

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2074

Married at First Sight Chapter 2074-She had the highest self-esteem.

When getting along with her, he couldn't take care of everything.

Camryn: "Callum."

Callum: "Um."

Camryn: "With me, will you feel tired?"

Callum stopped, and immediately poked her face with his fingers. Her skin was smooth. He couldn't help but change from poking twice to pinching, pinching twice and changing to touching. Unbearable, she slapped his big hand off.

"Talking to you, talking serious, you touch, what are you touching?" Camryn couldn't help pinching his face too.

Callum lowered his head and let her touch his face easily. She put her hands on both sides of his face respectively, and then twisted, but with little force.

Anyway, Callum didn't feel any pain.

Camryn must be reluctant to pinch him.

At first, when Callum pinched her face, he felt that she felt good, and it was mainly to tease her. At that time, she still rejected him. When he pinched her face, she reacted very violently.

Now, it's all gestures of love and affection. He was reluctant to use his strength for fear of hurting her.

Her skin was well maintained, and it would turn red with a little force.

Although her blushing looked very beautiful, but he couldn't pinch her blushing. Kissing her until her blushing was almost the same.

"If I feel tired and feel that you are a burden, I will not approach you, I will not flirt with you, and I will not even think about marrying you. Although you are the wife candidate chosen by grandma for me, grandma also threatens me, If I can't catch up with you within a year, I will be kicked out of the house.

That's just talking, grandma may drive me out in the first year and not let me celebrate the New Year at home, and it will be fine in the second year.

Grandma can choose some good candidates for our brothers. In fact, it is up to us to come. We are happy if we want to. If we don't want to, she has nothing to do. The only person who is really treated by grandma is soft and hard."

Because the oldest brother and sister-in-law had no feelings at all when they received the certificate, they were complete strangers.

The oldest brother took the route of marriage first and love later.

Maybe he thought the elder brother's route was not easy to follow. Grandma changed the route when she treated them and only gave them a goal. It was entirely up to them whether they wanted to act or not.

Once the goal was set, there was always one aspect that could pull their heartstrings and make them act.

They were the children brought up by grandma, and they had the best relationship with grandma. In the words of grandma scolding them: You b*stards, when you turn your tail, I can tell whether you want a big or small size.

Callum: "Camryn, I am completely sincere with you! Do not question my affection for you, and do not worry about being a burden to me. I do not feel tired, nor do I fear becoming tired."

Camryn's eyes could be cured.

Dr. Carden heard him talk about Camryn's condition, and knew that Camryn could see a hazy area instead of darkness, so she said with certainty that Camryn's eyes could be cured.

Even if her eyes couldn't be cured, he didn't dislike her.

Recommended Novels