I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2002-He must be David's mysterious Sacred Saint master.

Cedar finally saw hope now that he had the help of a Sacred Saint.

The masked man was naturally David's clone which he made after he discovered that the Palmore family had a strong Sacred Saint in their fleet.

At the same time, in order to avoid being suspected, he also made a little modification to the appearance of the clone.

He made the clone look like an old man.

Moreover, this time David felt that an hour might not be enough, so he used several drops of blood essence so that the clone could exist for a full day.

The space crack closed after the two went to the meeting room.

Only then did Valerio and Alba react.

"Master David, I hope you've been well," Alba quickly greeted David.

"Hello, Master David!" Valerio also said respectfully.

The two also saw the masked old man beside David.

Even though they had roughly guessed the identity of the old man, they did not dare to greet him casually without confirming who he was as they did not want to offend him.

It was said that many Sacred Saints had strange personalities.

"Miss Fellowes, Mr. Valerio, you don't have to be so modest," David responded politely.

"Welcome to the Fellowes Residence, David," Cedar also said.

"Thanks, Cedar!"

After greeting each other, Cedar asked, "David, who he is?"

"Cedar, let me introduce you. This is my master. He has been in seclusion for a long time, so he is withdrawn and a little bit slow. I hope you don't mind," David introduced his master casually.

“So, you’re Master David’s benefactor. My name is Cedar and it’s so nice to meet you, Sir,” Cedar immediately put his fists together and bowed to the masked old man.

“I’m Alba.”

“I’m Valerio.”

“Nice to meet you, Sir.”

Alba and Valerio also bowed and saluted.

At the same time, all three of them were worried for David.

How dare he say that a Sacred Saint powerhouse was a little slow?

He might be the only one who dared to do that.

Of course, they knew that it was definitely not the first time that David dared to say this, and his master was probably used to it.

However, this was still a private matter.

Now, he even dared to say that in front of outsiders.

To be honest, the three of them were really worried that the old man would suddenly get violent and slap David.

If they were David’s Master, they would definitely do that.

There had to be some level of respect for one’s master.

It was fine to joke in private, but it was definitely not acceptable to do that in front of outsiders.

Fortunately, what the trio worried about did not happen.

The old man in the mask did not care about what David said at all. Instead, he said in an old voice, “No need to do all of that! This time, I agreed to come out and help you once because of Davey’s pleading. You’re so smart to get Davey on board and bind the interests of both parties together, but don’t think that you can do whatever you want in Star Kingdom from now on because you have support. Whatever you do has to be reasonable.”

“Yes, of course! You’re right, so don’t worry! Our family has always believed in integrity and we never provoke others. It has been like this in the past and it will also continue in the future,” Cedar replied hastily.

His heart was already full of joy.

With the promise of a Sacred Saint, the hope of the Fellowes family to survive this disaster was growing.

The masked old man stopped talking.

David said, "Please don't mind this, Cedar. My master is like that. He only talks about the main points and is not one to ramble on."

"Why would I mind? The entire Fellowes family is honored to have your senior helping us. We don't even have time to feel happy about this."

After Cedar finished speaking, he changed the topic and continued, "David, I really want to thank you. If it weren't for you, this big family of mine might..."

"Cedar, you don't have to be like this! Your family helped me, so I would also naturally help you. This is all mutual."

"Thank you! Thank you!" Cedar said gratefully.
