

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1829

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1829 -Zachary: "Where did she go?"

Sam: "Eldest young mistress didn't say anything."

Zachary was a little disappointed that he couldn't see his wife when he returned home. He immediately took out his mobile phone and called Serenity. After talking for a long time, Serenity didn't answer the phone.

After he hung up the phone, he asked Sam: "Who did the eldest young mistress go out with? Was she with Grandma?"

There was no sound from the TV in the room, and grandma probably wasn't there either.

Sam: "Yes, they also went out with Sonny."

Zachary said oh, without further questioning, he went into the house with the gift prepared for Serenity. Grandma was an old urchin who couldn't stay at home honestly, so Serenity probably accompany her out for supper, or to blow the night breeze.

Sam walked behind Zachary, hesitant to speak.

Zachary didn't notice this.

After Zachary entered the room, he put the gift on the coffee table, followed by sitting down on the sofa, and took out his mobile phone to call Serenity again. The call was still connected, but Serenity never answered.

"Why didn't you answer my call?" Zachary sent a message instead, asking Serenity: "Honey, what are you doing, why aren't you answering my call? Did grandma take you to do 'bad things'?"

Listen to his father Said that when his mother first started, his grandma also liked to take his mother out to do "bad things". Later, because her mother's personality was really not suitable, grandma didn't like to take his mother out and went crazy.

Serenity's personality was different from his mother's. She and grandma had the best relationship. If grandma took her out to go crazy, she would be happy to go crazy with grandma.

Serenity did not reply to the message.

Zachary muttered: "Could it be that they went to the Cowherd's shop to open his eyes?"

His grandma would really do such a thing. Her old man said that the man in the Cowherd's shop was the most handsome, and that she used to be To find out some news. He had been to the Cowherd's shop a few times, and there are so many handsome guys there. When he listened to his grandma talking about the past, his grandpa's face was black when he listened to it.

"No, They're taking Sonny with them." Thinking of the two of them going out with Sonny, Zachary denied his guess.

Grandma might be a bit playful, and she was a veritable old naughty woman, but she paid great attention to children's education. She established a correct outlook on life for children.

Serenity didn't answer the phone or text, Zachary was still uncomfortable. He was used to his wife answering every time he called, and replying every time he sent a message. If his wife was slow to reply, he would feel that his wife didn't let him go in her heart, she ignored him.

Zachary called Liberty.

After Liberty answered the phone, he asked, "Sister, where did Seren take Sonny to play?"

Liberty was stunned for a while after hearing her brother-in-law's question, and asked him instead: "Zachary, Serenity took Sonny to play? Sonny went on a trip, don't you know? Serenity called me at noon and said that she and grandma would take Sonny out to play for a while at the end of the summer vacation and come back before September 1st. I thought you knew."

Hearing what Liberty said, Zachary was like a thunderbolt.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-