

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2016

Married at First Sight Chapter 2016—“My mother’s natal family may be the Farrell family in Jensburg, and my grandparents may have been killed by the current head of the Farrell family. If my mother is really from the Farrell family, then the current head is my mother’s second aunt. It may also be my mother who killed my parents and enemies.”

Elisa simply told her father about it.

When Mr. Stone heard this, it was a big deal.

Immediately he said to his daughter: “Okay, Dad will go back now. It’s not that Dad doesn’t want to accompany your mother. It’s because your mother said that the fish in the river is better grilled, so Dad comes here every day to fish and grill her.”

What Mr. Stone loved the most in his life was his wife, how could he neglect his wife and only care about his own happiness?

He went fishing every day recently because of a word from his wife.

Elisa said, “When Dad comes back, drive slowly.”

Mr. Stone: “Understood.”

Mr. Stone hung up the phone very quickly, and hurriedly closed the rod, ready to go home to accompany his wife.

After her father hung up the phone, Elisa said to Serenity: “I was fed another mouthful of dog food by my father. I thought my father had changed. He only focused on fishing recently. It turned out that it was because my mother said However, the fish in the river tastes better when grilled, so my dad goes fishing every day.”

Serenity laughed and said: “Uncle and aunt have a very good relationship. Young couples come together for a long time, and the relationship has always been as good as first-time partners. This kind of relationship, this kind of couple, is the most enviable.”

The family wa happy and the children were filial.

Her aunt was luckier and happier than her mother.

Serenity thought of her parents, and thought that if they were still alive, they would be as happy as their aunt and husband, and she and her sister would be very filial to their parents.

Unfortunately, when the two sisters were capable, their parents had passed away many years ago.

There was no chance for them to be filial to their parents.

Elisa: "You don't have to be envious. Zachary has nothing to say to you. You and your husband will be very happy in the future. You have always been the envy of others."

"The same to you." Serenity said: "I lived in FC Manor for a few days, and I like the atmosphere of their home very much. It is no different from my in-law's family. The elders are open-minded, and the peers are friendly. Remy grew up in such a family, and he will be very happy after marriage. You also said that auntie is calming down now, you and Remy are in sight of victory, come on, I'm still waiting to drink the wedding bar for you two."

Serenity looked at the next door to the Stone Family, it was the big villa that Remy bought for Elisa.

"Remy bought this big villa for you. Even the decoration style is arranged according to your preferences. You two must live here after you get married. How close is it to returning to your mother's house?"

Serenity said enviously: "It stands to reason that I am so happy now, I shouldn't be dissatisfied anymore, and I dare not be dissatisfied, but after all, there are regrets. My sister and I want to go back to our mother's house and have a look, so we can only have a look. The house my parents left behind."

"When other people go back to their natal homes, there are old parents waiting for them to cook delicious food for them. When my sister and I go back to our natal homes, we can only see things and think about others, but we cannot see our parents, and we cannot hear our parents' advice.

When you are constantly told by your parents, you may feel that your parents are nagging, but you don't know how many people miss it."

Elisa took Serenity's hand and said, "Serenity, Sister Liberty's home is your natal home, and mine is also your natal home. Although my parents can't replace your parents, my parents also treat you like a daughter. Whenever you want to go back to your mother's house, come here. You want to hear thousands of advices. My mother can nagging so much that you want to cover your ears."

Recommended Novels