

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1973

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1973-“I went to see them, but I didn’t show my face,” David replied.

“Why?” Nova was puzzled.

“For fear of wasting time. I should save Celeste first.”

“David, are you going to save Elder Red now?” Nova frowned.

She did not expect David to be in such a hurry.

She thought it would still take some time.

“Yeah!” David replied affirmatively.

“David, if you want to save Elder Red, you will definitely alarm the reputable elders. Are you ready?”

Nova did not know that David had reached the terrifying strength of a partial Pre-Deity.

All she knew was that David was a True Saint.

He was strong, but it was still not enough to save Elder Red.

After all, there were four True Saint reputable elders in the Iridescent Sect.

No matter how one looked at it, David would suffer a huge disadvantage in a one against four battle.

“Nova, don’t worry! I have my own plans.” David did not reveal his true strength.

“But what you have to deal with is not one True Saint, but four. Are you really sure?”

“Nova, since I dared to come, I have already made sufficient preparations. Plus, I have also learned about the strength of the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect. The matter is of great importance, so I would not joke about it.”

“That’s good! I also hope that Elder Red can come out soon. Staying in the ice cavern for a long time will have a great impact on her character.” Nova breathed a sigh of relief.

What she feared most was David rushing to save Elder Red too impulsively.

If that was the case, David might end up in a tragic situation.

“Nova, let’s go to the ice cavern now!” David began to urge after hearing this.

“Don’t be so anxious! With Elder Red’s strength, she’ll be fine staying in the ice cavern for eight or even ten years. Let me tell you about the internal situation of the Iridescent Sect first, so that it’ll be easier for you,” Nova explained.

“Nova, it’s actually not necessary. Just take me to Celeste and leave the rest to me. You are the head of the Iridescent Sect, so I don’t want to make things hard for you,” David said.

With his current strength, he genuinely did not need to know the internal information of the Iridescent Sect at all.

He just needed to know where Celeste was and get her out.

If the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect dared to stand in the way, he would not mind teaching them how to behave.

“David, the Iridescent Sect is not as simple as you think. What the outside world knows is just superficial. The history of the Iridescent Sect is older and longer than any other force in the Star Kingdom, and there is a huge secret hiding in the forbidden area of the sect. If you act rashly, the consequences will be very serious,” Nova said seriously.

After hearing this, David was still filled with disdain.

‘It doesn’t matter whether the Iridescent Sect is ancient or not, or what big secrets it hides.

’In the face of absolute strength, all plots and tricks are useless anyway.’

However, David still said, “But Nova, you are the head of the Iridescent Sect. If you expose the sect’s secrets like this, you will be regarded as a sect traitor if word gets out.”

“Let me finish.”

“Okay, Nova, tell me, I’m all ears.” David stopped interrupting.

“David, do you know why the Iridescent Sect has such a long history, but there are only four True Saint reputable elders and not a single Pre-Saint?” Nova asked.

“I don’t know!” David shook his head.

He was also puzzled.

According to David's understanding, the other big forces in Star Kingdom had more Pre-Saints than True Saints.

Recommended Novels