Married at First Sight Chapter 1928-Remy smiled wryly: "Mr. Bucham, your actions scare me more than the sky falling."

Julian: "Mr. Johnson, as I said just now, I just want to pursue Ms. Stone and compete fairly with you. You have to work harder. If I really catch up with Ms. Stone, Mr. Johnson, you will only suffer, after all, I have an advantage over you, and I'm from Wiltspoon."

Remy: "..."

Although Mr. Johnson didn't really like Elisa, he thinks this matter is a bit interesting, and it's not bad to pass the time when he's bored.

"Let's go." Julian walked forward again.

Remy and Elisa followed him.

Elisa comforted Remy: "No matter what Mr. Bucham means, he doesn't really like me, so you don't have to worry."

Here comes another person, Mr. Bucham, does auntie not like me that much?" Remy added a strong rival in love, and the pressure was enormous.

He suspected that Julian was another love rival arranged by Mrs. Stone.

Andrew made Remy feel a sense of crisis.

Julian made Remy even more stressed.

After Elisa was silent, she said: "After returning home, I will ask my mother, and then I will emphasize to my mother that I will not like other men except you. My mother disagrees with us. We have always been in love like this, one day, my mother will agree. Anyway, if she forcibly separates us, I will never marry in this life and be an old aunt for the rest of my life."

In that case, it would be her mother's turn to have a headache.

Remy held her hand tightly and said, "Maybe I haven't done enough or good enough to make Auntie worry about letting you marry me. I will continue to work hard. I believe that one day Auntie will agree with us."

The stumbling block was the future mother-in-law, and Remy couldn't play tricks, so he could only show 100% sincerity to make the mother-in-law believe him and agree to his marriage with Elisa and be willing to visit his son-in-law.

“Let’s go, don’t worry, there will be a rainbow after the storm.”

Elisa held the bouquet in one hand, and held Remy’s arm affectionately in the other, comforting Remy with this affectionate gesture.

Since Julian was with him, Elisa asked Remy to take her home immediately after she came out of the airport.

Elisa also wanted to know if Julian’s meddling was her mother’s idea?

She also felt that her mother did not have such a great ability to persuade Julian to pursue her.

In the Stones’ villa, Audrey accompanied her daughter-in-law Alice for a walk in the yard.

From a distance, she saw two cars parked in front of her villa.

As the distance got closer, Audrey recognized that one of the cars belonged to Remy.

Remy had a thick skin; no matter how unhappy she put on, he still visited every day, even if Elisa was on a business trip. He would not miss a day, and if there was something new to play, he would send it to the Stone family as soon as possible.

Alice also recognized Remy’s car, she smiled and said, “Elisa came back today and didn’t inform the driver to pick her up at the airport, so Mr. Johnson must have picked her up.”

After Audrey was silent, she said, “Alice, tell me, does Mom mean to beat the mandarin ducks by insisting like this? Remy is a very good child. He is not the oldest son, so he doesn’t have to take over the family business. Relatively speaking, the pressure much smaller and have more time to spend with his wife. Elisa is really in love with him again. I think they will be very happy when they are together.”

Alice said, “Mom, we all know that you are doing it for Elisa’s own good. Let’s take a look. If Mr. Johnson can persist, we can safely hand over Elisa to him.”

Audrey nodded.
