

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1970

Married at First Sight Chapter 1970-"What's up?" Serenity asked casually.

Zachary: "Things related to your life experience."

Serenity smiled and said: "What else can I find out about my life experience? I was born to my parents, and my father was also born to my grandfather. The paternity test has been done. My mother and my aunt are biological sisters. I and my sister have also done a blood test."

What else could be involved with such a simple background of hers?

"After you come back, I'll tell you more about it. Anyway, it's related to your life experience." Zachary deliberately hung his beloved wife's appetite. It would be best if his beloved wife could not resist her curiosity, and flew back to accompany him early tomorrow morning, no, tonight.

"That's fine, tell me again when I go back, I'd like to see what else I can find out about my life experience." Serenity was not curious at all.

Because she was very clear about her own background, she was definitely born of her parents!

Zachary: "Maybe we can turn out a big flower."

Serenity said to him: "Just make it up. If you make it up a little more outrageously, I won't go back until the day after tomorrow."

Zachary: "The one who knows me is also my wife."

Serenity couldn't laugh or cry.

"You are socializing, don't take up your precious time, finish your work, go home early, don't stay outside."

Zachary: "...Heartless girl, I love you so badly, you don't want me when you say you don't want me, you don't love me deeply enough, when you come back, I will definitely let you love me well."

Serenity hurriedly hung up the phone, not wanting to hear her husband's grievances.

Just after the couple's video call ended, Serenity received a new message from her friend Jasmine.

She opened WhatsApp and saw that Jasmine had sent her more than a dozen photos.

Clicking on the photo, Serenity couldn't help frowning.

The photo featured a man and a woman. If they were not from the back or from the side, regardless of whether they were from the back or from the side, the man resembled Zachary, her husband with whom she had just ended a video call!

Because that woman only had a profile face, Serenity didn't recognize who it was at first.

After reading more than a dozen photos sent by Jasmine, she stared at the woman in the photo several times before she realized that the woman looked like Analia.

Her new rival!

When was Analia and Zachary together?

How could Zachary go shopping with her, and Analia behind his back?

In some photos, apart from Analia and the man whose back looked like Zachary, there were also the backs of several bodyguards.

Serenity remembered that Analia didn't bring bodyguards with her, and Zachary always brought a group of bodyguards with him when he went out.

Could it be that Zachary dated Analia behind her back?

Serenity wanted to call Jasmine, but Jasmine called her first.

"Serenity, do you see if the man in the photo is Zachary? I think his figure, back view, and profile are all very similar. Did Zachary go out and eat while you were away?"

Jasmine had a husband who ate melons and was at the front, so she received these photos immediately.

"Jasmine, are you taking these photos?" Serenity didn't believe that Zachary betrayed her, he didn't even like Analia.

But she also had to ask.

If a friend saw it with her own eyes, and took these photos, the man was either Zachary himself, or a person whose body shape resembled Zachary's.

Recommended Novels