

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1923

Married at First Sight Chapter 1923—"At the beginning about your sister-in-law and I, you all said to learn a lesson, and you will never hide or cheat when chasing your wife."

Kevin: "...now she is hiding and cheating me. Well, I got it, and when the time is right, I will make it clear to her."

"It's okay, you can figure it out for yourself, I'm going to Wiltspoon Hotel to negotiate business with customers." Zachary finished speaking, then hung up the phone.

He was on his way to the hotel. Accompanying him was not his wife, only his bodyguards.

In the past, Josh would go with him, but now Josh is a wife slave, and Jasmine is the biggest.

Before the end of get off work time, Josh ran home early to accompany his wife.

Zachary couldn't help but sent a few messages to Serenity, and naturally told her about Kevin's big move, and let her continue to be at the front of eating melons.

...

Dawson Group.

During off-duty hours, most of the people in the company went to eat, and some people didn't want to go out, so they ordered takeaway.

Analia didn't want to go out because she thought the weather was too hot, so she ordered takeaway.

It's just that the takeaway she ordered hadn't been delivered for a long time, which made Analia feel extremely bad.

Just as she was about to call to remind the delivery man, there was a knock on the door.

"Come in."

She guessed that the takeaway had arrived, so she stopped calling.

The office door was pushed open.

She saw Zachary's figure...

She froze.

She stared blankly at the delivery man carrying two bags.

The delivery man walked towards her and said apologetically, "Miss, I'm sorry, the road is a bit congested, I'm a bit late, I hope you will not be angry, please don't give me a bad review."

The man put the two bags on Analia's desk, seeing that Analia was still in a daze, his black eyes flickered a few times, and he quickly returned to normal, shouting: "Miss, Miss Dawson."

Analia came back to her senses.

She secretly pinched her thigh hard, it hurt so much.

If it hurts, it's not a dream.

She saw Zachary.

No, it's a man who appeared to be roughly the same age as Zachary. This man's physique and walking were strikingly similar to those of Zachary. If she did not look at the face, but only at the back and figure, she would realize that she mistook him for Zachary. If his voice were a little deeper and colder, it would be comparable to Zachary's.

When the delivery man came in just now, Analia didn't look at his face, she felt like Zachary, and thought it was Zachary, but now she recovered and looked carefully, only to realize that she was delusional.

This man looked like Zachary in body shape, but not in face, but he was also a handsome guy.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-