and Callum, the granddaughter-in-law chosen by the old lady was all from Wiltspoon.

“Is there anything else you want to say?” Hayden suddenly raised her head and asked her younger brother.

Hayden: “Then why are you still sitting here?”

Hugh: “...Brother, let me see if you can do it? You’re so handsome, no wonder anyone who has met you will admire you, If I were a woman, I would fall in love with a man like you.”

Hayden rolled his eyes at him and said to him: “If you like someone, you should settle down and get along with them for a while. Marry and go home, don’t spend the whole day with deep ditches and high forts surrounded by flowers, giving people the illusion that you are a playboy.”

“I like too many women, and I don’t know which one to choose.” Hugh spread his hands, embarrassed Authentic: “In order not to hurt their hearts, and for the sake of fairness, I’d better keep the status quo. Anyway, our family is supported by you, and it’s okay for me to be a playboy.”

“Hugh!” Hayden called out seriously.

Hugh hurriedly raised the white flag to surrender, and he said: “Okay, okay, I’m serious, but I really don’t have a girl I like, and I haven’t met someone who is suitable for me.”

He admired many beautiful women, but only with admiration, not with love.

The main reason was that most of the beauties he admired were from the entertainment industry, and his family would not approve of him marrying a celebrity. In the eyes of his parents and sister, a celebrity was just an actress and not qualified to marry into Queen’s family as a young mistress.

He didn’t like any of those famous women in Jensburg, and others didn’t like him either. He thought he was a playboy, and he was flirting with those celebrities all day long. What they saw was his sister.

Hugh viciously pondered whether, on the day his sister regained her body, the famous women who adore her would jump off the building together.

Hugh was a real man, not like his sister, and likes his sister, which made him a fake man due to that kind of blindness.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1867 -Hayden thought for a while and said, "I think Kathryn Farrell is pretty good."

The Farrell family patriarch's real daughter was Kathryn. Making Kathryn was raised by the housekeeper's former parents, despite the fact that she was maliciously transferred by the housekeeper not long after her birth. She still carried the family's blood in her bones. Though not wealthy, the Farrell family was well-known and regarded as very noble.

Even if Kathryn grew up in a harsh environment, she couldn't conceal the nobleness she was born with.

A year ago, Kathryn was brought back by her biological parents, and the real and fake Farrell's daughter belonged to everyone.

However, the fake Farrell's daughter, Shiloh Farrell was loved by her parents and elder brother because she grew up in Farrell family. Kathryn still stayed at Farrell's house. She was recognized as a goddaughter by the head of the Farrell family.

When Kathryn was mentioned, Hugh frowned, and said: "Although Kathryn is dignified and generous, she was found by her parents, but she has not yet gained a firm foothold in Farrell family, and her relatives love Shiloh even more.

The truth can't be fake, the fake can't be true, so what if Shiloh is favored again? The ancestors of the Farrell family taught that the blood of the Farrell family can only inherit the family business of the Farrell family, and the Farrell family will still be handed over to Kathryn in the future."

The Farrells were not like other families. All of the women in their family were in charge. The family heads didn't get married, but they did find a son-in-law. After they got married, the son took the last name of the father, and the daughter took the last name of the mother. Therefore, the women of the Farrell family were all very powerful.

Of course, there had been a lot of gossip news about the members of the Farrell family fighting for power and profit.

For example, it was said that the Patriarch of this year killed the older sister and the younger sister, killed the older sister's in-laws, and even threw away his niece and the older sister's two daughters. No one knew, but everyone thought that the head of the Farrell family's two daughters must have already become bones.

After all, those poor sisters were only a few years old when they lost their parents.

If they were fortunate, they might be placed in an orphanage at the most. They would starve to death on the streets if they weren't lucky.

It happened decades ago. In those days, it was not uncommon for people to starve to death due to lack of food and clothing.

This time, the head of the Farrell family had only one daughter, but after the daughter was born, she was maliciously transferred by the housekeeper. The housekeeper's daughter has been doted on by the head of the Farrell family for more than 20 years. Even if the housekeeper found the real daughter of the Farrell family, The patriarch's affection for his biological daughter has always been faint.

Everyone in Jensburg stared at the real daughter of the Farrell family, wanting to see if she could successfully take over the position of Patriarch from her own mother.

“Hugh, your sister has secretly investigated all those daughters in Jensburg for you. Except for Kathryn, I think they are still a bit inferior. When it comes to spending money, Kathryn is not as good as them, but when it comes to skills, ability, Kathryn is stronger than them.

I only met Kathryn a few times at the banquet, and she has only been back to Farrell's house for a year, so how do I know she is strong? She doesn't seem to speak much, but she has a Baozi appearance.”

Hayden said to his younger brother: “Why don't you try to find out, is she Baozi?”

Kathryn was definitely a person who pretended to be a pig and ate a tiger.

The eldest daughter of the Farrell family had always been formidable.

Kathryn Farrell, this year's Farrell family leader, she could be the eldest or youngest daughter; either way, she was not a bad person.

Hugh pouted, “Sister, are you trying to match me and Kathryn? With so many fights in the Farrell family, I don't want to get involved in the Farrell family's affairs.”

Hayden: “Where there are people, there are rivers and lakes. Do you think that all families are as harmonious as the York family in Wiltspoon and the Johnson family in Annenburg?”

After a moment of silence, Hugh said, “Kathryn should also attend the banquet next week. When the time comes, if she is as good as you say she is and can attract my favor, I will take her down and marry her but I-I'm not a door-to-door son-in-law!”

Hayden: "..."

That's right, Hayden ignored this point.

Dawson family.

Kingston sat on the sofa in the luxurious hall, his legs crossed, and flipped through the newspaper.

Just then a man in black walked in.

He walked to Kingston's side and said in a low voice: "Young master, we have found out the real purpose of Ms. Analia's secret trip to Wiltspoon."

Kingston was still flipping through the newspaper, and asked lightly, "What is it for?"

The man's voice was lower, and he said in a low voice: "Ms. Analia fell in love with Young Master York at first sight, and wanted to break up Young Master York and his wife and wanted to marry him. On the night when the young master went to Wiltspoon to bring Ms. Analia back, Ms. Analia went to Young Master York's home and met Young Mistress York, she seems to be provoking Young Mistress York to her face."

Kingston put away the newspaper at once, and looked up at the man with disbelief in his eyes. After a while, he asked in a low voice: "Really?"

"Master, it's absolutely true. It sounds much easier to talk about the matter related to the young mistress of the York family. She is a celebrity in Wiltspoon."

Kingston suddenly sneered, "Analia thinks very highly of herself, and she is the only daughter of my second uncle. My second uncle values her and trains her as his successor. He personally takes her by his side and teaches her. I have to admit that her existence poses a great threat to me."

If Analia didn't exist, the Dawson Group would definitely give it to Kingston, and his second uncle was also very nice to him.

He was now in the position of a spare tire, and unless Analia made a big mistake and enraged the second uncle, he would have a chance to take the position. Otherwise, he would always be Analia's backup tire.

Analia also had a big opinion on him, and the brother and sister were also tit for tat in the company, fighting openly and secretly.

“Zachary is mature, handsome, rich, and cool. Many women will be convinced by him when they see him, and want to conquer him and become his exception. It’s normal for Analia to fall in love with him at first sight, but Zachary already has a wife, and Analia even tried to provoke her. She wants to die.”

Kingston scolded his cousin a few words, “If you want to look for death, don’t drag the Dawson Group, now I understand why the second uncle doesn’t trust her when he is on a business trip. He told me not to let Analia go to Wiltspoon, it seems that the second uncle already knew about it.”

Kingston also knew why the Dawson and York families had worked together on a project, but the two families still didn’t communicate much. The person in charge of that project would be in touch.

It turned out that it was because Analia was shameless, fell in love with a married man, and wanted to break up the couple and replace them herself.

If it was someone else, she might still succeed, it was Zachary...

Kingston sneered, laughing at his cousin’s self-indulgence, she didn’t know how she died.

“Master, do you want us to help Ms. Analia?”

“Analia likes Zachary; our assistance is pointless because Zachary will not give Analia a chance. He is a dedicated man who has fallen in love with his wife. He can only love his wife in this life and cannot tolerate another woman.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1869 -Zachary has a somewhat similar man, and when I found him, after a little training, I arranged for him to meet Analia, and with Analia’s intelligence, she knew what to do.”

Zachary couldn’t get it, so he could only get it from Serenity.

If Serenity misunderstood Zachary and thought that Zachary was cheating and had a mistress, with Serenity’s personality, she would propose a divorce to Zachary.

How could Zachary get a divorce when he loved his wife and liked his life?

He won't be wronged by this, and he would do a clear investigation. Analia would have bad luck at that time.

Analia had bad luck. If the second uncle got mad at her, he might kick her out of Dawson Group, and then Kingston would own Dawson Group.

"Okay."

"Let's do it now, but be careful, don't leave traces, and don't let people know that there are traces of me in this matter. The York family and the Bucham family are on good terms, and the Bucham family is not easy to mess with."

Kingston told his subordinate.

The man nodded cautiously.

Kingston waved his hand, and his subordinate retreated silently.

"Analia, finally I have something in my hands." Kingston's eyes were full of ruthlessness, "This time, if I don't kick you out of the Dawson Group, I won't be called Kingston anymore."

Not only did Kingston kick Analia out of the Dawson family, but he also made her second uncle very upset with her and married her in a faraway place.

Those who offend Zachary would not end well.

.....

"Ha chirp, ha chirp."

Zachary, who was far away in Wiltspoon, sneezed several times one after another.

Both Duncan and Liberty looked at him.

Liberty asked with concern: "Zachary, do you have a cold?"

Duncan took out a pack of scented tissues from his trouser pocket and handed it to his friend.

Since he became disabled, he had gotten used to carrying paper towels on his body in case he fell and needed to clean himself up.

"It must be Serenity who misses me. She has been away for so long, so it's no wonder she doesn't miss me."

Zachary thought he was strong and wouldn't get sick often. He must have been missed by his wife.

Cold?

Serenity might come back right away if he really did catch a cold. She knew that he was afraid of taking medicine because it was bitter, even if it was traditional medicine. If she wasn't there to stare at him, he would always throw the medicine in the trash. When the illness was hard to get rid of, he let it last until he got better on its own.

Zachary was thinking about self-torture, letting himself catch a cold to lure his wife back, while reaching out to take the tissue from his friend, when he took out the tissue, he disliked it again: "Duncan, your tissue smells too strong, I-I don't like it very much."

Liberty smelled the scent, but said: "This smell is very nice. Sonny likes scented tissues a lot, and every time I go out to eat with him, he tells me that the hotel napkins smell good."

Zachary: "..."

He didn't say anything.

Before, Duncan didn't bring tissues, but now he would, and they were fragrant tissues, just to make Sonny happy without being asked.

The main reason was that Liberty also liked this fragrance.

After Zachary wiped his nose, he asked Liberty: "Sister, will you be free later?"

Liberty: "What's wrong?"

"I suddenly remembered that I had something to do and I couldn't send Duncan home, so I thought that if you were free, you would help me send Duncan home."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1870 -Duncan decided not to give up Liberty, Zachary was happy to help his friend and create a chance for the two to be alone.

After Liberty thought for a while, she said, "I might not be that fast. If Mr. Lewis is willing to wait here for a while, I can send Mr. Lewis home later."

Duncan immediately said, "It's fine, I'll wait until you're busy. It's fine to send me back; I'm even more bored at home. and I can assist you in the preparation of dishes."

He could also give Liberty a lot of advice.

“Zachary, you have something to deal with, go and deal with it quickly, don’t delay you because of me.”

Duncan urged his friend to hurry up and threw himself at Liberty, knowing that no matter how busy she was, she would find time to see him off. He had more time to spend with Liberty as well.

Well, even though he was in a wheelchair, it was still possible to chase his wife.

He would work hard on rehabilitation and strived to stand up early.

“Sister, Duncan, then I’ll go to work first.”

Taking advantage of Liberty’s distraction, Zachary winked at his friend, secretly made a cheering gesture, and then spoke seriously, giving Liberty the impression that he was serious and had an urgent matter to attend to.

“Go and get busy.” Liberty said.

Zachary said goodbye, turned around and walked out of the restaurant.

He could only do so much to assist his friend in this kind of state.

Coming out of Liberty’s new restaurant, Zachary got into the car, but he was not in a hurry to drive because his cell phone rang at this moment.

It’s a new number.

He couldn’t wait to answer.

Now, if the new number called his personal mobile phone, his wife, who had recently lost her husband, would return the call.

“Husband.” The call was indeed from Serenity.

Serenity called her husband softly.

For the young master York who was abandoned at home, all the grievances dissipated when he heard his wife’s gentle call “husband”.

“Honey, I miss you so much. When will you come back? Tell grandma, I promise, I won’t complain about you from now on. I know you work so hard for me, but I still complain that you ignore me. It was my fault.”

Serenity laughed and said, "We just arrived... Grandma said that although I am unable to reveal the city's name, it is nonetheless a very interesting one. I didn't blame you for complaining about me because I knew how busy you were and how you squeezed in time with me by coming home at 9:30 every night. However, I frequently go on business trips, so I really ignore you."

Zachary: "No, you didn't ignore me; I always take you seriously because I am too greedy and domineering to keep you by my side 24 hours a day."

Serenity: "Husband, we don't blame each other, and we don't need to apologize to each other. Marriage will have a running-in period. Have you eaten? Don't starve your stomach."

Zachary said pitifully: "You're not at home, and I don't want to eat anything. I need you to help me recover my stomach; I'm sick of you, and I'm in pain. What if I lose weight due to hunger and become ugly, and you come back and dislike me and prefer Shawn? Wouldn't it be worth it for me to lose the weight? Shawn is younger and more attractive than I am... I'm not envious."

Serenity laughed: "It seems that Young Master Lowe is your nightmare. Zachary, I really, really never loved him. He is my younger brother in my eyes, because he is Jasmine's cousin, and I also see him as a cousin. How long has it been? It's just me saying hello to him, and you're so sore now."

Her man, it's true, he loved and was very jealous!

Another day, she cooked a table full of sauerkraut for him, which made his teeth so sour, to see if he was still jealous.

"Wow..."

Zachary suddenly heard the cry of the baby, although the cry was not very loud, he still heard it.
