

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1960

Married at First Sight Chapter 1960-Shiloh rushed out suddenly, blocking Hayden's way, and asked Hayden with a bright smile: "Young Master Queen, can I ask you to dance?"

Hayden refused in a deep voice: "I'm sorry, Ms. Shiloh. I already have a dance partner."

As Hayden spoke, she passed Shiloh, and walked a few steps to Kathryn's table.

Kathryn was enjoying her meal when she suddenly noticed that many people were looking at her.

She looked up and saw Hayden standing opposite her.

She froze for a moment, then smiled at Hayden, "Young Master Queen, what's the matter?"

Kevin followed.

When passing by Shiloh, Shiloh stretched out her foot out of nowhere to trip Kevin.

In Shiloh's eyes, Kevin was her strongest rival in love, no matter Kevin was a man or a woman, she will make her rival wrestle in full view and lose face.

Shiloh was brave even if she overestimated the enemy.

Shee actually dared to fight against Kevin.

When Kevin noticed Shiloh's small movements, he pretended to be tripped by Shiloh, but instead of rushing forward, he jumped up, but skillfully swept Shiloh's foot.

"Boom" sounded.

Someone fell to the ground.

Naturally, Shiloh, who was stretching out her feet and tripping someone, fell to the ground. She fell backwards, her feet were in the air, and her head hit the ground, making that sound.

Everyone looked over.

Shiloh was wearing an evening gown, and fell on all fours, not only was she extremely embarrassed, she was also a little n@ked, one of the pair of shoes under her feet flew off and flew to the side.

This scene stunned everyone.

Kevin stood not far away, also with a dazed look on his face.

Hayden didn't see the small movements of the two of them, because she and Kathryn were facing each other, and her back was facing Kevin, but Kathryn could see it clearly.

It was Shiloh who wanted to trip Kevin, but Kevin tripped her in the opposite direction. The fall was so ugly that she was so embarrassed that she was thrown into the Pacific Ocean.

When Kathryn looked at Kevin, she quietly gave Kevin a thumbs up, good trip, thumbs up!

Kevin's dark eyes flickered, this Farrell family's real daughter was a bit interesting.

Also, the daughter of the Farrell family looked a little familiar, she was somewhat similar to... her sister-in-law.

Kevin was taken aback by this realization. Kathryn was somewhat similar to her sister-in-law. If someone with a heart found out and took advantage of it, he didn't know what would happen.

"Shiloh."

Young Mistress Farrell first called out, and then hurried forward to help her sister-in-law.

Mrs. Farrell heard that the youngest daughter fell on the ground, and hurriedly brought the other two daughters-in-law over.

"What's going on?"

Mrs. Farrell asked sharply as soon as she came over.

Her eyes swept to her biological daughter who was standing not far away.

Kathryn said: "Mom, don't look at me, I'm a few meters away from Shiloh, I don't know."

Recommended Novels