Married at First Sight Chapter 1977-Josh smiled and made a bet with his beloved wife: "Let's just gamble, I said Zachary and his wife have a child, the first child must be a son."

Jasmine: "...I don't even dare to bet with you."

She felt like there was no chance of winning.

"It's better not to gamble. The York family has no daughter for several generations. I can't guarantee that Serenity's first child will have a daughter, and I don't even dare to bet that she will have both children." Jasmine felt that if she made a bet, she had a high probability of losing, that's it.

"Honey, you bet me boldly. If I win, I will give you a set of jewels. If I lose, I will give you two sets of jewels. I just want to prevent you from losing money."

Jasmine laughed and said, "What's the point of such a bet? If you really want to gamble, then let's gamble once. I bet that Serenity and his wife will have both children. If I win, you can give me whatever I want. If I lose, I will give it to you."

Josh readily agreed.

He said: "Then I'll bet that the two children in front of Zachary and his wife are both sons."

"It's only a bet on two children, but Serenity probably will have two, and the two will determine the outcome."

Jasmine knew her friend would have a second child, but the chance of a third child was not high. Even if there were many, what was needed was money to support the baby, and Serenity did not want to have a third child.

One child, Serenity would feel very lonely. She was most likely to have a second child.

Serenity didn't know that because her friend wanted to eat ice cream, it led to a bet between the young couple. After chatting with Jasmine, she sent those photos to Zachary.

If there was any misunderstanding between husband and wife, she thought it was best to explain it clearly immediately and didn't keep her mouth shut; otherwise, it would only make the misunderstanding worse.

When Zachary received the photos from his wife, he had just finished talking about business and was about to go home.

Seeing these photos on the way, Zachary was so anxious.

He immediately called Serenity.

After Serenity answered the phone, he anxiously explained on the phone: "Serenity, that man is not me, definitely not me, I have no other woman except you! There is not even a frontal photo, which means that the man is not me, and the other party is afraid that if he takes a frontal photo, he will be exposed.

Who is that woman? D*mn it, she actually killed me! I will immediately ask Josh to help me investigate."

Zachary couldn't wait to tear up the woman in the photo.

Zachary: "By the way, Serenity, who sent you the photo?"

Serenity said, "I believe the man in the photo is not you, I just sent it to you to see. That woman is Analia, I have an impression of her, and there is no doubt about her."

Because Analia came to her door, Serenity was deeply impressed by Analia.

"It's her?"

Zachary met Analia just once, and after he sued Analia, Mr. Dawson no longer let his daughter appear in front of him. So he couldn't recognize him.

Even if he had met several times, he probably wouldn't be able to recognize her. He paid very little attention to women, and his heart and eyes were full of his Serenity.

"Jasmine sent me the photo. It should be Josh who knew about it first, and then Jasmine sent it to me."

Zachary cursed in his heart, why didn't Josh send it to him immediately?

Indeed, for a man with a wife, his wife was ranked first, while his friends had no idea where they stood.
