Married at First Sight Chapter 2173-Although she knew that Zachary was the eldest son of the wealthiest family, she also knew that her husband's family was extremely wealthy because everyone followed her and fawned over her, making her believe that a wealthy family was no different from an average one.

This pregnancy and the rewards given to her by her elders taught Serenity what it meant to be wealthy and how inhumane they were!

"Zachary."

Zachary lowered his head and kissed her forehead again, with a gentle voice, "Honey, I still like to hear you call me husband."

"I, feel like I'm hungry again." Serenity looked up at him, a little embarrassed and authentic.

At dinner, she obviously ate a lot and was very full.

Zachary asked dotingly: "What do you want to eat now, I'll go downstairs and get it for you."

Serenity: "I just want to eat a bowl of noodle soup with a lot of sauerkraut and peanuts."

Zachary: "..."

"Maybe, there is no pho at home."

Serenity sat upright, with sparkling eyes, and said to him, "Husband, how about we go back to the city right now, go shopping at the night market, and have supper."

Zachary looked at the time and said, "If you go back to the city, you will stay in the city tonight."

Serenity: "Tonight, I want to go back to Brynfield to spend the night."

Zachary kissed her with a smile, "It's the same as I thought, okay, you want to go back to the city to eat soup rice noodles, I'll take you there."

Josh informed him that pregnant women behaved similarly. They wanted to eat something right away when they had a sudden desire to do so.

A pregnant woman's appetite would also change; no matter what she wanted to eat, she had to be satisfied.

So, the couple quickly went downstairs quietly, and then walked out carefully, for fear of disturbing the elders.

In the eyes of the elders, Serenity was just pregnant, so she should rest well and not run around.

Zachary knew the elders in the family too well, and took Serenity back to the urban area just to eat a bowl of rice noodle soup. If the elders found out about this kind of thing, they would definitely scold him bloody.

Now, he was not the Zachary whom everyone favors.

He's at the end of the line.

The car drove out of Wildridge Manor.

Serenity turned her head to look at the villa they had left behind, and said to her husband with a smile, "It feels like the two of us are doing thieves."

"At this time, I took you back to the city. If I was discovered, I would definitely be criticized. We can only sneak around."

Zachary didn't even have a bodyguard with him.

It was just him and his wife. He also drove.

"It turns out that you are also afraid of being criticized." Serenity made fun of him.

From the moment she knew that he was the young master of the York family, all she saw was that everyone followed him and respected him. Except grandma, generally no one dared to talk nonsense in front of him, and no one dared to control him.

The parents-in-law were always polite to him, as if to please him.

She thought that apart from grandma, Zack was not afraid of anything.

"Afraid, why not? They usually spoil me, but they won't spoil me this time." Zachary shook Serenity's hand with one hand, "Honey, you will be our family's national treasure and group favorite from now on. In the future, you can take care of me and cover me."

"Don't worry, I will definitely cover you." Serenity thought about how her friend was treated at her husband's house, so she quickly said to Zachary: "Husband, I am in good health, and I have nothing to do. I can continue my work. You can't be like Mr. Bucham, who forbids his wife to do this or that. I'd be bored to death."
