

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2043

Married at First Sight Chapter 2043—“Miss, I can’t hide this. I just got the news from them. Now they have sent someone to Wiltspoon to meet Mrs. Stone.”

After a moment of silence, Kathryn said: “Okay, I understand, let the Matriarch keep it a secret.”

The things her mother robbed were probably going to be returned in the end.

It depended on how she chose.

After finishing the call, Kathryn leaned back against the elevator wall, staring blankly at the top of the elevator.

This family was really messed up.

If those rumors were true, her mother’s hands were covered with blood, and it was the blood of her two aunts.

In order to fight for power and profit, her own mother was ruthless enough to ignore her family affection.

How should she choose?

How to do it?

Kathryn couldn’t do it together.

Although she grew up in the countryside, her three views d not been distorted.

Let’s make arrangements after confirming that Mrs. Stone in Wiltspoon was her aunt’s daughter.

Now, what she had to do was to control the Farrell Group first. Only when she had power could she return the position of the head of the Farrell Family to the descendants of the aunt.

In just a few minutes, Kathryn had already made the right decision.

She decided to try her best to return the position of head of the Farrell Family to the descendants of her aunt, who belonged to her lineage.

Matriarch

She had no interest in the position of Matriarch in the first place, but after recognizing her ancestors and returning to her clan, she had no choice but to take up this responsibility.

Knowing that there was someone more orthodox than herself, she was more than happy and get back to running her own company.

Even Mrs. Stone should be in her fifties. If she took over the Farrell Family, she would have to change someone soon. After all, she was old and lacked energy. She wonder if Mrs. Stone's daughter has the ability?

This was also the reason why Kathryn asked people to investigate Mrs. Stone and wanted all the information of Mrs. Stone.

Soon, the elevator doors opened.

Kathryn walked out of the elevator calmly.

At the same time she got out of the elevator, Shiloh's elder sister-in-law, Erika, also entered the elevator on the first floor, ready to go upstairs to pick up Shiloh.

ten minutes later.

Erika and Shiloh walked out of the office building of Farrell Group.

The two left in the same car.

Erika was driving, and Shiloh was sitting in the passenger seat. After the car drove out of the Farrell Group, Shiloh said to the sister-in-law: "I saw my mother scolding Kathryn just now, scolding Kathryn so badly. Kathryn went in and asked my mother to see all the documents and my mother threw them on the ground.

Seeing Kathryn not daring to say a word, squatting there to pick up those documents, I feel very happy. That country bumpkin is still showing off her power in front of me, and she dare not even say a word in front of Mom.

"Although I'm not as good as my mother, I'm still better than Kathryn. My mother said that Kathryn's achievements are all thanks to her elder brother and the others. In fact, Kathryn doesn't understand anything, so I thought she was really pretending to be a pig."

Shiloh felt that someone like Kathryn, if not of orthodox blood, would not be her opponent at all.

Recommended Novels

