

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2164

Married at First Sight Chapter 2164—“Sonny, you want to say that the baby in your aunt’s belly is your little sister!” Liberty taught his son.

Sonny’s big eyes flickered, and he said childishly: “Why do you say little sister?”

His instinctive reaction was that his aunt was going to give him a little brother.

Liberty: “Don’t you want to have a little sister? You used to tell your aunt to give him a little sister.”

Sonny said: “Titus has a little sister, and I like her, so I’ll tell my aunt to ask for a little sister instead of a little brother.”

“Both men and women are fine.”

Mrs. Stone smiled and said, “It’s the first child of the Serenity, and as long as the child is healthy and well, it has no way to protect itself. Liberty, let’s go to Wildridge Manor and send some extra supplies to Serenity.”

Alice reminded her mother-in-law.

Alice: “Yes, let’s go there when they come back.”

Zachary was so happy, he only told everyone that he was going to be a father, but he didn’t make it clear that he had brought Serenity back to Wiltspoon.

Everyone thought he and Serenity were still in FC Manor.

The butler came in from outside.

“Sir, Madam, there is a Ms. Farrell outside; she wants to see Madam.”

Hearing this, everyone stopped laughing.

Ms. Farrell?

People from Farrell’s family in Jensburg.

Liberty looked at Mrs. Stone.

Mrs. Stone said coldly: “Liberty, go out and see who is here. I don’t see anyone except Kathryn.”

Last week, she took Liberty to Jensburg to secretly inquire about the past of the Farrell family.

He didn't confront the Farrell family directly.

It took a week to inquire about the news, and the result was the same as what her son investigated.

With so many people in the Farrell family, Mrs. Stone only had a little affection for Kathryn.

"Auntie, I'll go out and have a look."

Liberty put down her son, but Sonny wanted to go out with her, so Liberty led her son out.

A taxi was parked at the entrance of the Stone Family's villa.

Liberty walked to the entrance of the villa, and the passengers in the back seat of the taxi got out of the car with a few gifts.

"Thanks."

Kathryn thanked the taxi driver.

The driver said something polite, then turned around and drove away.

Kathryn was wearing a black-striped short-sleeved T-shirt with a white bottom, black cropped pants, and simple flat sandals. Her hair was coiled behind her head, and she had on black sunglasses and a black mask.

People couldn't easily see her appearance.

Liberty felt that if she didn't wear sunglasses and a mask, she wouldn't attract everyone's attention, because she was dressed very ordinary.

Liberty had seen Kathryn's photos, and when she was in Jensburg, she and her aunt secretly saw Kathryn herself, remembering that Kathryn was very beautiful and very similar to her.

Kathryn had a very good temperament, her gestures were full of nobility.

Ordinary clothes couldn't hide her natural extravagance. Wearing a mask and sunglasses, so that no one could see her true face, well, it saved a lot of trouble.

Liberty now understood Kathryn's attire.

After getting off the car, Kathryn walked over and said hello politely: "Hi, excuse me, can I go in?"

The butler who followed Liberty quickly opened the door of the villa.

Recommended Novels