

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1849

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1849—A team of thousands of young people came to West End of the Central Sacred Continent.

The leader of this team was Anders, one of the Star Kingdom Six, who had just broken through to partial Saint Realm.

He came to vent his anger.

He was supposed to have his name resounding all over the continent, become the head of the Six, and the number one among the younger generation in Star Kingdom.

However, in the end, he seemed a little desolate.

Not only was his fame stolen by David, a punk who appeared out of nowhere, but he was also boycotted by the remaining five members of the Six.

As a result, he became the laughingstock of Star Kingdom and got utterly humiliated.

With Anders' vengeful character, how could he bear this anger?

His first target was David.

As for the remaining five, Anders would make them pay the price one by one.

However, these five people were different from David.

Their backgrounds were too strong.

Like the Palmore family, they belonged to the six top forces of Star Kingdom.

If he wanted to take action against the five, he would need to plan slowly and carefully.

Now, he would get rid of David first.

Before coming, Anders had learned through the Palmore family's intelligence network that David was probably in one of the branches of Treasure Trove and was closely guarded by the Fellowes family.

Although he did not know why the Fellowes family wanted to protect David, the Fellowes family was an affiliated family of the Palmore family.

While he, Anders, was the first-in-line heir and future head of the Palmore family.

Even if the head of the Fellowes family saw him, he still had to address Anders as Master.

David was in the Fellowes family, so Anders could just go to get him.

As long as he could catch David while everyone in Star Kingdom was watching, Anders could shut everyone up.

He could regain some of his prestige if he could easily take down the person whom the Lightfoot family was helpless about.

However, Anders heard that the Lightfoot and Fellowes family were confronting each other for David.

Moreover, they seemed like they were going to start a battle.

Even the Saints Association got involved.

Therefore, Anders was very puzzled.

David was just a guy who came out of nowhere.

What magical power did he have that could make the Fellowes family willing to go to war with the Lightfoot family to protect him?

Anders had to meet the people from the Fellowes family and question them to find out the details.

Having said that, Anders did not care about this.

Even though the Fellowes family dared to ignore the Lightfoot family for David and even start a battle with them, they definitely would not dare to go against Anders.

This was the gap in status.

His weight alone was heavier than the entire Lightfoot family.

Even if the Lightfoot family had two True Saints, this was the confidence that came, as a result of being one of the Star Kingdom Six and the first-in-line heir of the Palmore family.

It was all because he had a Sacred Saint grandmaster!

Moreover, this Sacred Saint grandmaster was also very optimistic about Anders and would often guide him during his cultivation.

In this way, Anders had more reason to be proud of.

Anders brought thousands of geniuses from the younger generation of Star Kingdom to the Central Sacred Continent, so this naturally alarmed a lot of people.

Of course, Anders did not want to hide either.

His purpose was to attract everyone's attention to tell everyone that although five of the Star Kingdom Six were absent, he did not lack influence.

There were still so many geniuses willing to follow him.

Amadi was also among the thousands of geniuses at this time.

He was weak and was not even at Immortal Rank, but he had a pretty high status.

Star Mansion existed in the second tier of Star Kingdom.

Since Amadi was the younger head of Star Mansion, he was definitely qualified for this event.

Moreover, he was very young and was less than five hundred years old. At this age, he was already a genius among geniuses.

Otherwise, he would not have become the younger head of Star Mansion.

After Anders announced that he was coming to the Central Sacred Continent, Amadi had already quietly told David the news.

He wanted David to quickly find a way to escape that hotbed of gossip.

As soon as Anders arrived, things would surely escalate again along with the team of thousands. However, David's reply was to tell him not to worry.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-